

NNA Small Post Office Survey

1. Have you identified any small post office within your service area that is on the current closing list?

		Response Percent	Response Count
Yes		68.5%	354
No		24.2%	125
Not sure		7.4%	38
answered question			517
skipped question			8

2. If you answered "yes" to Question 1, is that office a part of your delivery network:

		Response Percent	Response Count
An original entry permit office (postage is paid there)		4.9%	18
An exceptional dispatch office		50.4%	185
Not part of our network		44.7%	164
answered question			367
skipped question			158

3. If any potential closing involves an entry office for your newspaper, what are your concerns about the loss of that office? Please check all that apply.

		Response Percent	Response Count
Inconvenience in entering at a more distant location		64.7%	176
Loss of Within County eligibility (e.g., the new entry office will be outside your county)		41.5%	113
Deterioration of service		82.7%	225
Loss of key business relationship with postmaster, BMEU staff, etc.		39.7%	108
Loss of other community services for your readership (ease of buying stamps, sending packages, for example)		67.6%	184
Competitive disadvantage		34.2%	93
Other (please specify)			57
		answered question	272
		skipped question	253

4. If any potential closing involves an exceptional dispatch office for your newspaper, what are your concerns about the loss of that office? Please check all that apply.

		Response Percent	Response Count
Loss of timely delivery		90.0%	296
Loss of identity of that community		57.1%	188
Competitive disadvantage		35.3%	116
Greater cost to transport newspapers for entry		57.8%	190
Other (please specify)			35
answered question			329
skipped question			196

5. Postal policy encourages, but does not require, a community meeting prior to a closing. It does require a questionnaire sent to postal patrons in advance. If you have witnessed any part of this process in recent months, NNA would like some feedback on how well it worked. If you have not witnessed a closing yet, please skip to the next question.

		Response Percent	Response Count
There was no meeting.		51.0%	79
There was a meeting, but during most people's workday.		9.0%	14
There was a meeting, but notice occurred only on a poster at the post office.		10.3%	16
There was a meeting, but no press announcement was made.		21.9%	34
There was a meeting, but press were not admitted.		0.6%	1
There was a meeting, but photography or recordings were barred.		2.6%	4
There was a meeting, but it clearly was to tell people what was going on, not to ask for input.		31.6%	49
There was a meeting, but it was poorly handled.		11.6%	18
Other (please specify)			91
answered question			155
skipped question			370

6. The law permits communities to appeal a closing to the Postal Regulatory Commission. If you have witnessed a closing in your area, please provide some feedback on that value of a potential appeal.

		Response Percent	Response Count
People in our area were not told by USPS of the option.		37.7%	49
The possibility of appeal was discussed but discouraged because it probably wouldn't help.		12.3%	16
An appeal is probably too expensive.		12.3%	16
People in our area are considering or have filed an appeal.		27.7%	36
Our newspaper has participated in or is considering an appeal.		4.6%	6
We are aware of residents' concerns, but share the view the post office should be closed.		23.8%	31
	Other (please specify)		39
answered question			130
skipped question			395

7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deteriorating building or a retiring postmaster may cause an office to come into the closing analysis. If you are getting worried, please provide a short comment to NNA about your concerns. Please identify by zip code the post office that concerns you.

		Response Count
		181
answered question		181
skipped question		344

8. National Newspaper Association is heavily involved in pending legislation that will reshape the way USPS provides services to newspapers and the country as a whole. USPS says it cannot currently pay its bills, and it believes it will run out of cash next summer. Congress is likely to pass a law to provide relief, but much debate is ahead on how sweeping the law should be. Where should the NNA Board of Directors put its priorities?

		Response Percent	Response Count
Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices		76.7%	389
Making sure exceptional dispatch privilege survives		50.9%	258
Preserving 6 day mail delivery, including Saturdays		41.8%	212
Fixing service problems reaching readers outside your county, but within your service area		45.8%	232
Fixing service problems reaching distant readers (former residents, snowbirds)		45.4%	230
Keeping rates as low as possible		67.3%	341
Guarding against new competitive threats from direct mail		39.1%	198
Making sure USPS stays in business, regardless of the problems newspapers may face		38.3%	194
	Other (please specify)		49
answered question			507
skipped question			18

9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

Response
Count

405

answered question

405

skipped question

120

10. Please provide your name.

Response
Count

481

answered question

481

skipped question

44

11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

Response
Count

482

answered question

482

skipped question

43

12. Is your newspaper a member of the National Newspaper Association?

		Response Percent	Response Count
Yes		70.5%	356
No		29.5%	149
		answered question	505
		skipped question	20

Q3. If any potential closing involves an entry office for your newspaper, what are your concerns about the loss of that office? Please check all that apply.

1	I our case, the only thing left at the affected PO's are the Post Office Boxes. Formor RR 's have been already moved to nearby bigger towns with more RR's.	Oct 3, 2011 12:59 PM
2	We are a free newspaper and do not use the post office for delivery.	Sep 15, 2011 6:58 AM
3	Late delivery of time sensistive news and advertising	Sep 14, 2011 3:31 PM
4	Timely delivery of all mail,but particularly newspapers!	Sep 14, 2011 1:18 PM
5	Out of state subscribers (weekly) delivery delayed - more	Sep 14, 2011 12:26 PM
6	Closing our local post office would be cutting off a large source of commerce for our community.	Sep 14, 2011 11:40 AM
7	Have delivery issues under the present situation across the nation. Have lost subscriber due to reluctance of postal system to deliver newspapers.	Sep 14, 2011 11:34 AM
8	Most of the patrons in the Sweetwater area (far west Beckham/Roger Mills counties) are older and if delivery is poor, I fear that we may lose their business as they might decide to discontinue our newspaper. We do have papers at a vendor in the ONLY store in that community. Zip Code 73666	Sep 14, 2011 9:19 AM
9	Our local office was not on the original 3,600+ hit list, but I am concerned that it will be included in the next round of closures.	Sep 14, 2011 6:50 AM
10	I'll have to wait and see. I have 3 papers and there are several on the list that may affect us. After the closure, will know more as it may slow us down and it may not.	Sep 14, 2011 6:35 AM
11	Entry office not closing	Sep 14, 2011 6:28 AM
12	NA	Sep 13, 2011 7:14 PM
13	I am going to have to hire newspaper carriers, to deliver my paper to people's homes and do not want to do that.	Sep 13, 2011 2:46 PM
14	The publication of some public notices in Illinois are determined by the entry office,making it so the town can put there notices in any other newspaper. Not forced to put it in the newspaper of that community	Sep 13, 2011 2:38 PM
15	Shouldn't affect us much, honestly. We'll drop the exceptional dispatch papers at whatever post office picks up the customers.	Sep 13, 2011 2:37 PM
16	Timeliness of delivery will be jeopardized	Sep 13, 2011 2:12 PM
17	Travel time to pick up mail would decrease the number of hours my business could be open.	Sep 13, 2011 9:21 AM
18	In relation to Question #1, a local post office remains open, but the rural route carriers sort mail out of another office further away, removing our option of driving a bundle to the post office to expedite service quicker. We can no longer do this, plus if P.O. boxes are not identified on the mailing list, they will be sent back to sender.	Sep 13, 2011 9:21 AM

Q3. If any potential closing involves an entry office for your newspaper, what are your concerns about the loss of that office? Please check all that apply.

19	At Ohio Community Media we publish 60+ publications in Ohio (Daily, Weekly, Niche, and Shopper Publications); within the next few weeks we will have moved all printing operations from six plants to on large press facility. Many of our operations rely on same-day postal delivery. The time-constraints regarding point-of-entry deadlines are critical. If we realize additional USPS closures and are forced to expand to other delivery locations involving time and expenses, this could be very detrimental to our business.	Sep 13, 2011 8:57 AM
20	I have checked all of the above for a reason. The Post Office at its best delivers our products without concern about being timely. They will hold papers for numbers of days and then deliver them in one bunch, breaking one of their own rules. They are in direct competition with the newspaper business and they intentionally work against us. We some contact locally and a relationship with a postmaster that is part of our communities, we do have some chance of making the system work for our customers. Closure of these small distribution offices hurst us in all categories.	Sep 13, 2011 8:44 AM
21	NA	Sep 13, 2011 8:33 AM
22	100% of our publications are direct mailed to subscribers. We already experience poor service through delayed or lack of delivery. Last week alone we received over 20 complaints for non-delivery. The post office response to customers "We never received your newspaper, they must not have mailed one to you this week" Costs continue to rise while service declines. You would be shocked at the amount of mail we empty from postal bags shipped to us to be reused for delivery. We have found tax returns, payroll checks, letters, etc.	Sep 13, 2011 8:31 AM
23	Timeliness of mail delivery for our subscribers. This appears to have already started and clients sometimes do not receive the paper or they receive it 2 to 3 weeks late	Sep 13, 2011 8:23 AM
24	Adding 60 miles a week in extra travel costs	Sep 13, 2011 8:19 AM
25	None	Sep 13, 2011 7:15 AM
26	Loss of subscriptions, loss of revenue	Sep 13, 2011 6:39 AM
27	loss of circulation,loss of advertiser,loss of reader	Sep 13, 2011 4:06 AM
28	n/a	Sep 13, 2011 2:44 AM
29	Our post office only sells stamps and delivers box mail. We drive our newspapers 15 miles to the entry office for our mail and have done so for 26 years.	Sep 12, 2011 6:43 PM
30	Half of our circulation circle is in Kansas. We can see Kansas from our front window but it takes three days for the mail to get there, sometimes longer. So our paper and a number of local business regularly drive 7 miles to a Kansas post office. We mail our statements, newspapers, newsletters, etc. at that office to obtain next day delivery. Closing it will cause many problems.	Sep 12, 2011 4:24 PM
31	Many citizens still rely on the postal services provided: money order purchases,	Sep 12, 2011 3:43 PM

Q3. If any potential closing involves an entry office for your newspaper, what are your concerns about the loss of that office? Please check all that apply.

	P O Boxes availability, receiving (not just sending) packages. Not all citizens are computer literate and rely on face to face instructions and help.
32	It will be very difficult for us to drive long distances to multiple entry points and meet the time requirements in order to get the paper delivered on time.	Sep 12, 2011 3:07 PM
33	The offices that are on the list get our paper from the Great Falls branch, the closure would delay the paper from being delivered in a timely manner which would possibly result in loss of subscriptions for us.	Sep 12, 2011 3:06 PM
34	It is not a direct entry office for us but three are in our area. With postal issues piling up every week, I fear that subscribers will lose faith in the postal system and thus, cancel subscriptions to periodicals, etc.	Sep 12, 2011 3:03 PM
35	none	Sep 12, 2011 2:59 PM
36	Rural delivery is expected to take an extra day for delivery of our newspaper to the communities of Raymond and Alden (Kansas).	Sep 12, 2011 2:53 PM
37	we are a free newspaper and are carrier delivered	Sep 12, 2011 2:45 PM
38	We will have to drive over 60 miles to mail our papers every week.	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
39	Does not apply to our situation	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
40	inconveniece - costs associated with inconvenience	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM
41	I believe the post offices on the target list will have little affect on the consumer because the three offices are very small and within five miles of another facility.	Sep 12, 2011 1:57 PM
42	Although the Post Office to be closed is not an actual part of our delivery network, our newspaper does cover that town's post office with a local correspondent. That coverage aids in our subscription basis.	Sep 12, 2011 1:41 PM
43	I would rather they close the unprofitable post offices than have to cut back on Saturday mail service if that would work better. They are no different than other businesses, if you aren't making money, then you need to close what is unprofitable.	Sep 12, 2011 1:33 PM
44	So far the two post offices named are not major parts of our readership area. Some residents will lose the ability to get mail from a local PO box and will have to drive 15-17 miles one way.	Sep 12, 2011 1:32 PM
45	Our Eldridge, Iowa, Post Office, built new to Postal Service specifications in 1996, lost carrier route supervision through DUO to the satellite Northwest Station in Davenport. Our seven carriers now drive 39,200 extra miles to the NW Station to sort the mail and back-haul it to Eldridge. With Max Heath's help, we decided Exceptional Dispatch to NW Station was the best option. But NW Station does not have verification status. Max said this was the only place in the country he was aware of where a newspaper was directed to deposit papers not the local post office that HAS verification status, but at an office that does NOT. Lucky for us, a last minute determination says that our money stays in Eldridge and the Eldridge Postmaster will go to NW Station quarterly for verification. That	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM is the good news. The bad news is that because of DUO, our box mail is not available until 11 a.m. This is a severe adjustment for us and all the businesses and government offices in our town of 5,651. A severe decrease in service.

Q3. If any potential closing involves an entry office for your newspaper, what are your concerns about the loss of that office? Please check all that apply.

- |    |   |                       |
|----|---|-----------------------|
| 46 | The Gering post office is two blocks away. Due to our press schedule, we may be adding time to our normal drop time at the post office because we will have to drive farther to the neighboring town's office. In addition, we cannot ensure that we will receive the same level of attentiveness or flexibility with a neighboring office as we do with our hometown post office.  | Sep 12, 2011 1:16 PM  |
| 47 | The original entry post office is still open but our mail can no longer be drooped there. It must be taken to another post office about 20 minutes away because carriers are no longer headquartered out of our post office but rather the new location.  | Sep 12, 2011 12:39 PM |
| 48 | two different mailing distributions will now handle part of our rural routes as a small PO will now only handle box customers, from just Pontiac, to Flint and Pontiac and then back to the community it started.   | Sep 12, 2011 12:31 PM |
| 49 | We have a paper that is not on the list yet, but I fear soon will be. It's in Hayes county Nebraska. Population for the entire county is 967 and for the village of hayes center is 220. We mail out about 600 papers a week. The postmaster in the adjoining county where we have a newspaper has already told us that if they close Hayes Center he does not want to be the original entry. He says it's too much paper work and hassle. We are working hard with the local postmaster in Hayes Center to keep his numbers up as high as possible. Recently I bought a postage meter and all of my postage for all three of my newspapers, (Hayes Hitchcock and Dundy Counties) and my parents business is being run through my postage meter out of the Hayes Center office. I am told that this is not "retail" sales or people walking through the doors of the Hayes Center Post office to buy the postage, so it doesn't help quite as much, but it still affects the bottom line of that office. So essentially what I am trying to do is bring money to that post office from the other communities right now to make sure that the numbers don't drop. If we lose that post office, we will probably have to close that newspaper down. The extra costs associated with mailing elsewhere and travel to get it there as well as employee to make it happen just aren't feasible. It is a downhill effect. You have communities that are working together to maintain their identity and keep what they have, and losing the post office is out of everyone's hands locally. Locals will fight to keep what they have. | Sep 12, 2011 12:06 PM |
| 50 | This latest change, while not a closure, has stripped our local rural routes and means that we now have to use exceptional delivery and take our rural route papers to another state at a larger post office so they can come back here the same day. Boxholders are still sorted locally. Mail delivery truck still comes here. Only difference is we have to drive 25 miles extra and our two rural carriers also have to drive to large post office, sort their mail, and then bring it back here for delivery. It actually adds to their mileage and does nothing to save money at local office. I expect our office will be subject to closure soon. Not sure what this does to our legal status.  | Sep 12, 2011 11:32 AM |
| 51 | Though it is not an entry office for our newspaper, the loss of Annapolis, CA 95412 is a major inconvenience to our readers in that remote community.   | Sep 12, 2011 11:25 AM |

Q3. If any potential closing involves an entry office for your newspaper, what are your concerns about the loss of that office? Please check all that apply.

52	That office is 35 miles away from our entry permit office, yet still in county. Delivery would be delayed by a day and this community would become very isolated.	Sep 12, 2011 11:24 AM
53	This has already happened to me. Last year I had to take my papers out of my county. They do give me in-county rates after I discussed the problem and the unfairness to my business with the added travel and them not providing me with an entry office in my county of Gloucester County, New Jersey.	Sep 12, 2011 11:21 AM
54	We currently blanket that zip code with our free paper, but do not drop them there.	Sep 12, 2011 11:14 AM
55	I had to move from a small post office to a larger one to accept my newspaper. It is a mess, the larger po continues to lose the papers. Paper mailed to 50 miles away took 4 weeks to be delivered. The service is not like when I mailed at the smaller PO	Sep 12, 2011 11:12 AM
56	We were already experiencing considerable delivery problems. Closing of smaller post office does not help, unless the postal service actually works to improve the service at the large offices. Cheyenne's post office is a horribly run office, often taking weeks to get our mail delivered a mere 40 miles away.	Sep 12, 2011 11:01 AM
57	I may have to re-invent carrier delivery for our towns, having done away with it a few years ago in favor of USPS.	Sep 12, 2011 10:55 AM

Q4. If any potential closing involves an exceptional dispatch office for your newspaper, what are your concerns about the loss of that office? Please check all that apply.

1	In rural areas, like the ones up for closure, it will be hard to reach customers.	Sep 14, 2011 4:56 PM
2	The service will probably be picked up by a neighboring Post Office, with delivery at about the same time, or at least that has been our experience.	Sep 14, 2011 8:37 AM
3	There are several small post offices (Milan and/or Ulster, Pa.) that would probably be closed in the next round of "hits." This would affect our drops to the next office that is available. It would hurt us for sure in timely delivery.	Sep 14, 2011 7:09 AM
4	same as above	Sep 14, 2011 6:35 AM
5	Should not change	Sep 14, 2011 6:28 AM
6	This is horrible. We already get so many complaints from the St. Louis area customers that it takes 5 - 7 days to get their paper. Our paper is at St. Louis Post Office on the same day that it is published.	Sep 14, 2011 5:52 AM
7	NA	Sep 13, 2011 7:14 PM
8	Readers will be dissatisfied with us, because of untimely delivery and this will cause a lack of sales because they will just not renew or require a refund.	Sep 13, 2011 3:10 PM
9	I may have to move printing my paper to a day earlier, since the new requirements are for newspapers to be dropped and paid for by 3pm. We are a weekly paper and our deadline for news is Mondays at 5pm. The paper is sent to the printer on Tuesday and delivered on Wednesday. Subscribers get them in their mailbox on Thursday. I won't have very timely news if I have to move my printing schedule up. My alternative will be paper boys, and going on the web.	Sep 13, 2011 2:46 PM
10	Unhappy customers who will be at least a day late receiving their newspapers.	Sep 13, 2011 12:26 PM
11	We recently lost several exceptional dispatch offices even though they have not been identified for closing yet. Postmasters are saying they may be on future lists.	Sep 13, 2011 11:18 AM
12	See above.	Sep 13, 2011 8:57 AM
13	We don't believe this first round of closings will have a negative effect on our delivery service. P.O.s in zips 43333 and 43009 will be closed in our area. These areas represent a nominal portion of our total circulation. Closings may further worsen delivery time, but most mail subscribers are already used terrible service from USPS and will probably tolerate any changes.	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
14	If I could check competitive disadvantage twice I would. They are our competitors. We pay taxes to help our competitors provide us with poor service, and this situation will further this dilemma.	Sep 13, 2011 8:44 AM
15	NA	Sep 13, 2011 8:33 AM
16	This is a small office and probably should be closed: Myra, TX	Sep 13, 2011 7:43 AM
17	None	Sep 13, 2011 7:15 AM

Q4. If any potential closing involves an exceptional dispatch office for your newspaper, what are your concerns about the loss of that office? Please check all that apply.

18	Loss of support/service, loss of subscriptions, loss of revenue	Sep 13, 2011 6:39 AM
19	The post offices that are closing in our area are rural and to be honest it just means we have three less drops to make every night. The proposed alternative post offices that we would deliver to are already on our route. For us, this cut is beneficial.	Sep 13, 2011 2:44 AM
20	We also use the office that is being closed for exceptional dispatch of a Kansas title.	Sep 12, 2011 4:24 PM
21	While the post office was not closed 47102 was downsized to a single clerk. All mail for 46102 is now sorted for deliver at nearby 47170. So far no one has indicated I am no longer eligible for DDU discount of 47102.	Sep 12, 2011 3:46 PM
22	It is hard for me to answer these questions since I don't know which of the next 7,000 post offices being closed will be in my trade area. I do not have any on the current list.	Sep 12, 2011 3:07 PM
23	Possible loss of subscriptions from the areas in question.	Sep 12, 2011 3:06 PM
24	We expect USPS delivery costs to increase in communities that shift from PO Boxes to home delivery. Ultimately, that cost increase will be passed on to newspapers, we expect.	Sep 12, 2011 2:53 PM
25	Does not apply - free newspaper	Sep 12, 2011 2:45 PM
26	Does not apply	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
27	The papers are delivered so late that everything the folks need to know about sales, meetings, special events, etc., are already over.	Sep 12, 2011 2:23 PM
28	I don't know what this term means. Customers of the three POs slated for possible closing in our area will be served by nearby post offices, so we will re-route accordingly.	Sep 12, 2011 1:57 PM
29	It wouldn't affect us because we have to pass by the Post Office that would be designated to receive mail for that office anyway.	Sep 12, 2011 1:43 PM
30	Our customers in those three (so far) areas are quite upset about the whole thing, but it particularly concerns us because those subscribers will now get their papers three to four days after publication.	Sep 12, 2011 1:34 PM
31	We ought to be given keys to those post offices where we use exceptional dispatch, if the office is close on Saturday as an accommodation to the closing. (lobby needs to be opened for the patrons)	Sep 12, 2011 1:28 PM
32	At this point in time, we are looking at 3 post offices that we have exceptional dispatch to that are on the list for possible closing. One has already had their hearing and are waiting on the decision.	Sep 12, 2011 12:29 PM
33	We recently lost two exceptional dispatch offices. We were not told until the day they closed that they were closing. When we asked the postmaster, she told us that they had told all employees if they told anyone in the media or talked about	Sep 12, 2011 12:06 PM

Q4. If any potential closing involves an exceptional dispatch office for your newspaper, what are your concerns about the loss of that office? Please check all that apply.

it they would lose their jobs. They hid it from the communities until it was too late to do anything about it. They also didn't hold the public hearing for the Parks postoffice (the one that no one knew about and that only the postmaster and letter carrier came to) in Parks. They held it in a different community altogether. Why would the post office do that if they were truly wanting people to know what was going on? They were trying to sneak it through as far as we are concerned and that is what is scary about the whole thing. Sneak it through and threaten the postmasters job if they say anything about it. The common courtesy of telling the newspaper hey you're mailing out papers tomorrow, and you've been a long time customer, we want you to know that we are removing this post office and this is how we would like you to mail your papers out from now on... Didn't happen. So less customer service from the post office and more money from us to mail the papers.

- |    |   |                       |
|----|---|-----------------------|
| 34 | Subscribers in Star Valley, Wyoming are already experiencing a host of postal snafus as adjustments are being made in our postal service area. Five post offices in the Star Valley Independent Newspaper coverage area are scheduled to be closed. We are constantly fielding questions out of our front office regarding how area subscribers will be able to receive their newspaper when the post office closures take place. | Sep 12, 2011 11:05 AM |
| 35 | The two closing do not have a negative effect on us.  | Sep 12, 2011 10:43 AM |

Q5. Postal policy encourages, but does not require, a community meeting prior to a closing. It does require a questionnaire sent to postal patrons in advance. If you have witnessed any part of this process in recent months, NNA would like some feedback on how well it worked. If you have not witnessed...

1	No PO's have been closed at this point.	Oct 3, 2011 12:59 PM
2	There was a meeting, it drew a large crowd, the large crowd probably came because of our coverage of the meeting, we did a story about the meeting.	Sep 19, 2011 11:43 PM
3	Diagonal did have an informational meeting. Lots of questions were asked and answered. We felt they did a good job at answering the questions and let the community know the steps being taken.	Sep 17, 2011 9:37 PM
4	I am unaware of any meetings.	Sep 16, 2011 11:16 AM
5	The meeting I attended was not publicized by the post office but was well attended due to grassroots efforts to get it out. one-third of the entire town attended. USPS handled it extremely well, i thought.	Sep 16, 2011 8:17 AM
6	The meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Sept. 20, so of course it hasn't happened yet. We did receive a press release on it, though.	Sep 15, 2011 4:43 PM
7	I reported the closing of the Karbers Ridge, IL post office in Hardin County, IL on September 8, 2011 in my weekly newspaper. At the same time I reported there would be a meeting to discuss possible closure of Herod, IL post office in neighboring Pope County. I was not notified by the postal service of this meeting. It was posted in the Herod, IL post office and someone brought it to my attention. The meeting was held September 14, 5 p.m. I did not attend.	Sep 15, 2011 12:47 PM
8	Input was accepted at the meeting, but it was clearly not taken into consideration.	Sep 15, 2011 8:25 AM
9	Can't answer this question. Never been to one.	Sep 15, 2011 5:37 AM
10	One post office that we drop-ship to has all rural delivery going to a larger post office 10 miles north. We are now forced to drive our papers there. There has already been a problem with drop ship to new location.	Sep 14, 2011 4:05 PM
11	The meeting was very well handled	Sep 14, 2011 2:53 PM
12	In the case of one post office, it was closed without a public hearing. The reason cited was an "emergency suspension." Residents had only four days' notice to make other arrangements.	Sep 14, 2011 2:47 PM
13	I attended a meeting for the closing of the Grant, IA post office. Recorded and took a few pictures; other press was there also. Officials from the P.O. were there, and tried to explain why they were closing the office down and also alternatives such as other towns delivering the customers mail to their mail boxes - each person to erect a mailbox at the entry to their property. It will now be closing for sure October 1. Another town, Lewis, IA has had a meeting, but our newspaper was not informed about it.	Sep 14, 2011 1:52 PM
14	There will be a meeting shortly and a press announcement was made in advance of the meeting.	Sep 14, 2011 12:09 PM
15	No meetings or questionnaires yet. We are watching for this	Sep 14, 2011 11:48 AM

Q5. Postal policy encourages, but does not require, a community meeting prior to a closing. It does require a questionnaire sent to postal patrons in advance. If you have witnessed any part of this process in recent months, NNA would like some feedback on how well it worked. If you have not witnessed...

16	There was a meeting, publicized by the local postal union workers and correspondingly covered by the media. I attended the meeting, offered insight into our particular situation (reliance on postal distribution facility as primary drop plocation for newspaper distribution) and was given promises of alteranative plans. Since that hearing those plans have not been forthcoming, in spite of efforts to get details from contacts with the regional postal operation.	Sep 14, 2011 9:45 AM
17	If there has been a meeting, my newspaper was NOT notified. I would like to be notified of ANY and ALL meetings.	Sep 14, 2011 9:19 AM
18	There was a publicized meeting with Congressional representatives in attendance. It was Pollock, MO - Don't think there have been any meetings at the other 3 PO's in our locality.	Sep 14, 2011 8:37 AM
19	local postmasters have been awesome.	Sep 14, 2011 7:38 AM
20	not sure there was a meeting or any notice	Sep 14, 2011 6:38 AM
21	There was a meeting when they tried to close Chester and a large group of residents showed but so far there have been no announcements of meetings of the Post Offices on the list.	Sep 14, 2011 6:35 AM
22	I have not witnessed any part of that process.	Sep 14, 2011 6:08 AM
23	I have gone to several of these over the last few years, most recently in Keswick, Iowa. The 2 postal workers who were leading this meeting were rude and laughed often as if it were not important or even funny. They were cold and the questions asked were not answered well and many were answered in a way to lead the questioner to believe they didn't matter. Best quote when an elderly man asked why he would have to go to a town in another county and school district and was further away, the USPS gal said "County line and district lines mean nothing to the post office."	Sep 14, 2011 5:52 AM
24	NA	Sep 13, 2011 7:14 PM
25	It was also not held in that community, but about 14 miles away in Enid.	Sep 13, 2011 5:04 PM
26	New information to me. I didn't know they were suppose to do this.	Sep 13, 2011 3:10 PM
27	This is a comment based on a meeting a few years ago when addresses in this area were changed based on state... if you lived in Minnesota you got a Minnesota address even if that post office was miles from you, same for Iowa. We are a border town so we have many roads that wind back and forth among the two states.	Sep 13, 2011 2:37 PM
28	I am not aware of a meeting, but it is possible that one happened.	Sep 13, 2011 2:37 PM
29	Unsure	Sep 13, 2011 2:16 PM
30	no announcements made of any meetings.	Sep 13, 2011 1:18 PM
31	We've had one post office close however not sure if there was a meeting.	Sep 13, 2011 1:13 PM

Q5. Postal policy encourages, but does not require, a community meeting prior to a closing. It does require a questionnaire sent to postal patrons in advance. If you have witnessed any part of this process in recent months, NNA would like some feedback on how well it worked. If you have not witnessed...

32	There is a meeting coming up	Sep 13, 2011 12:39 PM
33	The Eldora Post Office where we exceptional dispatch, switched sorting centers to Grundy Center an additional 25 miles from Eldora. We enter approximately 3,000 pieces of our TMC at that Post Office but we were given no notice of the change. Our post office personnel at the local level have been very helpful however, they too received little or late notice of the changes. We are unaware of any meeting. Technically the post office is still open however, they no longer accept bulk mailing.	Sep 13, 2011 12:37 PM
34	We were only told ONE DAY in advance of not being able to exceptional dispatch one of our weekly publications.	Sep 13, 2011 11:14 AM
35	One of the recent closings was in Cambridge IL where we have the Cambridge Chronicle. The production for this paper is done at our Geneseo, IL location. If there was a meeting about the closing of Cambridge, it was not brought to my attention as the circulation person that one was held. I was caught by surprise. Most of the closings I had been made aware of where much smaller offices than this one in the county seat.	Sep 13, 2011 9:45 AM
36	Meeting at 3 p.m. with public input and media allowed.	Sep 13, 2011 9:28 AM
37	We experienced closures in Covington, Fletcher, and Lewistown, Ohio. We were notified of the closure, but to my knowledge there wasn't a community-wide meeting held. As Group Publisher I did not receive an invitation to such meeting, if it was held.	Sep 13, 2011 8:57 AM
38	Meeting was well attended by residents, but PO officials, while they did take questions, skewed their replies to the fact that the PO in question was not generating revenue and it is all about the money. PO officials kept saying that the local PO was being considered for closure because the PM had retired. Local people replied with the answer that the job was posted only for a few days.	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
39	There was no meeting that our newspaper was made aware of. We did publish a news item related to the closings.	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
40	Don't know if there was a meeting; we weren't notified.	Sep 13, 2011 8:41 AM
41	NA	Sep 13, 2011 8:33 AM
42	Questions and concerns were not addressed	Sep 13, 2011 8:19 AM
43	Not aware of a meeting	Sep 13, 2011 7:51 AM
44	Have not heard that the Lamar office is planning to close as yet	Sep 13, 2011 7:20 AM
45	We learned of it ahead of time and wrote an article. Otherwise, no one would have known about it except a few post office patrons.	Sep 13, 2011 7:20 AM
46	Meeting scheduled- notice sent to newspaper.	Sep 13, 2011 6:43 AM
47	I'm unaware of any meeting	Sep 13, 2011 6:29 AM

Q5. Postal policy encourages, but does not require, a community meeting prior to a closing. It does require a questionnaire sent to postal patrons in advance. If you have witnessed any part of this process in recent months, NNA would like some feedback on how well it worked. If you have not witnessed...

48	Meeting has not yet been scheduled to our knowledge	Sep 13, 2011 6:09 AM
49	news article: Residents upset about possible closure of post office in Crane By Bill Vander Weele Sidney Herald Crane resident Chris Knutson wonders how she will receive the medications for her husband in the future. Now when the insulin arrives, the Crane postal worker gives her a call to pick it up. The Crane Post Office is targeted for closure. The U.S. Postal Service announced in January its plan to close about 5,000 small, rural offices in the nation. Offices currently being reviewed in Montana are in Crane, Cardwell, Shawmut and Redstone. "What am I going to do in 30 below weather and we need medications?" Knutson said. "There were a lot of times this winter I didn't go to town because of the weather." Lisa Blomquist, manager of consumer affairs for the U.S. Postal Service in Montana, says within the next month the proposal will be posted at the post offices in Crane and Sidney. The proposal will explain the possibility of the Crane office closing because of a limited work load. Residents have 60 days to comment on the proposal. The national office will then review those comments and make a final decision. Once the final decision is posted, residents have another 60 days to comment. Residents Dave Harris and Bonnie Litten agree the post office is vital to the small town's residents. Harris says the most important component the post office offers is the picking up and delivering of packages. There are about 45 box holders. "People get their meds here, you can't always get out in the winter," he said. But another part of the post office is its community importance. "It's the communications center for our community," Harris said, noting how people look at the bulletin board for news. "It's our information center. It's all we have to tell this community. We don't have a gas station or coffee shop." Litten added, "We wouldn't know anybody here if it wasn't for the post office." Harris says often residents leave their surplus of vegetables in the building's entry way so others can enjoy them. "They don't call the neighbors and say we have some vegetables because everybody is busy working," Harris said. One community meeting has already been held considering the matter. On the building's counter are questionnaires from the U.S. Postal Service as well as a letter from U.S. Sen. Jon Tester. The senator writes that he has held discussions with national and state leaders about the subject. "I'm really disappointed they are even thinking of closing it," Knutson said. "It's going to affect people with limited income and people with disabilities." Knutson said many residents have offered to provide services such as mowing the lawn to help reduce expenses. "This is the stupidest time to close when we might really need it in a year," Harris said, referring to the potential added residents because of the oil boom. Residents have been urged to contact Tester, U.S. Sen. Max Baucus and U.S. Rep. Denny Rehberg to express their desire to keep the post office open. "It's been here for 100 years. I would hate to see it go away," Knutson said.	Sep 12, 2011 8:19 PM
50	Cheraw downtown was scheduled to be closed. There was a notice and a meeting. It was well publicized by radio and newspaper. The community attended. Former Rep. John Spratt (6th Dist) intervened and saved the post office from closing.	Sep 12, 2011 3:19 PM
51	There was a meeting regarding proposed closing of Muldoon, TX, post office. It	Sep 12, 2011 3:17 PM

Q5. Postal policy encourages, but does not require, a community meeting prior to a closing. It does require a questionnaire sent to postal patrons in advance. If you have witnessed any part of this process in recent months, NNA would like some feedback on how well it worked. If you have not witnessed...

	was handled well and we covered it in the newspaper. Why does your questionnaire not have a box for a positive response. This does not give me confidence in the survey methodology.,
52	When the meeting was announced, it was as if the proposed closing were a "done deal." Weeks later, the next list didn't even have the first post office as a prospect for closing. And these are itty-bitty places that need to close. A county of 37,765 people does not need nine post offices, and we certainly don't need three within a 5 to 10-mile radius.	Sep 12, 2011 3:12 PM
53	no meeting yet	Sep 12, 2011 3:10 PM
54	I am not aware of such meetings or surveys	Sep 12, 2011 3:07 PM
55	Don't know of any meeting at this point.	Sep 12, 2011 3:02 PM
56	I learned of the meeting at a small post office in our county from a patron. I did cover the meeting and the people who attended were very upset with the postal service. Most people left feeling that there was nothing they could do to stop it.	Sep 12, 2011 2:53 PM
57	The three meetings I attended or knew about were not publicized until I found out about them myself. Postal patrons were informed by a personal note in their PO boxes ... some of them on the very day of the meeting.	Sep 12, 2011 2:35 PM
58	At the Halsey, NE meeting it seemed it had already been predetermined that the post office would be closing. They were not looking for input.	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
59	I know of no such meeting in my circulation area.	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
60	Not aware of any meeting(s).	Sep 12, 2011 2:24 PM
61	I was not there myself, but a representative for the newspaper reported that they were unprepared for her questions and they didn't have any knowledge she was coming or who she was. She just happened to be the liason from Sen. Tim Griffin's office.	Sep 12, 2011 2:23 PM
62	havent heard of a meeting yet	Sep 12, 2011 2:13 PM
63	Postal officials were clearly out of their element in a small community, and they were unable to answer a considerable number of questions.	Sep 12, 2011 2:10 PM
64	I have not heard anything about a meeting. If it was, it wasn't advertised with us.	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM
65	There is a meeting scheduled in a couple of weeks for Ruskin, NE	Sep 12, 2011 2:02 PM
66	There will be a meeting, but not yet scheduled	Sep 12, 2011 2:01 PM
67	The message came across pretty plainly that the meeting was to discuss serving the area "efficiently and effectively" with the closing of the PO. And frankly, the office had $22,000 in revenues last year and expenses of over $100,000 per year- it needs to close.	Sep 12, 2011 1:57 PM

Q5. Postal policy encourages, but does not require, a community meeting prior to a closing. It does require a questionnaire sent to postal patrons in advance. If you have witnessed any part of this process in recent months, NNA would like some feedback on how well it worked. If you have not witnessed...

68	There is supposed to be a community meeting scheduled and the Postmaster has told us that all postal patrons will receive a notice as well as newspaper in order to publicize it.	Sep 12, 2011 1:41 PM
69	We found out the day before from a resident. We sent a staffer to cover it.	Sep 12, 2011 1:32 PM
70	At meetings that were well attended in Andrew and McCausland, Iowa, reporters said Postal officials were equipped only to answer questions about how much money USPS is losing and why change is necessary. They had no or very little data and were unprepared to answer any questions about local operations. People were frustrated!	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM
71	Not sure about public meetings at all ... haven't heard a word on any of that.	Sep 12, 2011 1:28 PM
72	A meeting will be held on Sept. 22nd, with a representative from the USPS there.	Sep 12, 2011 12:54 PM
73	we found out about the change two days before our paper was to be entered.	Sep 12, 2011 12:39 PM
74	public meeting happened and much concern and unhappiness was displayed by citizens at another post office no hearing!	Sep 12, 2011 12:38 PM
75	I was allowed to attend and take pictures at the one location. I found out about the meeting through our local post master.	Sep 12, 2011 12:29 PM
76	I guess there was a meeting. Everyone says that they didn't know about it, the only two people that showed were the postmaster and the mail carrier. The paper found out because someone stopped by the day it was closing and said hey did you know that there is a sign in the Parks post office today saying the post office is closing today? Why didn't you do a story on it, none of us knew anything about it. Funny that the Post Office says they sent letters because the last I heard no one had ever received them. Maybe they got lost in the new sorting system since our local postmasters can no longer put an envelope in the box here without having it sent to North Platte 120 miles away or Grand Island 25 miles away to be sorted first. Funny that the postmaster said she was told she'd lose her job if she told us about it. It was a farce. I don't think the other town had a public meeting either. So that would be two meetings that I am not aware of happening. We would have appealed one of the post offices had we known it was going on.	Sep 12, 2011 12:06 PM
77	USPS staff illegally would not let us shoot pictures in the Post Office.	Sep 12, 2011 12:05 PM
78	I said there was not meeting, however, if there was, I was unaware of it. No residents in our community were aware of it, if there was a meeting. There certainly was no meeting when the decision was made to remove the local rural route carriers from our local post office.	Sep 12, 2011 11:32 AM
79	The representative spoke out of both sides of his mouth... He was there to gather input and no final decision had been made... but at the same time it was clear that the wheels were in motion and not much was going to stop them.	Sep 12, 2011 11:32 AM
80	No meeting yet that I am aware of.	Sep 12, 2011 11:30 AM

Q5. Postal policy encourages, but does not require, a community meeting prior to a closing. It does require a questionnaire sent to postal patrons in advance. If you have witnessed any part of this process in recent months, NNA would like some feedback on how well it worked. If you have not witnessed...

81	Two of the meetings we attended there was no recordings allow and he also lumped in no photography, but we shot anyway.	Sep 12, 2011 11:29 AM
82	Some meetings were held by the community to try to find a solution, but no official USPS meeting has yet been scheduled.	Sep 12, 2011 11:25 AM
83	There were meetings. Most of the community members attended. They were not happy. We (the media) did attend and we DID report on the meetings!! These meetings primarily were informational as to what was going to happen.	Sep 12, 2011 11:23 AM
84	We received notification from the postmaster by phone and publicized it in our paper. We attended the meeting and both the USPS reps and the citizens attending were courteous, but it seemed evident to all that the closing will happen regardless of citizen input.	Sep 12, 2011 11:21 AM
85	I got a letter and told where I had to go to drop off my papers with one week's notice!	Sep 12, 2011 11:21 AM
86	The Smoot, Wyoming Post Office closure meeting happened and no one in the community even knew it was taking place. There was some soundbites about how notice had been given. But ask area residents if they knew what was taking place and they will say no. The Freedom Post Office has been battling closure for months. The meeting was well attended, letters have been sent. Local and state officials have appealed on behalf of the postal patrons. The post office is still scheduled to be closed and area residents are extremely frustrated and feel they have not been heard by the government.	Sep 12, 2011 11:05 AM
87	The meetings haven't been scheduled yet so I can't tell you. I do plan to try to attend the ones affecting the Dupuyer and Bynum post offices in my coverage area.	Sep 12, 2011 11:00 AM
88	In one instance, where a post office has already been closed, no one seemed to know about the meeting if there is one. Another post office likely to be closed did have a meeting that we were aware of, so we have seen it go down in several ways so far.	Sep 12, 2011 10:57 AM
89	There was a meeting. We received no notice from the USPS, but got the date and time ourselves from USPS and published a notice. The meeting was well attended and those in attendance were able to provide input.	Sep 12, 2011 10:54 AM
90	There is a meeting scheduled, hasn't happened yet.	Sep 12, 2011 10:41 AM
91	meetings are not the problem.	Sep 12, 2011 10:32 AM

Q6. The law permits communities to appeal a closing to the Postal Regulatory Commission. If you have witnessed a closing in your area, please provide some feedback on that value of a potential appeal.

1	n/a	Sep 16, 2011 1:01 PM
2	I don't see how the post office can continue operating small post offices at a huge financial loss.	Sep 16, 2011 8:17 AM
3	We really won't know until the meeting on Sept. 20.	Sep 15, 2011 4:43 PM
4	I was not aware that the Karbers Ridge, IL post office was slated to close on September 8 until it was posted on the Elizabethtown, IL post office door. There may have been a notice posted to that effect, but I was not aware of it.	Sep 15, 2011 12:47 PM
5	Not applicable at this time.	Sep 15, 2011 12:21 PM
6	Residents were told about an appeal, but little information was provided to encourage the process.	Sep 15, 2011 8:25 AM
7	Can't answer this question. Never been to one.	Sep 15, 2011 5:37 AM
8	There was talk of an appeal, but don't think it was acted upon.	Sep 14, 2011 1:52 PM
9	Have not witnessed closure yet	Sep 14, 2011 11:48 AM
10	Don't know if the people in Sweetwater have been told of any options.	Sep 14, 2011 9:19 AM
11	We need the USPS. It must revamp. It's a matter of practicality and money that some small offices must close.	Sep 14, 2011 7:38 AM
12	No meetings have been held yet. There is one upcoming - we just found out about the closing	Sep 14, 2011 5:52 AM
13	In Delta Iowa as well as the Keswick meeting, USPS told those there of the process but were told it is highly unlikely to matter. As the process was explained, when they got to the part about sending it to DC, they said someone there would look at all the information but that it is most likely to be closed.	Sep 14, 2011 5:52 AM
14	NA	Sep 13, 2011 7:14 PM
15	We did hear something about an appeal but not much information was given.	Sep 13, 2011 2:16 PM
16	People are resigned to the fact that their post office will be closing.	Sep 13, 2011 1:54 PM
17	Not sure of any of the above.	Sep 13, 2011 1:36 PM
18	We are in the middle of things right now so don't know how it will shake out.	Sep 13, 2011 12:39 PM
19	Not sure.	Sep 13, 2011 9:28 AM
20	See above	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
21	n/a	Sep 13, 2011 8:38 AM
22	NA	Sep 13, 2011 8:33 AM

Q6. The law permits communities to appeal a closing to the Postal Regulatory Commission. If you have witnessed a closing in your area, please provide some feedback on that value of a potential appeal.

23	The mayor was told that the case was closed	Sep 13, 2011 8:19 AM
24	I'm unaware anyone was told	Sep 13, 2011 6:29 AM
25	See #5	Sep 12, 2011 3:19 PM
26	Six possible answers. Six negative responses. Hmmm.	Sep 12, 2011 3:17 PM
27	I am under the impression that residents of the Jadwin area are raising awareness and sharing concerns with politicians and USPS employees.	Sep 12, 2011 3:03 PM
28	We aren't aware of any appeal at this point.	Sep 12, 2011 3:02 PM
29	The one office in my region on the closing list just incorporated. This closing would get their town off to a negative start.	Sep 12, 2011 2:42 PM
30	I understand the residents are upset, but I don't know what, if anything, they have planned to do. I have been told the PO has been "closed" but is open to sell stamps, other products from the PO, but do not accept mail. It is Bigelow, Ark.	Sep 12, 2011 2:23 PM
31	There was another (larger) PO within a half mile that had more options and offered better service.	Sep 12, 2011 1:44 PM
32	USPS rep said the final decision would be made in October.	Sep 12, 2011 1:32 PM
33	They tried to close the post office in McCausland, Iowa (pop. 250) in 2006, but the citizens protested and raised $56,000 for a building and with the help of Postal unions, the office was kept open. Now it is back on the list for closure.	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM
34	We have not witnessed any closings of yet ...	Sep 12, 2011 1:28 PM
35	We were able to help Seneca a few years ago keep their post office open, for which the community I believe was extremely grateful.	Sep 12, 2011 12:54 PM
36	Local businesses and residents made their appeal to not close that particular post office. The postal workers presenting the meeting encouraged all those in attendance to submit their concerns.	Sep 12, 2011 12:29 PM
37	One of the post offices was probably small enough to be closed. The other one I would have fought.	Sep 12, 2011 12:06 PM
38	Our people were told there was nothing that could be done except wait for 18 -20 months and see what the decision was before taking any next steps.	Sep 12, 2011 11:32 AM
39	The communities are aware that an appeal is possible. We don't believe they are at that point yet. We have several communities in our area facing this issue!!	Sep 12, 2011 11:23 AM

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

1	I am more concerned about sectional centers being closed and folded into each other. I am already seeing delays in delivery to local papers.	Oct 3, 2011 12:59 PM
2	Mounds, Oklahoma 74047 -- point of entry for Oklahoma News Weekly paper Slick, Oklahoma 74071 -- several customers in that zip Depew Oklahoma 74028 -- main school district of coverage as well as distrubution through the mail site... would seriously delay delivery of Bristow News Milfay Oklahoma 74046 -- no real impact	Sep 26, 2011 12:12 PM
3	36373 36353	Sep 19, 2011 7:06 PM
4	The possible closing of the Toledo OH Processing Center (I don't know the zip code) would have a huge impact on the delivery of our newspaper. It was bad enough when the Lima Processing Center was closed, and the mail went to Toledo and never came back. What's going to happen if Toledo closes and it goes to Columbus or Detroit? Our advertisers require timely delivery. We print on Wednesdays, and advertisers have weekend sales in our paper. If the papers take any more time to come back from the processing centers, they will choose other forms of delivery to their customers. How is closing more processing centers going to make sure mail is delivered on time? It will just cause more people to not use the mail.	Sep 18, 2011 11:04 AM
5	The Diagonal Post Office is on that list and we have had the informational meeting. The Diagonal zip code is 50845. The community has been writing letters, sending them to the Postal Regulatory Commission.	Sep 17, 2011 9:37 PM
6	I just hope that post offices where newspapers are located won't be closed because that will greatly inconvenience the local newspaper, in addition to the residents. We are a small community and a town that is larger (Earlville) has already had their post office closed, so our residents are concerned that we may be on a future closing list. Dundee is on the future closing list in Delaware County. My zip code is 52237 Mary Helle, newspaper publisher	Sep 16, 2011 2:51 PM
7	Concerned about Millport USPS. They quit taking 2nd class mail and we have to drive 20 miles to another USPS.	Sep 16, 2011 1:01 PM
8	I understand that 250 larger market facilities are now targeted for closure. On the list for consideration is a sort facility in Tyler. Our mail will be sorted either 120 miles away in Dallas, or 100 miles away in Shreveport, La. I am very concerned about what this will mean to our newspaper deliveries. Service is already poor, and I fear that it is about to get worse. For out-of-county deliveries, many of our subscribers say that they do not receive their papers for 5-7 days. How long will it take without Saturday delivery?	Sep 16, 2011 11:16 AM
9	There was talk at one time of shifting the BMEU functions to Shreveport. Have not heard that recently, but that kind of consolidation would be very harmful. Even if we could still drop locally but then the papers were processed in Shreveport, this would increase the amount of time before customers would receive their paper. We are in the 71301 ZIP code.	Sep 16, 2011 10:57 AM
10	I am concerned that my point of entry post office at 74002 wiull be closed in the	Sep 16, 2011 8:17 AM future, it is not on any closing list at the moment but it is a small rural post office with larger ones available 16 miles away.

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

11	Nothing yet.	Sep 15, 2011 4:43 PM
12	N/A	Sep 15, 2011 3:03 PM
13	We primarily us two post offices in our area. 63080 and 65441. The 65441 post office postmaster just recently retire and we are concerned that office may shut down.	Sep 15, 2011 1:09 PM
14	Concerns over closing the following post offices: 24216, Appalachia, exception dispatch 24228, St. Paul, exception dispatch 24279, Pound, exception dispatch 24226, Clinchco, exception dispatch 24228, Clintwood, original entry 24256, Haysi, exception dispatch 24273, Norton, original entry These are smaller post offices serving smaller communities with declining populations. Citizens living in and near these places are a far distance from any other post office that could serve them. And from our business perspective, we will encounter increased costs with poorer service.	Sep 15, 2011 12:56 PM
15	I am concerned that any and all post offices in Hardin County, Illinois may be targeted for closure, because Hardin County is the second smallest county in the State of Illinois. The post offices that concern me are Elizabethtown, IL 62931 (where my newspapers are mailed now); Cave In Rock, IL 62919; and Rosiclare, IL 62982. Karbers Ridge, IL was closed September 8. There is no other post office in the county to serve my newspaper. If all of those post offices closed, I would have to use a post office in a neighboring county of Saline, Pope or Gallatin.	Sep 15, 2011 12:47 PM
16	unaware of any future closings and/or retirements of postmasters.	Sep 15, 2011 11:52 AM
17	We have numerous subscribers in 29638, 29692 and 29654. When there are delivery problems, we depend on personnel in those post offices to "fix" them in a timely manner.	Sep 15, 2011 10:27 AM
18	Our service is bad now. It won't get any better by having fewer offices.	Sep 15, 2011 9:33 AM
19	Elgin - 58533 New Leipzig - 58562 Carson - 58529 New Salem - 58560 Flasher - 58535 Without these post offices, it will be impossible for me to provide timely news to my readers. I have already lost nearly 1/3 of my subscribers because of such incredibly poor delivery service to my out of county and out of state readers. I may as well close my doors if the service from the USPS continues at this pace! They need to SHAPE UP and do their job!!!!!!	Sep 15, 2011 8:58 AM considerable concern that had the office been closed, it would have never re-opened, even though the closing was called "temporary."
20	The scheduled closures, thus far, have impacted two small Post Offices in our county but not our own facility. However, upon the retirement of our Postmaster, our office (Beaver City, 68926) was suddenly scheduled for an "emergency suspension," supposedly because the postal officials could not find a replacement to work in the office. After many phone calls and letters to government and postal officials, a woman with local ties offered to come work in our office, and was hired. The emergency suspension was cancelled. There was	Sep 15, 2011 8:25 AM

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

21	The post office in Sullivan, IN 47882 is absolutely integral to our newspaper delivery. Losing this office would increase our costs, as well as decrease our ability to provide exemplary delivery service to our area. They are instrumental in helping us avert any delivery errors.	Sep 15, 2011 8:01 AM
22	Traverse City, MI, 49684, is our main sort facility. If sortation becomes more regional (Gaylord, MI) those subscribers in county may not get their paper on publication date.	Sep 15, 2011 7:56 AM
23	29205	Sep 15, 2011 6:58 AM
24	37388-This is our main post office for delivery of The Tullahoma News. We have had smaller ones close in our area and the service is horrible now. We have so many complaints from out of our area customers about not getting their paper. Or not getting it in a timely fashion like they used to. We have actually lost customers because of this. We do use the post office for several of our division papers and the service we receive can be hit or miss. We even exceptional dispatch our papers in all divisions. My post office is one of the biggest around here and if it were to close, we would have to rethink our way of delivering the newspaper.	Sep 15, 2011 5:37 AM
25	We are a FREE Newspaper that is MAILED each week to 10,000 households in 21 communities. SIX of our drop ship post offices are on the Expanded Access study list. – 61313, 60917, 60920, 60934, 60437, and 60479. Our largest community that we saturate is Dwight with approx. 2200 copies all others are smaller. For each delivery it will cost more postage to mail and already our 60444 rural has to be delivered to a post office we have not used in the past. The 60444 delivery will cost approx. $20 per week more for postage/delivery.	Sep 14, 2011 4:05 PM
26	Outside of our main post office we are surrounded by very small PO's that are in our network and while we have not heard of any closing, I am very worried they could be added to the list. They are: Enville-38313 Jacks Creek-383 Beech Bluff-38313 Finger-38334 Pinson-38366 Luray-38352 Bethel Springs-38315	Sep 14, 2011 2:34 PM
27	The two larger post offices are not slated for closure (to our knowledge) our concern is the loss of our mail subscribers in the rural smaller communities.	Sep 14, 2011 11:48 AM
28	Living in Plankinton, South Dakota, our city post office is where our entry permit is and where we mail the bulk of our weekly newspapers. We also drop off at Mitchell (where we print), 11 miles east in Mt. Vernon and 9 miles south in Stickney. Obviously losing the ability to take a DDU discount would hurt financially, but most importantly the timely delivery of those papers to our subscribers will hurt more. We are concerned because of all of those towns listed are within 25 miles of the large post office in Mitchell. Thanks!	Sep 14, 2011 11:40 AM
29	We have a unique situation with some of our exceptional dispatch. Don't know if this is the norm, but the postal truck driver picks up three smaller towns newspapers Oconee (62553), Tower Hill (62571) and Shelbyville (62565) at the	Sep 14, 2011 10:45 AM

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

Pana (62557) Post Office and then drops them off the morning of delivery as he makes his rounds to those post offices. Thus, those newspapers are not processed at any other post office. My fear is the really smaller office (Oconee, Tower Hill) may be included in the closure in the future (At the present time, I don't think they are on the list). Same goes for the post offices which are in Morrisonville (62546) and Assumption (62510) and to an extent, Nokomis (62075). Then, what do we do? Morrisonville, Nokomis and Assumption are where those newspapers are considered published. While we are a town of 5,700, which seems to be bigger than the ones on the closing list, my fear is the Postal Service would close the Pana P. O. and then we'd have to mail out of Taylorville (62568) - it's the county seat and has a population of over 10,000. The smaller post offices are where Postal Service officials ought to come and study the way they run. Our local post offices are the most cooperative and accommodating around. Our problems occur once our newspapers leave the local docks, and get into the bigger post offices in the system.

- |    |  |                       |
|----|--|-----------------------|
| 30 | Recently, there have been some renovations done to our local post office. However, they did remove the machines necessary to post mark mail at the local office and now all mail is taken to Chattanooga and post marked, even that which is mailed within our city limits. If I mail an envelope to my neighbor...it goes to Chattanooga...and back to Pikeville, extending the time it took for my neighbor to receive the envelope.   | Sep 14, 2011 10:10 AM |
| 31 | Our situation is a bit different. The USPS Hickory (N.C.) Processing and Distribution facility that serves the 286 area codes in North Carolina is closing, as announced last week. As a result we will be unable to drop our publications here for in-county, next-day delivery, which severely cripples our ability to remain competitive. As a result of this decision, we are forced to explore delivery alternatives that both takes money away from the USPS, but is also most expensive for us to consider. This closure will impact 11 counties and 82 communities in western North Carolina, as well as 200 jobs in the facility, as it is incorporated into a similar operation 80 miles east. | Sep 14, 2011 9:45 AM  |
| 32 | Custer City, Ok 73639 could be a part of the second round of closings. This is a critical service for distribution of our newspaper as this is a consolidated town in the Thomas School district.  | Sep 14, 2011 9:25 AM  |
| 33 | The Pollock, MO 63560 will probably have increased usage because of a new lake being built near the town, and it will probably show some growth because of this.   | Sep 14, 2011 8:37 AM  |
| 34 | Yes, I am concerned. In Carroll County, IL, we have experienced combined drop off points for our DDU. We must drop Mount Carroll (61053) Rural and City Routes at Savanna (61074), but we still drop off PO Boxes at Mount Carroll. Also, the same for Thomson (61285), where we drop PO Boxes in Thomson, but must cross the Mississippi River into Clinton, IA to drop off Thomson Rural Routes. These types of steps make no sense, since all the post offices still remain open, and are not on a closure list. Driving to Iowa adds time and mileage to my costs, negating part of the savings offered by the USPS for DDU. It is decision-making like this that have been the ruin of the PO.      | Sep 14, 2011 8:35 AM  |

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

35	We have several small post offices in our area and are concerned that if they close, delivery will be delayed. 56219, 57260, 57232, 57270, 57255, 57279, 57224.	Sep 14, 2011 8:35 AM
36	82637 (Glenrock, WY) which is a primary entry unit for one of our papers.	Sep 14, 2011 8:31 AM
37	Keota. No other in-county post office that delivers from that region, thus longer delivery period through des moines or no in-county rate from neighboring community.	Sep 14, 2011 7:38 AM
38	Our main post office in Towanda is safe and not on any list.	Sep 14, 2011 7:09 AM
39	At the present time our building is nearly new and postmaster seems content to be here but she has roots in a community 100 miles from here. She could move at any time if the right opportunity came up. In that case, it would be hard to find someone to fill her position. With housing situation as it is here due to the oil boom, finding a place to live, especially rent, is almost impossible.	Sep 14, 2011 7:04 AM
40	Dundalk Post Office (zip 21222) is not on the current closure list, but I am concerned because in the past, there were problems with parking for postal employees and that may still put it into consideration for closure. It covers the largest population area in the Baltimore County metro district.	Sep 14, 2011 6:50 AM
41	The closing of the Fort Dodge SCF center. Fort Dodge, IA 50501.	Sep 14, 2011 6:46 AM
42	Zip Code 50514 The routes for this community were moved to be sorted in a smaller community with a smaller post office building, the community the routes were moved to does not have the industry that the 50514 community has. There are many businesses and industries that rely on the post office in our community. To move the postal routes to a community with less business and industry and I would assume much less retail for the post office and definitely a smaller more crowded building does not seem like a good business move. The building in the 50514 community is a good size, sound building and the postmasters available are young to middle age adults so there are not worries about them retiring.	Sep 14, 2011 6:34 AM
43	50595 50548	Sep 14, 2011 6:12 AM
44	The only PO in our area is Troy Mills -52344, which is a very small office in a unincorporated community.	Sep 14, 2011 6:08 AM
45	No concerns at this time.	Sep 14, 2011 6:08 AM
46	62801 - this post office does a great deal for our newspaper. If this were to close, customers who live 15 miles away will get their paper in 4 days rather than same day delivery. Old news is not good in a small/farming community where you rely on the local newspaper	Sep 14, 2011 5:52 AM
47	50268 What Cheer, Iowa My post master as well as all the local citizens believe we will be on the next list. Several offices have closed have been rerouted to offices farther away then ours. We have an old building and have looked into trying to get a new one build for many, many years. This post office is where our	Sep 14, 2011 5:52 AM mail is delivered from.

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

48	Blencoe, Iowa The Post Office was closed due to the Missouri River Flooding and rumors have it that it will not reopen.	Sep 13, 2011 7:14 PM
49	42450 42409 42455 42404	Sep 13, 2011 6:25 PM
50	Not aware of any at this time	Sep 13, 2011 3:09 PM
51	Might close? 35470 Livingston,AL 36925 York,AL 36907 Cuba,AL 35459 Emelle,AL 35460 Epes,AL On the list to close. 36922 Ward,AL 36901 Bellamy,AL 35464 Gainesville,AL 35477 Panola,AL Any closing will destroy the community, only public building in area.	Sep 13, 2011 2:56 PM
52	50228 was my drop zip code for all papers; Now I have to take my Prairie City 50228 rural route papers to 50054 a town 7 miles away. I have to drop my Monroe subscribers 50170 at the Monroe post office 7 miles away in a different direction.	Sep 13, 2011 2:46 PM
53	51001 - postmaster plans to retire in three years. The office also has reduced services because now all our mail goes to a town 15 miles north to be sorted and then comes back to us. Timely delivery is a problem and we've had complaints about delivery of our newspaper. This could hurt our circulation.	Sep 13, 2011 2:42 PM
54	My paper in Illinois 61252 will now be entered in Iowa 52732. My concern is that my postage will all be out of state even through all my subscription will be in Illinois. The city will not have to publish its notices in my paper since there will not be one.	Sep 13, 2011 2:38 PM
55	I have heard rumors that the sorting center in La Crosse, Wis. (just across the Mississippi River) from here is losing jobs and its sorting going away. Some say to Rochester, MN, which would be an advantage to us, while others say to Madison, Wis., which would delay delivery for sure.	Sep 13, 2011 2:37 PM
56	Our postmaster passed away a couple of years ago. The acting postmaster since that time is supposed to be a postmaster for another post office and is very non-customer oriented. She badmouths the town's people and will make snide remarks such as "You must be desperate" when inquiring about a lost check in the mail. Without a true postmaster and with someone that truly does not like the town that she is serving, losing our local Post Office is a real concern.	Sep 13, 2011 2:25 PM
57	If a post office closes, they should at least keep their delivery spot in the same county.	Sep 13, 2011 2:22 PM
58	We are not sure if our post office may be on the "hit list" but it is a grave concern to the existence of our business.	Sep 13, 2011 2:16 PM
59	My 2 major providers in Marion County are in 50138 and 50219. Staff reductions and turnover have led to slower service in the 50219 zip. Further reductions will seriously jeopardize our ability to provide our customers with a timely product.	Sep 13, 2011 2:12 PM
60	Sadiveille, KY 40370 Interim postmaster on duty. Small community with	Sep 13, 2011 1:58 PM

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

primarily clientele. If closed our mail would go to Cincinnati and delay delivery by a day.

61	74080 Talala OK was one of our exceptional dispatch post offices. However its mail is now being delivered through our home post office 74053 Oologah. So it is actually easier for us. We suspect Talala will be on the next hit list and the people in that community will not be happy. The Talala postmaster has been moved to Oologah as an interim postmaster since our postmaster just retired.	Sep 13, 2011 1:49 PM
62	We are mailing mostly at county seats, including our plan site (Goodland, KS 67735) and SCF (Colby, KS 67701) Other papers are in Norton (67654), Oberlin (67749), St. Francis (67756) and Bird City (67731). The PS is accepting any mail that might miss a connection at Goodland or Colby, including in-county mail for Jennings and Norcatur, KS, which has to be delivered through the Hays SCF, about a 200-mile round trip. So far, we are getting the in-county rate for these. Bird City is the smallest office, and it could be closed. We could deposit Bird City mail in St. Francis, but we'd lose a day on delivery if the office closed. (Papers there are cased in the p.m., creating a second "mail rush" that day!	Sep 13, 2011 1:18 PM
63	The Area Mail Distribution Center in Sioux City, Iowa will close at the end of Sept., 2011. This will impact delivery of our shopper and newspaper, as well as cost us more money. I am concerned that the post offices that we use for exceptional dispatch and entry: 51031, 51038, 51051, 51012, 51004, 51028, 51040, 51016, 51018 will be closed. These would greatly affect our operation.	Sep 13, 2011 12:51 PM
64	Lytton, IA 50561 Early, IA 50535	Sep 13, 2011 12:43 PM
65	52040 - we use the Dyersville post office daily and hope that we can continue to have it open and with good staffing.	Sep 13, 2011 12:41 PM
66	We have a post office in a community about 12,000 that is closing. However, it is just a few miles from Des Moines, so it won't be as convenient as walking down the street, but it's not a catastrophe.	Sep 13, 2011 12:39 PM
67	I wonder whether returning small communities back to contract delivery might work. Towns with 3,000 homes or less could receive their mail once a week through a contractor for substantially less. Newspaper publishers within the towns could certainly provide the service much like Benjamin Franklin.	Sep 13, 2011 12:37 PM
68	Charles City, 50616, has both a deteriorating building and a post master nearing retirement.	Sep 13, 2011 12:30 PM
69	Jamaica, IA 50128. This office is on the closure list. I exceptional dispatch newspapers there every Thursday morning. If it is closed, the office will probably be served out of Perry. I will be unable to deliver my papers there on Thursday due to the distance from my office. This will force me to mail the papers, thus delaying their delivery by at least one day. I know my customers in Jamaica will be very unhappy and I expect I will lose subscribers because of it.	Sep 13, 2011 12:26 PM
70	Our PO of entry for mailing the paper is Crestline 44827. Our business mail also comes to a PO box at this post office. About half of our circulation goes out by	Sep 13, 2011 11:52 AM mail, so closing the post office would have a big impact on our subscribers and our business function. We would have to drive to an adjacent town for everything. Another concern is the possible closing of the mail processing center at Mansfield 44901, which they are threatening. This would further delay delivery to our subscribers, which is already very, VERY slow.

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

- |    |   |                       |
|----|---|-----------------------|
| 71 | I'm very worried about future losses which could make it difficult for us to deliver papers on a timely cost/effective basis. In many cases, this requires a local post office.   | Sep 13, 2011 11:18 AM |
| 72 | We have several small post offices in the 446 zip code area that I am afraid will be in the USPS next target round. Several of these are exceptional dispatch drops for our paper, and are in our key primary delivery area. But we also know that several similarly-sized post offices in rural areas throughout the country could be closing, and those residents (including our readers) will suffer a hardship and think twice about subscribing.   | Sep 13, 2011 10:24 AM |
| 73 | 61540 61369 61565 61375   | Sep 13, 2011 10:14 AM |
| 74 | I view the Cambridge, IL 61238 post office which has already moved its carriers to Geneseo 61254 as a mid-sized postal facility. It was an original entry for our Cambridge Chronicle but we have always used Geneseo as the entry office. We have noticed a great deal of delay in mail in both communities overall. The past two weeks we have heard from customers they get part of their mail at one time in the day and the rest another. They've called complaining of not getting their newspaper only to phone back two to three hours later that they now have it. We are surrounded by smaller communities. Our local postal employees fight diligently to get us good service from the plants to them and we will be losing that leverage. I deal mainly with the Hawkeye (Des Moines) District and have gotten responses from them ok in the past. However, in working with other districts I have not been so lucky. Usually I have to get the information from the local post master if I hear anything at all. | Sep 13, 2011 9:45 AM  |
| 75 | At this point we are not that concerned. Effingham may become a concern.  | Sep 13, 2011 9:26 AM  |
| 76 | Like a community newspaper, the post office adds to the identity of a small community. A loss of good, personal service is at the top of our fears if our post office is closed. Our post office is 49034   | Sep 13, 2011 9:21 AM  |
| 77 | We did have a retired postmaster late last year and have had temporaries fill in. We have not heard anything about our local post office (54487), but a smaller P.O. (Brantwood, 54513) in our service area is on the list. To be honest, we have wondered over the years why some very small communities have a Post Office, particularly out West. And, in many of those communities the post office is the newest and nicest building within miles. Struct us as curious.  | Sep 13, 2011 9:14 AM  |
| 78 | So far, our post office seems secure. However, much of their work is being shipped to a larger post office about 30 miles away for sorting, and then it is brought back. That could be a first step to phasing our post office out – or minimizing its role.  | Sep 13, 2011 9:04 AM  |

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

79	68652 68627	Sep 13, 2011 9:02 AM
80	Throughout the State of Ohio our operations rely heavily on same-day delivery. Many of our daily newspapers "contract" for rural motor route USPS delivery, while maintaining foot carriers in hometown cities. But we also have daily operations that fully rely on USPS delivery on motor routes and in-town. Years back, when we decided to make the switch from motor route to USPS, we met regularly to determine the best move for our newspapers and our publishing company(ies). It seemed rather foolish for two delivery contractors (Independent Contractor Motor Route Deliverers; and USPS Carriers) to make daily stops at the same house. In an era where GREEN and the conservation of fuel is KING, it seemed that not only was the contracting with USPS a good fiscal decision, it was/is also a good decision for the conservation-driven government. If Ohio Community Media were to lose key point of entry locations and/or key locations where Second Class Mail Permits are held, we would be forced to throw conservation out the window; we would have no other choice than to initiate a delivery department. The cost of such event could be fatal to our operations as well as the entire newspaper industry. As one of four Group Publishers for Ohio Community Media, I oversee daily operations in five smaller Ohio communities: Sidney (45365); Piqua (45356); Troy (45373); Xenia (45385); and Fairborn (45324). In addition to ALL point-of-entry USPS offices surrounding each of these "daily" communities, I oversee weekly operations in Tipp City (45371); West Milton (45383); Vandalia (45377); Huber Heights (45424); Englewood (45322); Kettering-Oakwood (45409,45419, 20, 45429, 30, 45432, 45439, 40, 45459); Centerville-Washington Twp. (45458, 45459); Beavercreek (45430, 45432, 45434); Sugarcreek (44681); and Springboro (45066). There is little doubt in our minds that a number of these zip codes will be affected.	Sep 13, 2011 8:57 AM
81	So far NO post offices that we mail at DDU level out of, have been announced for a survey for possible closing. However, closing the flowing zips would be a major problem for us on delivery of our products. Those zips are 62049, 62056, 62075, 62560, 62088, 62033, 62069, 62626, 62014, 62012, and 62097. We also have a lot of Saturday deliveries to some of the above DDU's	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
82	The closing of West Liberty, Ohio, 43357, office, one of our core delivery areas, is a concern. It is midway between two county seats located only 16 miles apart. Its closing could lead to increased costs and a competitive disadvantage depending in which PO would service the area.	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
83	Our local post office in Miles City Montana has for the past year been located in a temporary facility, because of a problem with ground contamination, and fumes from a leaky fuel tank. It would be just as easy to close as move back into the old building.	Sep 13, 2011 8:44 AM
84	35640	Sep 13, 2011 8:38 AM
85	I'm not aware of any in our service area.	Sep 13, 2011 8:35 AM
86	I do have a concern for Portageville, Missouri 63873. As of now we have an interim Post Master and there is a semi tractor trailer truck that has been setting there for almost two months, like it is ready to load up, but nothing as of yet is in	Sep 13, 2011 8:33 AM there. The Post master that was there first took time off after her husband died, then she decided to resign, then she ask to be back but is taking her grieving time still. The people there really do not know how to use their computer Postal One program and it seems like we are the only newspaper and post office that seems to have issues. All of our other sister papers are done exactly the same without issue. The interim post master did not even have a computer at her previous office.

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

87	NA	Sep 13, 2011 8:33 AM
88	We publish 7 newspapers across 3 counties in 2 states. Due to past delivery problems, we currently drop ship to each post office in our newspaper market area. The closure of any local post office will certainly cause additional delivery delay. Delivery delays have and will continue to cause problems with subscribers. If a subscriber does not receive the newspaper in a timely fashion they will not subscribe. As you know, a newspaper without subscribers will not continue to publish.	Sep 13, 2011 8:31 AM
89	Our main postal entry is Beardstown, IL. The postmaster has not discussed any pending concerns. I would hope he would, if we have any pending concerns.	Sep 13, 2011 8:28 AM
90	Services and all delivery people are being removed from the post office in the county seat. Williamstown, Ky. 41097	Sep 13, 2011 8:19 AM
91	We currently use many small USPS offices in our very rural area of Michigan; we truck deliver to the small USPS offices. If there are closures, there will be an additional step and additional mileage in reaching other offices.	Sep 13, 2011 8:13 AM
92	Yes, we have exceptional dispatch for three small post office's and would be a big problem for us to get the paper to our customers on a daily basic. Farmington, Ky., Hazel Ky. and Puryear,TN.	Sep 13, 2011 8:03 AM
93	67457 Post Office is small, it will take over some operations soon from a neighboring post office that is closing. The newspaper is currently the biggest customer at the local post office. My newspaper is printed in a town 20 miles east in another county, if in the future the local office closes, my options would be to mail out of county where I print, or drive back to our county and go another 11 miles west to retain in county rates.	Sep 13, 2011 7:58 AM
94	48602 or 48603. These zip code areas are where a majority of the business and residential traffic hinge, so obviously their closure would create massive problems for us.	Sep 13, 2011 7:36 AM
95	68701	Sep 13, 2011 7:34 AM
96	Beaver 45613 Lucasville 45648 Piketon 45661	Sep 13, 2011 7:29 AM
97	65270	Sep 13, 2011 7:28 AM
98	We are a biweekly newspaper that is only delivered through the mail, so we are very concerned about losing our post office. Right now we are very concerned about losing Saturday delivery because we are a Wednesday, Saturday	Sep 13, 2011 7:20 AM publication. This newspaper, The Lamar Democrat, has been continuously published for 141 years; we know our readers depend on us and our delivery of a timely publication. There has not been a missed publication date in all those years. People in smaller communities depend on local newspaper to get local news, something they can not get anywhere else.

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deteriorio...

99	42064 42081 42078 42028 42411	Sep 13, 2011 7:20 AM
100	21233 - main post office in Baltimore	Sep 13, 2011 6:58 AM
101	I am concerned about any closings as for the past several years we have already experienced the loss of subscribers due to the postal services lack of getting the weekly newspaper to our subscribers in a timely manner. They continue to make changes of distribution and our newspapers are sent to bigger distribution centers then sent from there to our subscribers. This takes additional time and sometimes our subscribers are not getting their papers for 5 days and even have them complain that they haven't received their paper and then they receive several at one time. We run auction ads in our newspaper and subscribers receive their paper after the weekend auctions are held and have told us they are discontinuing their subscription for that reason.	Sep 13, 2011 6:43 AM
102	Rural newspaper entry has been 'moved/taken away' from two post offices in Stoddard County. My concern is that this me be phase one of closing these two post offices. Bloomfield - 63825 Advance - 63730	Sep 13, 2011 6:39 AM
103	17233 McConnellsburg	Sep 13, 2011 6:39 AM
104	Two small POs slated for closing in our county, which should have little effect on our delivery; however, if this is the tip of the ice berg and additional, larger POs are next, then obviously we are greatly concerned. Delivery as it is by the USPS leaves MUCH to be desired, and closing ANY POs will make it even worse.	Sep 13, 2011 6:31 AM
105	One of our greatest concerns is our Distribution Center in Easton MD and the closing of small Post Offices throughout the Mid-Atlantic Region. The Delivery of the USPS is currently less than satisfactory when it comes to getting our newspapers to our customers. We're a weekly agricultural newspaper with time sensitive material that our farmers need to know about in a timely manner. The USPS system in the name of efficiency has already shown us that their system is not working now and by cutting out post offices throughout the country and region will cost us customers. We depend on the USPS to get our newspaper where it has to go on time and that is not happening now!	Sep 13, 2011 6:27 AM
106	Our entry level post office is at Pawleys Island, S.C. 29585. We have been dealing for years with poor service, lack of commitment from postal employees and condescending attitudes. Most recently, one postal employee told one of our customers that her newspaper laid on the floor of the post office, until he finally picked it up. After filing a complaint, we never heard back from the post office. Quite frankly, it is going to destroy our business if our post office closes. We do not have the capability to handle home delivery. We have a lot of out of the area subscribers, if these post office close, a good many of our subscribers will face even later delivery.	Sep 13, 2011 6:07 AM

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

107	Lancaster Farming...56500 paid sub , from Main to North Carolina, Saturday publication date, readers are now getting it 3 to 5 days later than normal (over the past 55 years).	Sep 13, 2011 4:06 AM
108	I am not concerned about our main post office being affected by this round of closures. What concerns me most is the loss of Saturday delivery as we are a Tues-Sat MAILED publication as well as rumors of a complete failure of the postal system. As far as the smaller offices being affected, I have actually driven our routes and it amazes me how small some of the rural post offices are and how many of them there are within just a few miles of one another.	Sep 13, 2011 2:44 AM
109	77035 East Bernard is an entry point for one of our newspaper publications and an exceptional dispatch for another of our newspaper publications - loss of this outlet would probably mean forwarding to a hub like Houston and the delay in our customers receiving our papers would probably lead to the loss of our publication 77488 Wharton is an entry point for our main newspaper publication and its closing would probably mean the demise of our newspaper - the county seat paper and publishing since the 1800's	Sep 12, 2011 7:55 PM
110	49862 This post office is very inefficient in most areas, so if the closure list is based on performance I feel they could be on a future hit list. If they close our poor postal service will get even worse. We are their largest customer, and we only mail 6,000 pieces a week.	Sep 12, 2011 5:53 PM
111	Not a concern at this time. Would not the periodicals section of the DMM need to be re-written? Aren't newspaper offices to be located within the zip code of the entry post office? Isn't public notice advertising predicated by entry of periodical class mail? (At least it is here in Indiana.)	Sep 12, 2011 3:46 PM
112	I know that our post office is always busy, but that they may not be good enough. My zip code is 78570. The post office is needed in many ways for the citizens of this small community.	Sep 12, 2011 3:43 PM
113	Nope.	Sep 12, 2011 3:17 PM
114	67114 I am not too concerned about our local postal offices as I feel if smaller offices in the rural area do close, our local post office might see an increase in business.	Sep 12, 2011 3:10 PM
115	Would be very difficult for us if downtown Independence PO shut down	Sep 12, 2011 3:10 PM
116	I am very concerned about the logistics of how are newspapers are handled in the post office. It is getting incredibly complicated. I do thing some of the small post offices should be closed. Many of the offices only have a clerk and are not really Post Offices; they don't take any delivered mail. If possible, it would be very helpful for me to know which Post Office will be closed and when so I can work with Postal officials before the change to figure out what is the best way to mail our papers.	Sep 12, 2011 3:07 PM
117	We associate with the Conrad Post Office as a distribution point, 59425. Next nearest town is Shelby 59474 which is 25 miles away, which is also a small	Sep 12, 2011 3:06 PM

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

office. Then we would have to go to Great Falls, 59405 ... 60 miles away. Miles are one way. The small offices on the closure list we have papers go to are: Bynum 59419; Dupuyer 59432; Heart Butte 59448 and Pendroy 59467.

118	65560-Salem Missouri The postmaster was recently replaced by someone from the Licking post office (65542). All of our papers originate in Salem and are mailed through our Salem post office. Mail delivery is later every day and with Saturday being removed from delivery, I fear that subscribers will again, give up on the service.	Sep 12, 2011 3:03 PM
119	We are not concerned at this time. We have two post offices in Lawrence.	Sep 12, 2011 3:02 PM
120	I am concerned mostly by the fact that one day mail delivery may become 2 days or 3 days or who knows. The post offices in my county that are closing are very small as well as the communities they serve.	Sep 12, 2011 3:02 PM
121	We are a 100% mail delivery newspaper. We expect closures of Alden and Raymond Kansas post offices will adversely affect our circulation in those communities, particularly if delivery is delayed by one or more days. We can't see how USPS can make up an $8 billion shortfall by closing rural post offices, which make up less than one percent of the USPS annual budget. Fuzzy Federal math (again).	Sep 12, 2011 2:53 PM
122	We have a number of post offices in our county that may be closed. We are the only newspaper in the county. I have assumed all along that our post office (St. Paul, NE 68873) is safe because the community is fairly large by Nebraska standards (2300) and is the county seat. However, we had a postmaster retire a few years ago and a permanent replacement has never been named. Our Wolbach newspaper is in a very small down and the likelihood of that post office closing would be much more likely. Although it would be a hardship for the people who live there, we could still mail the newspaper from St. Paul where our central plant is located. We wouldn't like it, but we could live with it.	Sep 12, 2011 2:53 PM
123	Amite - 70422 post office is an old building, not one of the new buildings they have built in other communities, but I just can't see them closing it. But who knows?	Sep 12, 2011 2:51 PM
124	N/A	Sep 12, 2011 2:40 PM
125	35462	Sep 12, 2011 2:34 PM
126	These possible post office closings greatly concern us: Arnold, NE 69120 Stapleton, NE 69163 Thedford, NE 69166/	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
127	None in my area have been identified and there are no deteriorated offices.	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
128	The possible closing of a number of post offices in Northeast Montana is a concern. This is because our newspaper, The Glasgow Courier, is delivered by mail to post office box holders in small towns throughout the area. At this point, the announced closing list would have limited impact because some post offices on the list are on the fringe of our circulation area. Neither our entry post office in	Sep 12, 2011 2:28 PM

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deteriorio...

Glasgow (59230) or other smaller but significant ones in the immediately surrounding area have been listed.

129	I have not heard of either of our two main post offices being on a hit list.	Sep 12, 2011 2:23 PM
130	Absolutely! Zip code 85932 will have its Postmaster retiring soon leaving us with one post office in the county. Distribution center changes have already caused prolonged delays in delivery time to our subscribers out of county, affecting 50 percent of our circulation. We've had people discontinue their subscriptions due to delays in receipt. Frequently subscribers complain of receiving a month's worth in one mailing.	Sep 12, 2011 2:19 PM
131	Zip: 68825. Ours is a small community of around 600 plus rural folk. We are not yet on the hit list but should it happen it will mean a 20 mile trip (one way) to the next available post office. It might mean a tough decision of whether to continue publishing or to shut down.	Sep 12, 2011 2:17 PM
132	These are the last links in rural communities to services for the elderly and infirm. They provide medicines, mail, supplies and contact that are vital in keeping people independent. When there are so many other areas that could be addressed, closing services is akin to a clothing store that is in trouble deciding to not carry undergarments anymore. The essentials must be kept; stop the waste at the top and make all charges, expenses and facilities equal to what the rest of the economy has. Paying for rural service is an option if kept minimal. I know of some who would gladly pay "box rent" to guarantee their mail service would continue in small towns and rural areas. How about competitive packaging costs with FEDEX and UPS? Thanks!	Sep 12, 2011 2:16 PM
133	Post office zip 57434..our post master and one of the carriers is close to retirement and if the PO closed my next postoffice is over 25 miles away to mail out the papers	Sep 12, 2011 2:13 PM
134	I am concerned that there will be a reduction in sectional centers, and we will be forced to enter our publication there, causing a day's delay in our publication's delivery.	Sep 12, 2011 2:10 PM
135	67456	Sep 12, 2011 2:04 PM
136	Brusett - 59318 Cohagen - 59322 Sand Springs - 59077 All of these post offices serve patrons that are anywhere from one mile from the Post Office to 30 or more miles. A very large distance in anyone's time. Please do not take away these patrons one sure connection to the rest of the area, state, and nation. Close post offices that are within five miles of one another. There are many of them. Rural America should not be the ones to suffer losses of post offices. Many of the rural patrons only receive mail twice a week anyway. At best it is already barebone delivery. The Postal Service is one thing that is supposed to be governed under the constitution and provided for the public.	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM
137	Hickman (68372) has an old building that could be a concern and is close to Lincoln so closure may be attractive as it is a bedroom community.	Sep 12, 2011 2:00 PM

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deteriorio...

138	Any actions on Garnett 66032 would definitely be a concern, but the office seems to handle a lot of business. Economic forces did, however, force our company to close down our shopper publication a year ago, costing the local office some $30,000 in standard class postage a year. The same happened for our competitor, which was about $36,000 a year in revenue to the local PO. Funny- between our 3rd and 2nd class products, we HAD to have been our local PO's best customer. I don't recall ever getting a thank you, much less a Christmas card! But I digress....	Sep 12, 2011 1:57 PM
139	Monroeville Post Office, Monroeville, Alabama has trouble maintaining a Post Master. Each time they get a good one, they are transferred, usually to larger post offices. The last was transferred to Daphne, AL.	Sep 12, 2011 1:51 PM
140	28463 - Recent changes to the very limited parking there have cut in half the number of spaces available to the non-handicapped general public. Perhaps the fact that these changes have been made is a good sign. However, this is a leased facility, not USPS owned, which also gives me some cause to worry. 28432 - This is a tiny post office and the only ongoing Post Office in its community. Losing that office might be justified as long as it is absorbed by the 28463 office, which geographically could easily handle the territory.	Sep 12, 2011 1:46 PM
141	Closure of smaller offices does not concern me as much as the deteriorating QUALITY of the service performed by the USPS. We get constant complaints of newspaper delivery to adjoining counties taking up to THREE WEEKS in some cases.	Sep 12, 2011 1:43 PM
142	The worst facility among our eight core communities is actually in our largest town (65613) so surely it is safe even though it has missed about every opportunity to upgrade the facility. Every time it has made a list, the list has been torn up because of a new wave of concerns within USPS. I'm not sure why, but I have confidence that our other core market offices also will survive. Some of the exceptional drop offices could be in trouble, which will cause us some heartburn.	Sep 12, 2011 1:37 PM
143	At present we do not have that concern here.	Sep 12, 2011 1:33 PM
144	There is a general sense among the public that the tiniest post offices at crossroads of 150 or fewer people could be closed. But what is lacking is a set of objective criteria by which offices will be closed so the public can make judgments. None of these thus far would directly affect our newspapers.	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM
145	86040 - No other post office within 2 hour drive.	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM
146	None	Sep 12, 2011 1:28 PM
147	It would be OK to close 02187, an office that has no carrier delivery, only boxes.	Sep 12, 2011 1:19 PM
148	We are concerned that the neighboring post office might be closed, forcing us to go further to Alliance, Nebraska, approximately 45 miles away. This is in the opposite direction of our printer, which is 45- minutes drive in the opposite direction. We hand label our paper, which takes time and the additional drive time would be extremely detrimental to our business.	Sep 12, 2011 1:16 PM

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deteriorio...

149	We are concerned about the potential deterioration of service for subscribers delivered through the USPS.	Sep 12, 2011 1:07 PM
150	Post office 64648. Services have been cut to our community. It's my understanding they do a volume of over $100,000. in the the post office here. They recently sent our 3 carriers to 64683 to distribute mail, then return to 64648 for delivery. Post office box mail cannot be picked up until around 11 a.m. which isn't good for businesses. The town is surrounded by approximately 1500 Amish population which use the postal service more than most since they don't have computers, etc. It makes more sense to keep the carriers working out of the post office here for faster more economic service. Other businesses besides the newspaper is affected by this drastic change. There are around 85 businesses in the local area which are all affected. They didn't do their home work when they cut the local services.	Sep 12, 2011 1:03 PM
151	68633 - The new regulations from the USPS is creating a real headache for the postmaster. We get out papers back from the printer at 1:30 PM on Wednesdays. Before the postmaster can release the papers for delivery, he has to enter our numbers from the postal sheet on a computer to ??Omaha?? and get them verified, before he can print out a cover sheet, to put on the four bags & four bins, so they can head to Norfolk. The weight changes each week, so I get a new weight, before I can complete the postal form. We need to get them addressed, in bags & bins and over there be 3 PM. This new procedure of the postmaster getting the figurew verified before releasing the newspapers, has caused a real time headache. Thanks for any consideration. He is usually alone most days. Kathy Kauffold, editor, Dodge Criterion, NE 68633-0068	Sep 12, 2011 12:54 PM
152	Ida, MI 48140 Petersburg MI 49270 is in a different zone and dropping in Jackson MI would be over an hour drive. Sending to Detroit could not be timely.	Sep 12, 2011 12:47 PM
153	I do not believe we would be on the list, but if we were I would have many concerns, outlined in some of your other questions.	Sep 12, 2011 12:27 PM
154	Two post offices in southern Boone County, Missouri concern me: 1) Hartsburg 65039 - rural post office in town of 108 - but serves six times that many homes w/rural carriers. The post office provides service for dozens of elderly who have great difficulty getting to next town. 2) Ashland 65010 -- serves a community of 3,700 - but is w/in 10 miles of sorting station. Concern has been voiced that postal could axe Ashland office and have carriers operate out of Columbia Regional Airport sorting station. I don't think this is likely - but it would be disastrous to many businesses and residents in this community.	Sep 12, 2011 12:24 PM
155	We are aware of a plan for Cokato 55321 routes to be delivered from Dassel 55325, which is unusual because Cokato is the larger community.	Sep 12, 2011 12:18 PM
156	I had not been worried until receiving this survey. Our local post office serves about 3300 postal patrons. If it is on a future closure list it would be a huge issue for not only our newspaper, but for our community in general.	Sep 12, 2011 12:10 PM
157	69032 Hayes Center, Nebraska Point of Entry 69040 Palisade 69024 Culbertson 69043 Stratton 69030 Haigler 69041 Parks -already lost 69037 Max	Sep 12, 2011 12:06 PM

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

-Already lost

158	57260 If this Post Office would close the direct line of business would be broken. Other Post Offices in the area would require to much travel time for my business to handle and cause a competitiveness between the tri-state areas newspapers. It could cause yet another small business to close.	Sep 12, 2011 12:03 PM
159	Until we receive an itemized list of additional pending closures, we cannot speculate on the potential impact.	Sep 12, 2011 11:52 AM
160	Yes. I'm concerned that our smaller post offices (65793 - main entry and 65548 - drop ship) will be consolidated into our much larger office (65775 - also drop ship).	Sep 12, 2011 11:49 AM
161	We, the newspaper have tryed to get the word out about the closure but can't find anybody to talk too at the USPS. It would hurt our business if a larger PO office shut down.23937	Sep 12, 2011 11:44 AM
162	See comments made in previous questions. 61285 is our Zip Code.	Sep 12, 2011 11:32 AM
163	Things are good locally (79226), but after visiting with other publishers in our area, I am extremely concerned by what may happen if we ever loose our postmaster. Newspapers dealing with an OIC instead of a postmaster are currently going through hell in our region with issues of the droop test, not being able to use automation rates, and being forced to use sacks.	Sep 12, 2011 11:32 AM
164	We can't imagine that they would close the post office in Mount Ayr, which would mean that they did not have a post office in our county, but with all the talk we are beginning to wonder. The plan is to drop six of the eight post offices in our county in this round. Some of these post offices are very small and I understand their closure. Others seem to be taking the closure too far. If all are consolidated in one post office out of Mount Ayr I guess everything we mail in the county would get the DDU rate, which would probably be lest costly in the long run.	Sep 12, 2011 11:26 AM
165	The Fort Scott, KS (66701) Post Office has just gone through a "down sizing" -- it was an SEC and they have switched much of the processing to the Kansas City center. They claim they will keep the newspapers in house. Also, the Nevada Post Office (64772) has gone through several leadership changes lately and the building is in bad repair. This would be a huge issue if either of the POs were to close!!	Sep 12, 2011 11:23 AM
166	I do not know if Cabool, MO 65689 will be on any future lists, but if it were to be closed, it would be devastating for our newspaper. All our delivery is by mail in this very rural area and we have no other viable options.	Sep 12, 2011 11:21 AM
167	My concern right now is that the post office employee is telling me to prepare in advance that the USPS plans to do away with 2nd class entirely mail next year and that will mean that I do not have any option to deliver the newspaper to my customers which may result in closing my business because most of my business is subscription based. If they do keep it for now they plan to increase the rates which will have a major effect on people subscribing!	Sep 12, 2011 11:21 AM

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

168	We deliver by carrier in our immediate delivery area. More worried about the new "Every Door" initiative that pits postal service against us as a competitor with direct mail.	Sep 12, 2011 11:19 AM
169	With only three post offices located in our entire county, the loss of even one (38626) will dramatically impact our community. If we were to lose either or both of the other two (38676, 38664), many people in our community would be more than 30 miles from a post office.	Sep 12, 2011 11:15 AM
170	We have a couple small offices we deal with and are worried about the service. 60536, 60512. 60537: currently on the closing list.	Sep 12, 2011 11:14 AM
171	PO in Hellertown PA 18055 This office and its staff serve our community and its businesses. A closed PO here will damage the community's identity beyond repair. And many people use it because it is close and simple to get to with out hassles. This would be hard for senior citizens who for the most part use the postal system rather than e-mail. Hard for local businesses who are owner-operated and can't spend a half hour going to and from a post office for business mail. As for my newspaper, having to take bulk mail to a larger facility has been nothing less than a mess.	Sep 12, 2011 11:12 AM
172	Eagle Grove, Iowa 50533 Town population 3,500 -- Local sorting of mail has ceased. It is being done in the next town 15 miles west. Parcels are not brought over for delivery until the customer asks. Then delivery is done the next day. Example: Parcel comes from Amazon.com to customer on Tuesday. Customer gets note in mail on Tuesday to call for pickup. Customer calls Wednesday for parcel. USPS brings package over from neighboring town on Thursday so customer can have it. That's crazy. Why not just stack up the parcels in the back room of the home post office. There is plenty of room there now that sorting isn't being done in that office. Other small post offices in towns of 300 or less will just have to close, such as these around us: 50470, 50420, 50439, 50457, 50101. We understand the closing of small offices. But what about larger towns like Eagle Grove (above). Some of the decisions affecting those towns don't make sense.	Sep 12, 2011 11:09 AM
173	I am an advocate for streamlining and cutting government spending. And, I can see some value in closing more rural post offices. However, the methods of closure for the Lincoln County, Wyoming area (including Star Valley) show no logic or fore thought on the part of the postal service. Small post offices where other deliver options exist are remaining open. While post offices that serve a much larger population with no other deliver options are on the schedule to be closed. I am confounded by the whole process. Meanwhile, families who have subscribed to the Star Valley Independent for over 100 years (five generations of subscribers) are now experiencing hiccups in delivery for the first time. Tell me how any of this is good for tax payers or newspaper or the postal service?	Sep 12, 2011 11:05 AM
174	I would be very concerned if the following post offices closed: (Top 3 are in Wyoming, last in Colorado) Albin 82050 Burns 82053 Carpenter 82054 Grover 80729 If these close, a large portion of our local readership will be significantly delayed in receiving our publication.	Sep 12, 2011 11:01 AM

Q7. USPS has so far chosen very small offices to put on the closing list. In months ahead, larger offices will be considered for closure. NNA would like to know whether you have become concerned that a post office that is truly critical to your business may get on the hit list. For example, a deterio...

175	I am not concerned that by post office of entry will be closed: new building, new postmaster, high volume, but I am very concerned about the closure of the post office in Bynum (59419) and Pendroy (59467). In Bynum, people there will have to drive at least 26 miles round trip to get their mail because there is not a business in their town (only a bar) that could host a "village" post office. This idea of closing the rural post offices is insane. These rural postal clients are the ones who still use the Post Office for nearly 100 percent of their mail needs. Why is the post office discontinuing services to the people who are it's most loyal customers? We think cuts to suburban or urban post office make a lot more sense.	Sep 12, 2011 11:00 AM
176	We have several small post offices in the area with only one person working and then at only limited hours. My concern is not with the physical presence to buy and sell stamps, other businesses could offer that service. I would however support closing post offices, if improvements are made to speed up delivery. Most of our mail is already sorted in Grand Rapids, mi and then delivered to local post offices for delivery.	Sep 12, 2011 10:59 AM
177	Coulee Dam's (99116) post office is apparently about to close or be downgraded, although it appears on no list (as far as I know). We have our Standard permit there for mailing the shopper. Two weeks ago, they decided to move all the walking route carriers for Coulee Dam to the city of Grand Coulee's post office (99133) and transferred the sorting bins etc. We now must deliver all our 99116 standard and periodical mail for those routes (which is most of it) to Grand Coulee, but not the PO Box addresses. One relief postmaster at Coulee Dam told me she had already received a RIF notice in the mail. This is most definitely not more efficient. By the way, I recently learned the building that is the PO in Coulee Dam was purchased in the recent past by a key aid to Rep. Cathy McMorris Rodgers, 5th Dist, WA. I have no idea if that fact is pertinent.	Sep 12, 2011 10:55 AM
178	No worries at this time.	Sep 12, 2011 10:54 AM
179	56150 since it is the drop point for one of our newspapers	Sep 12, 2011 10:51 AM
180	Loss of services and another business where local employees will lose their jobs. hours have already been cut here (53533) so am afraid the PO will be on the next cut list.	Sep 12, 2011 10:50 AM
181	81210 - Almont, Colorado 81239 - Parlin, Colorado 81248 - Sargents, Colorado	Sep 12, 2011 10:32 AM

Q8. National Newspaper Association is heavily involved in pending legislation that will reshape the way USPS provides services to newspapers and the country as a whole. USPS says it cannot currently pay its bills, and it believes it will run out of cash next summer. Congress is likely to pass a law t...

1	I am not sure about the last one. I have not thought about it.	Oct 3, 2011 12:59 PM
2	our subscribers are calling constantly about not getting newspapers.	Sep 16, 2011 1:01 PM
3	Each of these are of the utmost importance.	Sep 15, 2011 12:56 PM
4	The postal service should recognize that if they do not want to provide service, someone will. They have almost written themselves out of business because of poor service now. Closing post offices, reducing services, reducing days of delivery and other proposed options will certainly only accelerate their demise.	Sep 15, 2011 9:33 AM
5	Overcoming the limitations to efficiency imposed by Postal Unions	Sep 14, 2011 2:53 PM
6	We believe the Postal Service should discontinue the prepaying of funding the pensions. They need to operate in the real world, like the rest of us.	Sep 14, 2011 11:40 AM
7	Keeping a strong national mail system is not only absolutely necessary for the survival of newspapers but necessary for a strong national defense system. Congress needs to see that it is fully funded.	Sep 14, 2011 11:34 AM
8	I think newspapers need to lead on this issue, and we can't lead if all we are doing is saying no to things. We need a healthy USPS and we might have to cave some.	Sep 14, 2011 7:38 AM
9	Although our efforts at NNA and other organizations, like PNA here in Pennsylvania, will be most important, I doubt we will have the ability to allow these "non performing" post offices to stay open. I would hope the six-day delivery is at the forefront of the efforts listed above, as a closure Saturday followed by a holiday on a Monday would really cause mail backups.	Sep 14, 2011 7:09 AM
10	The post office is vital to every business and individual in the county as a rural area, not everyghing is done on internet, etc.	Sep 14, 2011 7:04 AM
11	The country has had to cut back in all areas. Pay scales are not what they used to be with all the benefits. The post office should do some cuts within - hire people in the big distribution centers that care about their job and get it done in a timely manner. There should be plenty of those people in the country with the rate of unemployment	Sep 14, 2011 5:52 AM
12	Their economic problem is there own making. Closing these post offices is not fixing it. Here is a current situation: Keswick, Iowa is on the new list to be closed. The lease runs until 2014 and the USPS will have to continue to pay this. (They are still paying lease on Webster, IA which is closed). Additionally, they will pay a portion to whomever becomes the Village Post Office. They will also pay someone to keep the new Box unit free of snow and ice. So they will pay for an empty building rather than keep it open. Also, during closing meeting, the USPS mentioned using USPS.com a number of times after complaining that the internet and the younger generation is at fault.	Sep 14, 2011 5:52 AM
13	It is sad to say, but when we took over the paper the anthrax incident had just occurred and we had the best delivery every. I was told every post office and sorting facility had to clear out its entire load of materials every day. It has been	Sep 13, 2011 2:37 PM

Q8. National Newspaper Association is heavily involved in pending legislation that will reshape the way USPS provides services to newspapers and the country as a whole. USPS says it cannot currently pay its bills, and it believes it will run out of cash next summer. Congress is likely to pass a law t...

all down hill since then and now takes weeks to get to where it needs to be.

14	Enabling newspapers to drop off newspapers earlier in the morning at exceptional dispatch locations to get same day delivery. Most are not open at an early hour in our area of Southern Illinois to allow us to get same day service of our daily newspaper. They would gain more business if they were more flexible.	Sep 13, 2011 1:56 PM
15	As a weekly, I have no other options for delivery than USPS.	Sep 13, 2011 12:59 PM
16	Making sure USPS has a long term plan and the ability to complete the plan.	Sep 13, 2011 10:38 AM
17	I think even if we have to pay a little bit more to get the paper into our readers' hands, easy, close entry and six-day delivery are crucial to our industry in general, and our newspaper in particular.	Sep 13, 2011 10:24 AM
18	I would like to see with these mergings the discounts applied to papers presented at the postal facilities where the carriers are located. As of now, we do not receive any discount for our Cambridge subscribers even though their carriers are located at the point of entry.	Sep 13, 2011 9:45 AM
19	We have had a very good relationship with our local P.O. (And that hasn't always been the case many, many years ago. Late last year our postmaster retired and we now have a new temporary "from Chicago" who does things by the book, we're told.) What surprises us the most is that we are their best customer in town but the always changing regulations that sometimes make no sense often make us feel unappreciated and tired of jumping through hoops. We're not the enemy! We want to work together and remain good customers.	Sep 13, 2011 9:14 AM
20	Saturday mail doesn't affect us directly, so I would see the closure of medium-size post offices as a greater threat than the Saturday delivery.	Sep 13, 2011 9:04 AM
21	alll of the above. We need 6 day mail delivery . No. 1 we need Saturday delevery!!!!	Sep 13, 2011 8:03 AM
22	I personally think the financial hardships of the US Postal Service are caused by themselves. Charging higher rates to the newspapers is not the answer to their problems. They do not have an income problem they do in fact have an expense problem. I am in agreement with the closure of some of the smaller post offices in my county but I dont understand the reasons for leaving others. They closed one that served nearly 500 households but left another open that serves 60. The two were less than five miles away from each other. What I do see is that as more post office close in neighborhoods more people will go to home delivery because of the post office being farther away from their homes. As more people stop the PO Box service there will be higher expenses on the postal service because of fuel cost in delivery.	Sep 13, 2011 7:59 AM
23	Supporting the P.O. where possible in re-inventing services.	Sep 13, 2011 7:25 AM
24	Personally, I would like to see it privatized. The service couldn't get any worse. What we lack is competition in the market. If there were two carriers, this	Sep 13, 2011 7:20 AM

Q8. National Newspaper Association is heavily involved in pending legislation that will reshape the way USPS provides services to newspapers and the country as a whole. USPS says it cannot currently pay its bills, and it believes it will run out of cash next summer. Congress is likely to pass a law t...

wouldn't be an issue.

25	all of the above are important.	Sep 13, 2011 6:43 AM
26	I think all of these options are prioritites; there isn't one or tweo best answers.	Sep 13, 2011 6:24 AM
27	I support Saturday delivery/openings and suggest that they close instead on Mondays. Not just for our sake, but for folks that work Mon-Fri and need to buy stamps, mail packages, etc. Additionally, If I could drop my sacks all at one post office and have them take care of dispatching those sacks to the outer post offices, ensuring same day delivery within the county then I would gladly pay a little extra. Keeping drivers, paying drivers, especially in our county (because of it's size and weather) are one of our biggest stressers. I would happily pay the PO what I am paying those drivers if that were the case.	Sep 13, 2011 2:44 AM
28	Not only are they proposing to close an office we use to achieve next day delivery, they are proposing making it two days for mail sent within our state to an office only 16 miles away. I don't see how this newspaper can survive without an alternative to the US Mail.	Sep 12, 2011 4:24 PM
29	As I understand the situation, 80% of the USPS problem deals with labor and benefits to reitrees. This needs to be fixed by USPS. We can't help them with that problem....however, we have to deal with the consequences. I am in foavor of any type congressional intervention that will mandate the USPS to balance their budget. I also resent the mountains of paperwork we must fill out for our mailings.	Sep 12, 2011 3:19 PM
30	we depend heavily on the Post Office for the delivery of our paper.	Sep 12, 2011 3:07 PM
31	Free Paper Carrier delivered	Sep 12, 2011 2:45 PM
32	Finding ways to better partner with the USPS to tell their story and to help tell the newspaper story of how we together are the glue that keeps many towns going. We need to keep the postal service, but not at the total cost of our newspapers.	Sep 12, 2011 2:37 PM
33	Abandon permit requirements -- all newspapers go for a set rate based on weight. Postal Service is pricing themselves out of existence. Will not exist in 50 years. Everything, including newspapers, will be digitally transmitted.	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
34	At this point, service problems reaching distant readers is absolutely terrible and inconsistent. We receive frequent complaints from out-of-state subscribers who receive our paper 2 or 3 weeks late and then in some cases receiving the late papers at the same time or a day apart. The Postal Service's system is ridiculous for newspapers to record and submit three complaints from the same distant reader before the Postal Service looks into the problem. What other business anywhere treats customers this way?	Sep 12, 2011 2:28 PM
35	It would not hurt to propose a federal tax on e-mail, twitter, Facebook, even You Tube - say a penny, or better, a nickel per posting. Revenue to the Postal Service.	Sep 12, 2011 2:04 PM
36	Close them all asap.	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM

Q8. National Newspaper Association is heavily involved in pending legislation that will reshape the way USPS provides services to newspapers and the country as a whole. USPS says it cannot currently pay its bills, and it believes it will run out of cash next summer. Congress is likely to pass a law t...

37	Talk of closure of the USPS and if it ultimately happens, not at all good for the country.	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM
38	There will obviously be dramatic changes in the operation of USPS, and newspapers have been the step child in terms of service and delivery for years- we do more and more work for USPS and get worse and worse service. Whatever happens, it likely won't be good for us.	Sep 12, 2011 1:57 PM
39	If the USPS cannot generate enough revenue to pay salaries, benefits and bills, the government should consider making the USPS a private business and should treat it as such. UPS, FedEx and others have found ways to survive. Postal carriers, like many other government employees, are over paid. I would love to ride around in a government vehicle 8 hrs a day and make $25 per hr plus benefits.	Sep 12, 2011 1:51 PM
40	Our biggest complaints come from subscribers who say they are not receiving their papers and when they do often they receive two or three at a time. Most of those are out of state subscribers.	Sep 12, 2011 1:41 PM
41	Saturday mail would be first, then exceptional dispatch	Sep 12, 2011 1:32 PM
42	These are all important!	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM
43	I care about 6 day mail but have larger concerns about timely delivery	Sep 12, 2011 1:19 PM
44	I wish I knew. I am not nearly informed as well as I should be to have a solid opinion. Our postmaster made the comment to us that he thinks that the Postoffice is trying to shut itself down, so they can force an end to the unions. He thinks this is all political.	Sep 12, 2011 12:06 PM
45	Service is the #1 issue, It must get better.	Sep 12, 2011 11:45 AM
46	times are changing and so must the post office. They need to look as payroll, as they have long had salaries that are at the top of the pay scale -- at least they are in this area.	Sep 12, 2011 11:30 AM
47	fixing in-county delivery problems. one of our in-county post offices' mail goes out of the county for sort and then comes back. Problem is that it goes to st. louis from here, before it goes to destination po. Causes a three day delay (where customers used to get them same day).	Sep 12, 2011 11:18 AM
48	I am taking steps to have the newspaper delivered by a private delivery service. Sorry To take the $ away from the PO but they are not doing the jab like they did 1 year ago.	Sep 12, 2011 11:12 AM
49	I have subscribers in Phoenix AZ, that receive their newspapers quicker than in Holland, MI which is only 5 miles away. In Florida, I will have subscribers that will not receive a paper for weeks, and then get 3-4 in a day.	Sep 12, 2011 10:59 AM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

1	Delivery times and cost of postage	Oct 3, 2011 12:59 PM
2	keeping rates low --- cost of doing business always increasing	Sep 26, 2011 12:12 PM
3	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. Our business relies on the postal service for delivery to our customers.	Sep 20, 2011 12:39 PM
4	6 day mail, we publish on Saturday. Losing Saturday mail would cut out half of our subscribers getting their paper same day inside our county. Fixing service issues outside our county but within our service area	Sep 20, 2011 8:46 AM
5	Rates - Because they've been going up despite the fact the customer service and quality of service has been going down.	Sep 19, 2011 11:43 PM
6	Timely delivery of both local and distance newspapers.	Sep 19, 2011 7:06 PM
7	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. We are in a rural area and have to do a lot of driving from our press location to our post office now.	Sep 18, 2011 7:26 PM
8	The Diagonal Post Office is on the list and we have had the informational meeting. Very concerned that our office will be closed and that there is not much we can do about it.	Sep 17, 2011 9:37 PM
9	Access to delivery post offices and keeping rates low so I don't have to raise my subscription price to compensate. Television doesn't cover small town news events. We need Freedom of the Press and Freedom of Information for Small Town U.S.A.	Sep 16, 2011 2:51 PM
10	Fixing service problems, both within and outside, of my immediate county - is my greatest concern. We have lost several print subscribers due to service issues with the US Postal system; it is an extra challenge to have a product people want and are willing to pay for, but unable to deliver it in a timely manner.	Sep 16, 2011 1:18 PM
11	Direct Mail and reaching our subscribers	Sep 16, 2011 1:01 PM
12	My greatest concern is how our customers will suffer with five-day delivery. I may be wrong, but I think what the post office REALLY wants is five day delivery. I think they are throwing out other cuts they are considering to scare us, like closing our mail sort facility. In the "give and take" of negotiation, they will offer to leave the sort facilities open and insist on five-day service. Their pay scale for employees is their problem. In our little town, a janitor is making $40K plus a year, which is more than our school teachers make. I can only assume that other more ranking employees are pushing $100K. On a 16-page paper, we are paying $455/week for postage. That means the first 82 column inches that we sell in ads goes straight to the post office. We are already paying the post office a premium, and are receiving mediocre service. The day is coming when all newspapers will be "web only." The post office is going to accelerate the decision by many papers to drop print issues, I fear. The post office must work with us, not against us. Thank you very much for continuing the battle on our behalf for cost containment and better service. I read all your information and appreciate your efforts.	Sep 16, 2011 11:16 AM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

13	Making sure of a local office	Sep 16, 2011 11:11 AM
14	Preserving Saturday delivery. As we have reduced our home delivery area, more people get the paper by mail, especially in rural areas with little or no internet access for digital editions. They are not going to want to wait until Monday to receive the previous Friday, Saturday and Sunday paper.	Sep 16, 2011 10:57 AM
15	I am concerned that the entire post office could fail, thereby putting at risk many businesses, not just publishing.	Sep 16, 2011 8:17 AM
16	Preserving 6 day mail delivery We will lose considerably more mail subscribers if there are 2 days where they do not receive their paper on time. The mail subscribers we will lose are the very subscribers who are most likely receiving ad inserts.	Sep 16, 2011 6:41 AM
17	Newspapers are very important information sources to the smallest communities in America, so those offices who serve as delivery post offices and exceptional dispatch offices are serving a very, very important community service. The closing of such offices will greatly affect life in small-town America.	Sep 15, 2011 4:56 PM
18	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. Right now, newspapers (or at least ours) have the papers sorted and ready to go. Heck, I could get in my car and deliver these. The people complaining about the post office needing money need to take a look at how they run their business -- they pay high salaries and offer poor service. If we did that at the newspaper, we would face constant criticism. Where has the management of the post office gone? We are constantly being threatened by one post office that they can't handle our volume of mail, yet when I tell them I can go other places (we have three post offices in our county), they change their minds. I wonder if all post offices are like this? Terrible management and very poor service are their downfall.	Sep 15, 2011 4:43 PM
19	Making sure USPS stays in business. We have not alternative way to distribute our newspaper.	Sep 15, 2011 3:41 PM
20	Guarding against direct mail- smaller newspapers losing inserts because of direct mail.	Sep 15, 2011 3:03 PM
21	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices.	Sep 15, 2011 1:09 PM
22	I really don't know how to distinguish priority as all are so important. I guess I would rank numbers 1, 2 and 3 as our top priorities.	Sep 15, 2011 12:56 PM
23	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. I think rates for any other venue would be outrageous even though the U.S. Postal Service rates are constantly on the rise. My newspaper is located in an economically depressed area, and I try to keep a check on rate increases. However, it becomes necessary with all of the increases by the postal service.	Sep 15, 2011 12:47 PM
24	six day delivery - critical that we preserve the option to distribute our papers and other products on the day(s) most valuable to our readers and customers.	Sep 15, 2011 12:21 PM
25	Delivering our newspaper outside of county. The service is worse now than it	Sep 15, 2011 12:16 PM has ever been. This is a serious problem with all newspapers, not just ours.

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

26	Access to delivery post office	Sep 15, 2011 11:56 AM
27	The problem now is the same it has been for the 20 years we have been here -- customer service. Delivery outside of our county is less than acceptable and even worse for our readers out of state.	Sep 15, 2011 11:52 AM
28	We have over 7,500 daily copies and our Iowa subscribers have become accustomed to same day delivery. Due to USPS processing changes an increasing number of subscribers are reporting delivery delays and expect us to be able to correct the situation. Many are getting frustrated and stopping their mail accounts.	Sep 15, 2011 11:15 AM
29	We are fortunate in Hancock County, Maine. Most of our papers are delivered in county where we enjoy excellent service. The problems USPS face are not problems that NNA cannot fix. Email and Internet will continue to suck information and revenue out of the mail stream. USPS is not the only industry facing this struggle. Who wants to be manufacturing TV sets when the iPad has ALREADY sucked up 25% of TV show downloads? Rather than trying to figure out how to keep a buggy whip plant operating for a few more years USPS should concentrate on reinventing itself.	Sep 15, 2011 11:11 AM
30	Making sure USPS survives. If it does not, we will not.	Sep 15, 2011 10:27 AM
31	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices	Sep 15, 2011 9:11 AM
32	Getting the paper to my out of state readers. As I stated above, I have very dissatisfied customers who are dropping their subscriptions left and right. The postal service is single handedly ruining my business.	Sep 15, 2011 8:58 AM
33	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. The cost and hassle of travel to another facility to mail our newspapers would be detrimental to our business.	Sep 15, 2011 8:25 AM
34	Loss of Saturday delivery would cause the most disruption to our operation.	Sep 15, 2011 8:18 AM
35	Fixing service problems and keeping the rates as low as possible. It's hard for small businesses like mine to stay in business without the help of the USPS.	Sep 15, 2011 8:17 AM
36	Our primary concern is the loss of smaller post offices within our own county. The vast majority of our readers live within the county we publish in, and the loss of post offices may result in less effective delivery to our most important client base.	Sep 15, 2011 8:01 AM
37	Our largest problem is and always has been, reaching distant readers. With over 50% of our subscribers outside our county and in almost all 50 states, we are constantly battling the USPS for late, lost or damaged papers. Some areas experience a 2-3 week delivery time! We are a weekly paper, with a circulation less than 9,000. We cannot maintain our subscriber base when the USPS is delivering news that is 2 - 3 weeks old. Our customers have stated as much. We have lost too many subscribers for that very reason. We know it is not our price or the economy - we still only charge $42 per year for anywhere in the	Sep 15, 2011 7:56 AM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

U.S.A.

38	The poor service of delivering newspapers to readers across the country has caused loss of subscriptions to small town papers -- often subscriptions that cannot be recouped.	Sep 15, 2011 7:53 AM
39	cost of services	Sep 15, 2011 7:23 AM
40	Making sure it stays in business regardless of the problems that may arise for newspapers. If we don't have access to the post offices, it wouldn't be long before we were out of business also.	Sep 15, 2011 5:37 AM
41	Timely delivery. Have had to take drastic, time-consuming, and expensive steps to ensure acceptable delivery because of closing offices and individual postmasters not allowing dropping of the papers during the night so they would be ready to deliver in the morning.	Sep 14, 2011 7:07 PM
42	In order for us to survive, we need the post office to stay in business. We are a free paper but have done exceptionally well by not throwing The Paper in their yard, not charging, and providing what we feel is a service every week. We are able to do this through our advertisers. If rates go up due to P.O.s closing and the possibility of having to deliver door to door this will put one more hardship on the newspaper.	Sep 14, 2011 4:05 PM
43	Fixing service problems. It will not matter where you mail your paper from if the readers do not receive it in time to save money as they prepare to do their grocery shopping and other comparative shopping for the week.	Sep 14, 2011 3:31 PM
44	Preserving Saturday delivery, because that would greatly affect our small daily paper that comes out about noon weekdays, meaning Friday's paper wouldn't be delivered until Monday if Saturday delivery disappears	Sep 14, 2011 3:27 PM
45	Rate control is essential due to reduced margins	Sep 14, 2011 2:53 PM
46	That the Post Office stays in business	Sep 14, 2011 2:52 PM
47	Making sure that newspapers have access to delivery post offices.	Sep 14, 2011 2:47 PM
48	I guess "making sure USPS stays in business"---while it is unthinkable they could go out of business, the reality is--they could! This would create a cascade of problems, not only with newspapers but other timely delivered products as well--despite the damage it would do to our nations psyche with one of our oldest national institutions. This should not happen.	Sep 14, 2011 2:34 PM
49	Postal service is atrocious (has been for three decades) and increasingly expensive. USPS is forcing people into electronic editions through extremely bad service. We see little chance that this will change.	Sep 14, 2011 2:22 PM
50	Keeping rates as low as possible. We can't continue to pass costs increases on to our customers (advertisers and subscribers) and keep them.	Sep 14, 2011 2:15 PM
51	Keeping rates as low as possible because we are a small weekly paper wanting to stay in business. In order to do that, we have not raised our subscription rates in the last 7 - 8 years. We lose enough subscribers by them passing away. The	Sep 14, 2011 1:52 PM older generation is our best support. Between the cost of printing our newspaper and mailing, it is scary to think we would have to pay more in either one of those.

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

52	Keeping po offices in business.	Sep 14, 2011 1:18 PM
53	Our greatest immediate concern is the deterioration we are already seeing in delivery to out-of-state subscribers. We are losing subscribers because of very poor service.	Sep 14, 2011 12:09 PM
54	Fixing service problems, in and out of area!	Sep 14, 2011 12:09 PM
55	Closing post offices where we have exceptional dispatch.	Sep 14, 2011 11:48 AM
56	Keeping rates low	Sep 14, 2011 11:47 AM
57	We currently distribute our newspaper to subscribers via the post office. If they go out of business, we would be challenged to find an alternate carrier that's either affordable or practical. And because we're in a summer resort community, thousands of our subscribers live outside our primary distribution area. Service to those customers has been deteriorating for years, and closing more distribution centers and small post offices will simply accelerate the problem. We've already experienced a large number of subscriber cancellations because of postal delays, if the numbers continue to decrease our advertisers will find other methods to reach that audience.	Sep 14, 2011 11:40 AM
58	1. Have access to delivery post offices.	Sep 14, 2011 11:40 AM
59	Fixing delivery problems and making sure that the system is fully funded.	Sep 14, 2011 11:34 AM
60	Making sure USPS stays in business. Without USPS, this newspaper could conceivably go out of business.	Sep 14, 2011 11:30 AM
61	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices	Sep 14, 2011 10:10 AM
62	Preserving 6 day mail delivery. I've found out that currently quite a few of my customers are not getting this type of service. that would be a upgrade????	Sep 14, 2011 10:00 AM
63	Access to delivery post offices - it is critical to our successful delivery of our products. Without it we are forced to employ a carrier force or explore third-party delivery by competitors in our market.	Sep 14, 2011 9:45 AM
64	Preservation of Saturday delivery... Friday night events are most imp/ortant in our community and timely coverage of those events that is essential to our reputation.	Sep 14, 2011 9:25 AM
65	Access to delivery post offices because of operational problems that would be created with not only delivery but required paperwork and especially problem solving as we incur considerable issues with proper deliver	Sep 14, 2011 9:25 AM
66	Saturday delivery. We depend on Saturday delivery for our weekend edition.	Sep 14, 2011 9:21 AM
67	The Mailing costs could become a problem and force us to go digital, which we probably should do anyway.	Sep 14, 2011 8:37 AM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

68	Keeping rates as low as possible. I spend over $150,000/year with DDU. In essence, all the PO has to do is take a bundle and deliver it. We drop it at the PO, sort it, etc. I would hope the USPS will not bite the hand that feeds them.	Sep 14, 2011 8:35 AM
69	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices because they need to get the paper in a timely matter for dated advertising/news content	Sep 14, 2011 8:35 AM
70	access to delivery post offices.	Sep 14, 2011 8:31 AM
71	could give a rip about saturday delivery. if that solves the problem, it's a good trade. papers big enough to deliver on saturday can have a delivery team. We need a financially viable USPS, and closing offices and eliminating Saturday delivery are just two ways to accomplish that. That revenue is not coming back, and the only other revenue is to sell more advertising and printing, and we don't need that competition in our smaller markets.	Sep 14, 2011 7:38 AM
72	The six-day delivery.	Sep 14, 2011 7:09 AM
73	Fixing delivery problems especially those that go to Denver. Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post office.	Sep 14, 2011 7:04 AM
74	Fixing service problems.	Sep 14, 2011 6:58 AM
75	Rates. Postal rates have risen to the point where it is difficult to keep subscription prices low enough to retain readers. Every time we raise subscription rates, we lose readers, so we have swallowed postal rate increases for the past several years to try to keep our circulation at a level that will still attract advertisers.	Sep 14, 2011 6:50 AM
76	6 day mail service. Delivering to rural residents in our circulation area will be very expensive, will force us to dramatically raise motor route rates, and likely result in a significant decrease in circulation as a result.	Sep 14, 2011 6:46 AM
77	Service. If readers do not receive paper in timely manner they will discontinue being subscribers which hurts all of us.	Sep 14, 2011 6:34 AM
78	stay in business	Sep 14, 2011 6:28 AM
79	The distinct possibility of a longer turn around time for all mailed products - newspapers and shoppers - is a great concern. Periodicals are supposedly now "same or 1 day" delivery. When the PO service level fails due to cut backs, ultimately leading to "1 day" delivery, we will lose subscribers. If a shopper can not be eligible for DDU because of PO closings, this means we increase our costs because we are forced to deliver to all other Post Offices - or delay delivery to 3-4 days. This will be the end of many mailed shoppers.	Sep 14, 2011 6:12 AM
80	Keeping rates as low as possible. The USPS has mismanaged their funds and pay high wages for a lot of now computer-generated work. We do ALL paperwork for the USPS now; if there's a problem, they blame the computers...	Sep 14, 2011 6:08 AM
81	Preserving 6 day delivery or more important for us Saturday deliver. If they were to cut out a day it would be better to cut out Tuesday. Our readership likes receiving our publication on Saturday. Without Saturday delivery we would need	Sep 14, 2011 6:08 AM to make sweeping changes to what could be provided in our paper each week due to deadlines beyond our control.

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

82	All of them. Our newspaper rely on the post office 100 percent. We will have major problems and delays.	Sep 14, 2011 5:52 AM
83	That at some point there will be one post office per county. This makes it difficult for rural patrons to use services or be able to the post office. Additionally, lose of jobs and all the empty buildings they leave. Small town has given up enough and is out of things to give up. Another empty building on main street and lose of the Post Master is hard on everyone but not being able to get stamps, packages, etc. Additionally the rural carriers are not getting hours added. They are just getting work added. In the recent meeting, the USPS rep said they will make it work and figure it out but the math of going all the new places seems that they will have to speed and be dangerous. Not sure how it will happen in the winter.	Sep 14, 2011 5:52 AM
84	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. The other concerns won't matter if we can't get the papers to a post office within a reasonable distance.	Sep 14, 2011 5:44 AM
85	If the USPS would address their issues with the union of paying carriers to receive full pay while doing nothing and not cutting its workforce in line with decreased demand, it would drastically reduce its constant indebtedness. Why tank the entire organization just because they won't slaughter this "sacred cow?"	Sep 14, 2011 5:29 AM
86	Making sure USPS stays in business. If it's not in business, the other concerns won't matter much.	Sep 14, 2011 2:21 AM
87	Poor deliver with increasing rates.	Sep 13, 2011 7:37 PM
88	Direct Mail - The Post Office will be able to cut rates for direct mail clients and take inserts away from newspaper and possibly the printing also. (Like they do now with envelopes.)	Sep 13, 2011 7:14 PM
89	Preserving 6 day delivery in order to ensure timely delivery to rural customers in our immediate publication area.	Sep 13, 2011 7:02 PM
90	Our local post office is responsive and helpful in getting mail delivered (49740). However, our summer resort readers (one of our key constituencies) has serious problems with late delivery outside of our area -- from Detroit area to California. Newspapers are actually mail people want to receive (not junk, not bills), yet we get treated like "third class" citizens. Why can't the Post Office deliver on excellence in this area -- we fill out more and more paperwork and get worse and worse service. No wonder the Post Office is in trouble.	Sep 13, 2011 6:38 PM
91	Preserving 6 day and access to delivery post offices.	Sep 13, 2011 6:38 PM
92	USPS staying in business. Critical to success of weekly paper	Sep 13, 2011 6:25 PM
93	Access to delivery post offices.	Sep 13, 2011 6:03 PM
94	USPS entering into bulk mail single piece business removing the 3.3 oz minimum.	Sep 13, 2011 4:52 PM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

95	Preserving Saturday delivery. Delivery delays for the Friday and Saturday editions of our daily newspaper, and questions about the delivery of the Monday edition (which is taken to the P.O. on Sat.) of our twice-weekly newspaper.	Sep 13, 2011 4:08 PM
96	Loss of next day deliver combined with or caused by having to take newspapers a greater distance to get them worked.	Sep 13, 2011 4:00 PM
97	Keeping rates as low as possible is a main concern because current rates are almost more than I can afford to pay.	Sep 13, 2011 3:44 PM
98	It is difficult for rural areas to be informed. Approximately 70% of our rural market is without internet. There is little to no cell phone coverage in many parts of our market area limiting that data availability. Also, we have a responsibility as a newspaper to report activities of our government especially since we are a community publication. There is no local television station so we have radio and newspaper for our only local news source.	Sep 13, 2011 3:10 PM
99	Making sure exceptional dispatch privilege survives. Our industry is downsizing as well and we are the print hub for numerous small newspapers in our company. If we lose the exceptional dispatch privilege it might affect the timeliness of delivery and newspapers get the brunt of the complaints even if it is a postal complaint	Sep 13, 2011 3:09 PM
100	Guarding against competition from direct mail Fixing service problems reaching distant readers outside general area. Out of State and Out of County are horrible. Losing subscribers weekly because of slow and no service for our newspaper.	Sep 13, 2011 2:56 PM
101	Preserving six-day a week service. Discontinuing Saturday service will create even more serious delays getting our Friday and Sunday newspapers to customers. We do not publish a Saturday newspaper.	Sep 13, 2011 2:47 PM
102	I like reading a newspaper in my hands, made out of cheap paper from trees. I am not thrilled about putting my paper on the web or hiring paper boys.	Sep 13, 2011 2:46 PM
103	In our case it's access to delivery. If our post office closes we would have to go about 15 miles north which increases our costs and unfortunately would increase our subscribers' cost for the newspaper. We have a great working relationship with our post office and if we have to go elsewhere I'm worried about service.	Sep 13, 2011 2:42 PM
104	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. If there is not access and we are forced to cover delivery costs to distant offices it may become cost prohibitive.	Sep 13, 2011 2:41 PM
105	all	Sep 13, 2011 2:38 PM
106	The postal system has to be saved as FedEx and UPS are never going to go to every house in America every day. To compare the post office to that delivery system is insane. We need a workable system that is dependable. Even if we have to have longer delivery dates to keep prices affordable, so be it as long as those delivery dates are met, i.e. if 3-day delivery is this price and 7 day is that price, I would probably do the 7-day pricing if I knew FOR SURE, it would be delivered in that time period. If seven days means whenever we feel like	Sep 13, 2011 2:37 PM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

	delivering it then not an acceptable option!
107	Service issues and timely delivery.	Sep 13, 2011 2:37 PM
108	Both are equally important. Either one will raise the price of the newspaper to where the current subscribers will quit subscribing.	Sep 13, 2011 2:25 PM
109	Making sure we have 6 day week delivery including Saturdays.	Sep 13, 2011 2:22 PM
110	We are a daily newspaper and we rely on the post office for our daily delivery. Without USPS, our entire business would be in jeopardy.	Sep 13, 2011 2:16 PM
111	Daily mail at a competitive rate	Sep 13, 2011 2:12 PM
112	Preserving Saturday mail service. This is critical in small, rural communities that are only marginally served by UPS and Fed Ex. Without Saturday delivery and with Monday holidays, rural residents could become isolated rather easily.	Sep 13, 2011 1:54 PM
113	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. Because in our rural area, if we should lose our local post office, we would have to drive approx 30 min. to mail our papers. With the price of gas, that is just another expense small papers don't need.	Sep 13, 2011 1:45 PM
114	Keeping rates as low as possible	Sep 13, 2011 1:44 PM
115	6 day delivery, we currently publish on Saturday's rates	Sep 13, 2011 1:39 PM
116	Keeping acces to delivery post offices	Sep 13, 2011 1:38 PM
117	Loss of my office of entry post office will, according to Iowa law, make my newspaper no longer eligible for public notices.	Sep 13, 2011 1:31 PM
118	Preserving 6 day mail delivery, including Saturdays. We have a lot of Saturday deliverys of our newspaper and we need our newspapers delivered as soon as possible.	Sep 13, 2011 1:24 PM
119	Loss of timely delivery, Post office creating bogus regulations especially the droop test to capture more revenue. Be reasonable and less bureaucratic and gain market share. It takes more than 20 pages to prepare one mailing each week, 3541.	Sep 13, 2011 1:22 PM
120	USPS stays in business Keeping rates for periodicals reasonable	Sep 13, 2011 1:20 PM
121	Preserving service in our area, which is threatened by wrong-headed cutbacks done to fill out a national "plan." There is no service to distant sites.	Sep 13, 2011 1:18 PM
122	access to delivery post offices; most direct effect on our costs/delivery time.	Sep 13, 2011 1:18 PM
123	Making sure exceptional dispatch privalege survives as it gives the newspaper the advantage of same day delivery.	Sep 13, 2011 1:13 PM
124	Keeping rates as low as possible making it feasable to provide print delivery and fixing the service problems so that our distant readers receive the copy of the newspaper in a timely manner.	Sep 13, 2011 1:03 PM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

125	Keeping rates low. I think that it is disgusting that their rates go up as our percentage goes up. There should be a flat or fixed rate for certain weights. It should not fluxuate with the adversting percentage.	Sep 13, 2011 12:59 PM
126	Losing Saturday delivery. We publish 5 day dailies, and Saturday delivery of the Friday paper is sketchy now. Making 20% of your product irrelevant is dangerous.	Sep 13, 2011 12:51 PM
127	Keeping rates as low as possible. I believe that rates are going to increase significantly in order to try to save the USPS.	Sep 13, 2011 12:43 PM
128	Keeping rates as low as possible.	Sep 13, 2011 12:41 PM
129	Our greatest concern by far is the possible elimination of Saturday delivery. Our paper is a twice-weekly delivered almost entirely by USPS on Wednesday and Saturday. The elimination of Saturday delivery would force a huge shift in our operation, likely resulting in lost advertising and circulation revenues.	Sep 13, 2011 12:40 PM
130	Rates--that's the bottom line of everything.	Sep 13, 2011 12:39 PM
131	access to delivery post offices	Sep 13, 2011 12:36 PM
132	making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. Without these, all other points are moot. We can get creative, but none of it will matter if there are delivery post offices in the county.	Sep 13, 2011 12:30 PM
133	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. Making sure exceptional dispatch survives. Preserving 6 day mail delivery including Saturdays.	Sep 13, 2011 12:26 PM
134	All----- we just have been using this PO for years and now we drive across town to deal with PO. Farther drive and way crowded.	Sep 13, 2011 12:17 PM
135	Keeping rates competitive	Sep 13, 2011 12:01 PM
136	Keeping rates as low as possible - for obvious reasons as they are the most important to small weekly newspapers in these current economic times.	Sep 13, 2011 11:54 AM
137	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices and making sure exceptional dispatch survives: Small papers like mine depend on the US Postal Service to deliver the product we produce. But it's not just small weeklies – a number of small dailies have also gone to mail delivery because it is more cost efficient and because it takes the burden off the newspaper of having someone to run a route. But by closing smaller post offices, they are making it harder for us to get our paper into the hands of our customers.	Sep 13, 2011 11:52 AM
138	Service! The service we get from USPS is lousy, both in-county and out-of-state. We've lost subscribers because of it. It's ridiculous.	Sep 13, 2011 11:52 AM
139	The Post Office needs to make dramatic changes to ensure its long-term viability. From what I've seen of their losses, a piece-meal approach will not work. Though no one wants to see the reduced service and job losses associated with a post-office closing, it is a necessary evil. My biggest concern is that injecting political concerns into this process will prevent some of the	Sep 13, 2011 11:49 AM changes that need to be made, leaving the PO to limp along until the next perfectly predictable crisis a few years down the road. All I ask is that the PO develop a workable plan and give us adequate time to prepare for its implementation.

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

140	rates and service problems for our distant readers.	Sep 13, 2011 11:49 AM
141	Keeping rates as low as possible	Sep 13, 2011 11:44 AM
142	Fixing service problems. Our main product is carrier delivered locally but have numerous complaints that out of county mail customers receive 2 or 3 newspapers at once. And most are delayed. Although cost is a major issue these days we need to make sure the service is worth the price we pay.	Sep 13, 2011 11:39 AM
143	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices and newspapers are delivered in a timely fashion.	Sep 13, 2011 11:36 AM
144	Fixing service problems reach distant readers. We are losing many subscribers monthly due to the fact that the USPS may take as long as two weeks to deliver our publication.	Sep 13, 2011 11:19 AM
145	It's difficult to take any item off your list. All are important as our own industry struggles. Exceptional dispatch, six-day delivery and out-of-county service are critical to our business.	Sep 13, 2011 11:18 AM
146	Being able to exceptional dispatch and receive the discount.	Sep 13, 2011 11:14 AM
147	Keeping rates as low as possible. Besides mailing subscriptions we have a large TMC program. We also mail many of our subscriber bills and all of our advertising bills.	Sep 13, 2011 11:06 AM
148	Right now, preserving 6 day service is a priority because our access post office is not likely in danger, but it would probably cause subscriber drop-off if people couldn't get the Friday paper (with the week's ads) until Monday or Tuesday. (We are a small, M-F paper in North Dakota).	Sep 13, 2011 11:01 AM
149	If rates go up much higher, with lesser services, I will have to pull out of the USPS and go to home delivery. I would prefer to stay with USPS. I also need exceptional dispatch because it speeds up deliver of our product. I am certainly willing to go to Buda (78610) to enter my product, and then pay my own employees to drop the bundles at our three exceptional dispatch locations (Manchaca - 78652, Kyle - 78640 and San Marcos - 78666).	Sep 13, 2011 10:59 AM
150	Making sure USPS stays in business.	Sep 13, 2011 10:38 AM
151	The end of Saturday mail delivery would deal a crippling, probably fatal, blow to our newspaper. Sixty point-eight (60.8) percent of our subscribers receive their paper by mail on the day following publication. That means two-thirds our readers would get Friday's paper on Monday. We don't have enough density in our circulation area to allow timely and affordable private delivery. We will lose enough subscribers to make it nearly, or entirely, impossible to say in business.	Sep 13, 2011 10:26 AM
152	For this newspaper, no doubt it's six-day delivery.	Sep 13, 2011 10:24 AM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

153	Fixing service problems reaching distant readers (we lose subscribers because the papers sometimes are delivered two weeks later) Keeping rates as low as possible	Sep 13, 2011 10:14 AM
154	Fixing service problems because the mail/newspaper delivery is supposed to be timely and consistent.	Sep 13, 2011 9:55 AM
155	Customer service is my greatest concern. Our customers expect their papers on a given day but it is not feasible at our size to go to a carrier force. We utilize the postal service for our deliveries and expect the service we have had in the past or been promised by their own manual. With the facilities taking on more carriers and given less room, it has delayed delivery already. With the closing of even more facilities and neighboring towns taking on the deliveries, this will overload the carrier force and give us even poorer service. In turn, with the rising costs, it forces the small-town newspaper who has the customer in mind to cut costs in other areas in order to accommodate the costs. Ending the circle would be the loss of subscribers due to the poor service or costs of getting the paper.	Sep 13, 2011 9:45 AM
156	Preserving 6 day mail delivery.,	Sep 13, 2011 9:41 AM
157	Being able to deliver the paper as many days as possible through the mail.	Sep 13, 2011 9:26 AM
158	If our post office closes, it would cause a great deal more work at home for me in the evenings, due to more travel time in order to send the papers and to be able to collect checks in the mail for banking deposits.	Sep 13, 2011 9:21 AM
159	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. We are very small and this would add a huge expense driving to an entry post office each week, not to mention a time element that is becoming very thin as well.	Sep 13, 2011 9:21 AM
160	Having our delivery post office is crucial for us, in part because of the in-county rate and naturally because of convenience - we're next door. Having to drive 30 or more miles to a larger P.O. would make timely delivery harder and add additional mileage expenses and time.	Sep 13, 2011 9:14 AM
161	We're in a town of about 7,000 people and are surrounded by very small communities. A city of about 30,000 people is about 30 miles away. I am concerned about the diminished service we'll receive when more and more of the local work is transferred from our local post office to the city 30 miles away. We already have seen our deadline to get our papers to the local post office pushed up an hour on press day – just to meet their internal staffing schedule. That puts a real hardship on us to get them done; and if we miss the deadline by even a few minutes, they won't work with us, even though the truck doesn't leave for an hour after the deadline they have given us. When we do miss the deadline, the papers just sit for a day before they go out to other post offices for distribution. They're also fining us more for drop issues. Overall, they are a lot less cooperative and helpful – and nobody seems to care.	Sep 13, 2011 9:04 AM
162	Right now, I have great concern about how USPS will maintain distant (out of state) delivery of our product with the staff cutbacks that are under discussion. It already sometimes takes 2 weeks to get our newspapers to either coast from the Midwest.	Sep 13, 2011 9:02 AM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

163	Service to far away customers is probably the thing that has killed the P O the most. They give slow service on purpose to bulk mailers to penalize them for paying a lower rate, rather than giving them the best service of all because they are committed to delivering every day of the year. They havee lost the most customers due to this blatent poor service.	Sep 13, 2011 9:01 AM
164	Newspapers throughout the nation are already faced with many challenges ... most of these challenges are true threats to the existence of the newspaper industry. We are now faced with survival and while most newspapers provide website news content (free and/or behind the wall), citizens do not rely on the web to satisfy a "community news appetite." Newspapers continue to provide a true community news venue via print and/or online. Most of our subscribers still prefer print deliver as opposed to online delivery. Since the days of the Pony Express, mail delivery ... the dissemination of news, whether it be personal, local, or global ... and newspaper publishers have been partners in keeping citizens informed. We need to do everything in our power, whether it be governmental, organizational, and/or business involvement to preserve consistent and adequate mail delivery.	Sep 13, 2011 8:57 AM
165	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. Without that we can't get the timely service we need for our readers. I've already had one of my ddu offices being consolidated with another office and it has costs me a day in delivery on many occasions.	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
166	1. Rates-out of county and zone 6, 7, 8 now prohibitive as it is. In county is good.	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
167	Converting mail subscribers to a digital customers via free Web content and pay e-editions. Many mail customers are older and probably will not make the change.	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
168	Making sure papers get delivered in a timely manner.	Sep 13, 2011 8:46 AM
169	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post ofices	Sep 13, 2011 8:45 AM
170	Competitive disadvantage. Loss of customer service, on both ends, us and our subscribers.	Sep 13, 2011 8:44 AM
171	We worry that they will send our papers to a larger distributing office and will delay delivery. We have enough problems getting them delivered in a timely fashion in our own area.	Sep 13, 2011 8:41 AM
172	Newspapers are not going to be delivered in a timely manner.	Sep 13, 2011 8:40 AM
173	That the post office would close and our newspaper would not be able to be delivered on a timely basis. Also our cash flow could be slowed due to longer delivery times form a more distant post office.	Sep 13, 2011 8:38 AM
174	6 day delivery. Our customers already deal with news which is 1 day old, and often 2 or 3 days old. Cutting out Saturday delivery will mean that customers will have to wait until Monday at the earliest to recieve their newspaper.	Sep 13, 2011 8:35 AM
175	Getting someone else in that is a hard-nosed know it all and is hard to deal with.	Sep 13, 2011 8:33 AM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

176	Exceptional Dispatch: Enables us & PO to provide quality service. USPS stays in business: It's a national asset.	Sep 13, 2011 8:33 AM
177	Being a small weekly newspaper, postal rate increases are always a problem, but there is not a day that goes by that we don't hear from someone about poor delivery service. We are concerned about constantly paying more for service that deteriorates daily.	Sep 13, 2011 8:32 AM
178	We need timely delivery to our subscribers. We must have confidence the newspaper will be DELIVERED ON TIME, EVERY TIME.	Sep 13, 2011 8:31 AM
179	Fixing Service Problems, because when people don't receive their paper in a timely manner, they cancel subscriptions.	Sep 13, 2011 8:29 AM
180	Saturday delivery would greatly effect our 100% mailed shopper and prompt delivery for insert customers. Direct mail is also a big threat.	Sep 13, 2011 8:28 AM
181	Losing six day delivery. It would be the first step down that slippery slope. Next we will lose Tuesday, then Thursday...Daily delivery will become a thing of the past. The postal service needs to get back to doing what it used to do best -- delivery. Get out of the Tour de France business. Stop the sponsorships and the advertising. Stop selling the trinkets and devote all resources to accurate, timely delivery.	Sep 13, 2011 8:27 AM
182	I worry about the timeliness of delivery of our publications if more changes occur.	Sep 13, 2011 8:26 AM
183	The newspaper mailing is my greatest concern. I don't know all the options if they close our post office.	Sep 13, 2011 8:24 AM
184	Service. Service impacts customer satisfaction which ultimately impacts our revenue	Sep 13, 2011 8:23 AM
185	Closing and/or removal of services from our local post office in the county seat. This post office has a large covered dock. The new entry point has no covered dock and is a 30 mile round trip while we drive by our county seat, 31097, and another post office 31035, both just 2 minutes away.	Sep 13, 2011 8:19 AM
186	Fixing current service problems for mail subscribers. Has been a huge issue for years and years.	Sep 13, 2011 8:13 AM
187	out-of-state readers consistently complain about poor service, have lost subscriptions over this.	Sep 13, 2011 8:11 AM
188	Without the service from the post office we will be forced to find alternative ways to deliver our paper. The community has come to expect our paper in the mail every week. Good postal service is getting to be rare and this has caused issues with the perception that the paper is not doing well or we don't know how to service our customers. We are a good customer of the USPS with over 37,000 mailed pieces each week.	Sep 13, 2011 8:06 AM
189	Preserving the 6 day mail delivery. We publish 6 issues per week - Monday thru Saturday. We are the only daily newspaper in our county. I am positive we would lose most of our mail subscriptions which would be devastating for our business.	Sep 13, 2011 8:06 AM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

190	Saturday delivery. we are a six day paper and just started in the mail . Football games are on Friday night and people don't want to wait till Monday to get the game story form the newspaper.	Sep 13, 2011 8:03 AM
191	Service problems. The quality of service continues to get worse at the larger distribution post offices. The local offices do a great job but the larger sites are not. It takes an average of 7-10 days to get a paper delivered 30 miles away, inside the same county.	Sep 13, 2011 7:59 AM
192	Keeping rates as low as possible. I pay over $80 a week to mail a 4 page paper. Postage is one of my biggest expenses. We are very low budget and any higher rates could sink us.	Sep 13, 2011 7:58 AM
193	6 day delivery AND exceptional dispatch.. we mail "same day" so exceptional is a must, plus we publish and mail 6 days a week	Sep 13, 2011 7:51 AM
194	Accessibility for delivery drop off.	Sep 13, 2011 7:48 AM
195	keeping rates low -- we've got enough challenges already	Sep 13, 2011 7:46 AM
196	EXceptional dispatch, Saturday delivery. My daily paper is delivered via USPS	Sep 13, 2011 7:43 AM
197	Loss of Saturday mail will force us out of the mail to another delivery system. Dropping Saturday delivery will make the USPS even more irrelevant.	Sep 13, 2011 7:43 AM
198	Fixing delivery problems. Speed of promised delivery is an issue. We are losing subscribers due to slow delivery.	Sep 13, 2011 7:42 AM
199	My greatest concern is that the core post offices in given zip code areas remain open and that staffing is sufficient to assure for expeditious delivery.	Sep 13, 2011 7:36 AM
200	Making sure the USPS stays in business because it is the most efficient method of delivery.	Sep 13, 2011 7:34 AM
201	Saturday delivery and closing of 68701 BMEU	Sep 13, 2011 7:34 AM
202	While I don't work for a newspaper, our household receives six weekly newspapers via mail from throughout Michigan. Most usually arrive on Friday or Saturday of the week of distribution, but it's not uncommon to have papers arrive more than a week after their distribution date. When we check with the newspaper circulation folks, they tell us this is a postal problem, which we believe is the case.	Sep 13, 2011 7:32 AM
203	Preserving 6 day mail delivery, including Saturdays - Our Sunday publication mails on Saturday morning.	Sep 13, 2011 7:29 AM
204	Loss of Saturday delivery	Sep 13, 2011 7:28 AM
205	Direct mail competition cuts into local advertising budgets.	Sep 13, 2011 7:25 AM
206	Six day mail. Necessary for the survival of many newspapers.	Sep 13, 2011 7:22 AM
207	I would have to say that would be a tie between making sure exception dispatch privilege survives and preserving 6 day delivery, especially Saturday, as our	Sep 13, 2011 7:22 AM shopper is published on Saturdays. We used to publish on Mondays, but after switching to Saturdays have seen a growth in advertising directly related to the Saturday publication date. Of course, we want the exceptional dispatch to survive to save money.

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

208	For my newspaper, which is a small weekly publication, I currently do not anticipate a closure that will directly affect where I drop my newspaper. Currently my biggest concern is delivery out of my area. This past year was by far the worst year I've had with delivery problems to subscribers out of state and out of my main area. It is causing me to lose subscribers as they do not want to pay to not receive their paper. Subscribers who in the past have not had problems did this year. Several "snow birds" were gone for 3-4 months and only received 2 -3 papers in that period of time.	Sep 13, 2011 7:21 AM
209	Making sure the USPS stays in business with six-day delivery because that is the only way we can deliver our product	Sep 13, 2011 7:20 AM
210	Need our main post office to stay open. We can understand why the smaller, community post offices should be closed. Why pay for additional upkeep of the offices and the additional salaries of the post masters plus the utilities.	Sep 13, 2011 7:15 AM
211	Fixing service problems both within service area and reaching distant readers. The cost cutting measures from our local post office delays papers being picked up by their truck and sent to other post offices for delivery. Our "out of county" mail sent on the dock until late in the day. We deliver our papers at night and especially for the Saturday paper they are not picked up until late Monday afternoon. I am losing several subscribers because it takes 4 to 7 days just to receive 1 issue.	Sep 13, 2011 7:03 AM
212	Saturday delivery is the most crucial element for us	Sep 13, 2011 6:59 AM
213	Saturday opening of P.O. We would have to consider reducing days of delivery or reinstate a Saturday independent carrier force.	Sep 13, 2011 6:46 AM
214	fixing problems reaching readaers outside our county and in our service area as these subscribers are the ones facing the most problems in receiving their papers in a timely manner.	Sep 13, 2011 6:43 AM
215	Making sure USPS stays in business. We can not afford to pay carriers in our large rural areas.	Sep 13, 2011 6:43 AM
216	Because we serve rural markets in Appalachia, we NEED access to delivery post offices in EVERY county. Lack of truly local DDU offices means increased cost and longer delivery times. USPS must provide every county an office so same day delivery remains a possibility. Otherwise, our already challenged industry will be forced to seek costlier, alternate delivery means, raising prices on some of Americans poorest citizens living in counties with high poverty rates.	Sep 13, 2011 6:41 AM
217	Making sure USPS stays in business. Subscriptions and revenue will be lost if the USPS eliminates Saturday delivery and that situation could be terminal to newspapers but keeping USPS in business at least gives newspapers an opportunity to make changes in an attempt to stay alive.	Sep 13, 2011 6:39 AM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

218	USPS needs to stay in business to provide a national delivery service for communications of and with governments. Competitive growth in business depends upon exchange of advertising, catalogs, remittances, legal notices. Until problems with hacking and identity theft through internet are solved, the USPS is essential for transfer of payments and as guarantor of clean business transactions. National news and sensational news are available through all sorts of media, but local news that effects everyday life comes only through newspapers. Newspapers are recognized unobtrusive source of local information and their delivery should receive priority, especially in thinly populated areas.	Sep 13, 2011 6:38 AM
219	all, the Po offers good, reliable delivery in a cost effective manner. If rates are forced to increase by closures etc. readers may not be able to afford to keep informed with what happens in their community. Its one step to further the national media and destroy community newspapers.	Sep 13, 2011 6:36 AM
220	The loss of Saturday delivery will really hurt us, as we are a weekly publication with a Thursday publishing day.	Sep 13, 2011 6:31 AM
221	Fixing serviuce problems reachihng readers outside our county. This is where our biggest issues are. Late delivery is becoming a real big issue with our subscribers. Lack of timely delivery affects which customers renew their subscriptions which effects our bottom line. If the farmer doesn't get his paper in timely manner he will stop subscribing. This could put this newspaper out of business.	Sep 13, 2011 6:27 AM
222	Our readers have come to expect timely delivery, which sometimes is a problem as the system currently stands. Any changes to the current system will likely make that promise impossible.	Sep 13, 2011 6:26 AM
223	Getting the newspaper to the readers	Sep 13, 2011 6:09 AM
224	Six day mail delivery; Weekender product is largest and most critical and without Saturday delivery our costs escalate dramatically and service level is reduced with a one-day carrier force.	Sep 13, 2011 6:08 AM
225	Making sure that newspapers have access to delivery post offices and preserving 6 day mail delivery, including Saturdays.	Sep 13, 2011 6:07 AM
226	Preserving 6 day mail delivery including Saturdays is our greatest concern at this time. Our product is mailed on Saturday. If the post office closes on Saturdays, then our customers will get their newspaper on Mondays...almost two days later	Sep 13, 2011 5:37 AM
227	Ensuring that we can use the post office to deliver our papers. We switched from independent contractor delivery to postal delivery several years ago. The move saved us thousands of dollars per month as well as virtually eliminated the many service and delivery problems we were having. The only downside was the loss of a pre-6 a.m. delivery, but the many benefits made the trade off worthwhile. Losing postal delivery could well kill our two daily newspapers. One more thought: Please encourage the USPS to look at our industry as a potential lifesaver. If they would become more newspaper friendly they may well find a huge revenue source in newspaper delivery. However, with our two daily papers, we find night and day differences in how we are treated by the post office. In	Sep 13, 2011 4:49 AM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

	Noblesville and Hamilton County Indiana, we are constantly jumping through hoops and such. It is very cumbersome. But in Crawfordsville and Montgomery County Indiana we have a great partnership with USPS and they are very easy to work with.
228	Saturday delivery, its when we are received by the reader.	Sep 13, 2011 4:06 AM
229	Service problems	Sep 13, 2011 3:31 AM
230	Access to delivery post offices and exceptional dispatch...with out these two smaller newspapers may not survive.	Sep 13, 2011 3:19 AM
231	Please see #7.	Sep 13, 2011 2:44 AM
232	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery P.O.	Sep 12, 2011 8:19 PM
233	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices and preserving 6 day mail delivery, including Saturdays	Sep 12, 2011 7:55 PM
234	rates	Sep 12, 2011 6:37 PM
235	Direct mail threats have greater impact on us than Postal concerns as our distribution system is roughly 99% Contractor-based and has minimal involvement with the USPS.	Sep 12, 2011 6:12 PM
236	making sure that Newspapers have access t delievery .I cover a vary vast area and the options of delivery aare not good other than the postal service	Sep 12, 2011 6:10 PM
237	service problems to distant readers	Sep 12, 2011 5:53 PM
238	Making sure USPS stays in business. Our postal business does not seem on the list of things anyone wants to pick up. For us the post office, or some similar means of delivery, is critical.	Sep 12, 2011 5:41 PM
239	Preserving 6 day mail delivery, incl. Saturdays.	Sep 12, 2011 5:17 PM
240	We already receive terrible service on out-of-county deliveries. I fear this will make it worse.	Sep 12, 2011 5:15 PM
241	Make sure the USPS stays in business. Without PO delivery, our business model will not survive.	Sep 12, 2011 5:02 PM
242	Keeping rates down. I live in a town under 1000 people and people already feel the pinch, it would be hard to raise my rates during this time to make up for higher postage costs.	Sep 12, 2011 5:01 PM
243	We are very concerned about the inability to reach our customers with timely news. We used to go to press at 4 p.m. Wednesday and have the papers delivered in our two-state trade area by noon the next day. Now we have to go to press by 11 a.m. and do not have the same quality of delivery. We have lost more than 25 percent of our subscribers---much caused by our inability to deliver a timely, good quality product.	Sep 12, 2011 4:24 PM
244	Access to delivery post offices - It would be a mess if we couldn't enter our mail	Sep 12, 2011 3:55 PM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

here. The majority of our mail is in-county and goes through our local post office which is a county seat PO in a town of 50,000. It could probably serve many of the smaller communities within the area by having those carriers work out of the PO here. In some cases, that would simplify our work since we do Exceptional Dispatch for those smaller offices.

245	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices, 6 day mail delivery, including Saturdays. and keeping rates as low as possible.	Sep 12, 2011 3:43 PM
246	Saturday delivery will hurt weekend publication. Timely delivery to make sure we do not get flooded with calls.	Sep 12, 2011 3:33 PM
247	all of the above	Sep 12, 2011 3:30 PM
248	Fixing service problems....We get so many complaints on a daily basis about poor delivery service and it's from our mail subscribers. If we can get the newspapers to the post offices by our deadline, shouldn't they have to meet a delivery deadline for our customers? A customer living less than 35 miles from our main office, should not have to wait a week to receive their paper.	Sep 12, 2011 3:23 PM
249	The overall cost of mailing and the hassle we have to go through with the paperwork.	Sep 12, 2011 3:19 PM
250	A Republican dominated Congress allowing the Postal Service to go bankrupt and fail. We need postal delivery for our newspapers. NNA taking positions that would cause USPS to go broke faster is counterproductive to our long-term best interests.	Sep 12, 2011 3:17 PM
251	Making sure exceptional dispatch survives -- otherwise my papers will be sent to an out-of-county (and notoriously inefficient) big city PO; then returned to a regional PO in our area, then to the more rural POs. Next day delivery will be stretched to 3-4 days -- and the paper will be toast.	Sep 12, 2011 3:12 PM
252	USPS service is so bad, I'm not sure it needs to survive.	Sep 12, 2011 3:12 PM
253	Access to delivery post offices Exceptional delivery privilege survival	Sep 12, 2011 3:11 PM
254	Keeping rates as low as possible.	Sep 12, 2011 3:10 PM
255	keeping rates low. our costs continue to skyrocket	Sep 12, 2011 3:10 PM
256	access to a post office within a reasonable distance from our newspaper is my biggest concern. I am concerned I can't get the papers to the different post offices in time so they papers will be delivered on time.	Sep 12, 2011 3:07 PM
257	As I also am in charge of the mailing ... these closures bother me along with the rest of the staff. If we loose enough advertising and subscriptions then we also take the chance of going out of business. If we're not in business, then I'm out of a job ... yes it all concerns me, but I am positive that someone someplace will figure out something to do to find a solution to this problem.	Sep 12, 2011 3:06 PM
258	We have many subscribers in the St. Louis area that have delayed or non-existent service for our newspaper. It has become a major issue in zip codes starting with 630- No one at the postal service seems to provide a valid response	Sep 12, 2011 3:03 PM as to why. We have lost subscribers to this issue and issue many refunds. Also out-of-state subscribers sometimes do not receive papers for up to 2 weeks. I myself, attempted receiving the paper in Denver Colorado and would sometimes receive 3 issues at once.

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

259	Making sure exceptional dispatch privilege survives. If newspapers were to enter papers into their primary post offices, it will take days for subscribers to get their papers; especially if it enters the KCMO black hole.	Sep 12, 2011 3:02 PM
260	Preserving 6 day mail and keeping rates low as possible	Sep 12, 2011 3:02 PM
261	Service problems - I receive complaints every week about out-of-state papers not getting delivered in a timely manner. Some subscribers receive two or three weekly papers on the same day. They should do better than this and I wouldn't mind paying more if the service was better.	Sep 12, 2011 2:57 PM
262	Complete failure of the postal system, leaving us to deliver our own product	Sep 12, 2011 2:56 PM
263	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. Losing our delivery post office would create a problem for our business and for the entire community. Driving to another P.O. would result in our spending more time and money to get our newspapers into the postal delivery system, and could also result in a delay in delivery.	Sep 12, 2011 2:53 PM
264	The postal service in our area does such a poor job now, closing any of our post offices I think would be detrimental. Some of our customers less than 20 miles away don't receive their paper for 7 to 10 days.	Sep 12, 2011 2:51 PM
265	Stopping delivery on Saturday is my greatest concern due to loss of customers and their dissatisfaction.	Sep 12, 2011 2:49 PM
266	Out of area delivery remains a concern, but cost tops the priority list.	Sep 12, 2011 2:42 PM
267	Access. Periodicals permit. Difficulty in getting papers to P.O.	Sep 12, 2011 2:40 PM
268	Keeping the postal service - have always believed we should not have tried to privatize the postal service back in 1971 - This is an important part of our country and our founding fathers thought it was important enough to mention it in the constitution.	Sep 12, 2011 2:37 PM
269	MAny of our readers live outside the boundaries of the state. Those readers who living in adjoining states wait up to 5 days for their paper. Some at the coastal states take up to 12 days. If the mail service is only five days, that would cut worker hours back to five days and adding a couple more days before delivery in many cases.	Sep 12, 2011 2:36 PM
270	Generally, we are concerned about the viability of the USPS because it is our primary delivery source. Without the USPS, we would be forced to return to optional delivery methods such as local carriers. For out-of-state readers, we are encouraging the use of our e-editions, and with some success.	Sep 12, 2011 2:35 PM
271	We're a small city with only one post office. Obviously, we feel the USPS is the best option for our product delivery - but also our community's growth potential	Sep 12, 2011 2:33 PM requires a local post office.

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

272	Making sure USPS stays in business. We are located on the Navajo Reservation and many of the post offices here are located in remote rural areas that many people use for important and valuable business, personal and professional. These post offices serve a population that has to drive many miles to conduct business, shop and go to hospitals and clinics and schools. Having them close will hurt the people in many ways.	Sep 12, 2011 2:30 PM
273	Affordable rates and good delivery service are our greatest concerns. Postal rates have increased and we have seen slower delivery of our newspapers. More of the burden of filling out forms, sacking, and general mail preparation has fallen on newspaper employees.s	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
274	Having USPS available for delivery of our papers.	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
275	Low rates -- sorry, but profit is essential.	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
276	1. Closings of post offices where perhaps 2 or 3 dozen papers are delivered to box holders. 2. Closings of post offices through which any other subscribers get their papers. 3. Terrible service to distant subscribers. Saturday postal service seems doomed, and I understand why, but the problem with very slow distant delivery go far beyond Saturday service. The consolidation of regional mail distribution hubs appears to be significant in this problem.	Sep 12, 2011 2:28 PM
277	6 day delivery. Weekend product is our largest product. Couldn't move a day for advertising and loss of local sports coverage and having 3 days without a newspaper would hinder local news coverage	Sep 12, 2011 2:26 PM
278	Access to delivery post offices, and exceptional dispatch	Sep 12, 2011 2:25 PM
279	Timely delivery and unfair rates provided to direct mail are my greatest concern	Sep 12, 2011 2:23 PM
280	Making sure exceptional dispatch privilege survives in order to get our newspapers to the customers while it is still news.	Sep 12, 2011 2:23 PM
281	Access to delivery post offices -- because residents and businesses use the local post offices for services; new competitive threats from direct mail because the sales flyers compete with local advertisements and flyers in the newspaper.	Sep 12, 2011 2:19 PM
282	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. Our county has a total population less than 3000. Many areas in county received their paper after it has been sent to a larger distribution center out of county and then sent back to the county. It is an insane waste and delay which impacts our ability to provide news to our community.	Sep 12, 2011 2:19 PM
283	We are not overly concerned with USPS delivery of the Daily. Keeping the USPS operational for mailing invoices and receiving payments. We also have a large direct mail shopper that we use to compete against direct mail - however we'd love it if the USPS dropped bulk mail.	Sep 12, 2011 2:19 PM
284	Making sure we have access to delivery post offices at a reasonable price. We are a tiny newspaper. It will not take much to make it untenable to stay in	Sep 12, 2011 2:17 PM business. What is not mentioned in this survey is the absurd amount of bureaucratic paperwork, rules and regulations reminiscent of the federal government which this so-called privatized institution can't seem to shake. It's a big reason why it's in trouble in the first place.

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

285	Six day service because the newspapers have a tendency to have a poor delivery time now with one more day closed it would be terrible.	Sep 12, 2011 2:17 PM
286	Maintaining competitive prices so that newspapers may continue to exercise freedom of the press and information not found anywhere else.	Sep 12, 2011 2:16 PM
287	Lack of information and services to those most isolated that cannot afford computers and email, or are not accessible in their areas.	Sep 12, 2011 2:16 PM
288	Reduction in hours and/or services at our post office would hurt our business, as we mail up to 1/3 of our paid subscribers and currently have delivery on the same day as carrier delivery. We also need to have our weekend papers delivered on Saturday. Post Office is Parsons, KS 67357	Sep 12, 2011 2:15 PM
289	Fixing service problems because if the service is too poor the readers will not renew the subscriptions.	Sep 12, 2011 2:14 PM
290	Competitive threats for preprints. Postal Service is conducting workshops for its every door delivery service.	Sep 12, 2011 2:14 PM
291	keeping rates low..it seems they keep going up and up	Sep 12, 2011 2:13 PM
292	Pending full-day delay of delivery service to local areas.	Sep 12, 2011 2:10 PM
293	Keeping the Post Office open at least 5 days a week.	Sep 12, 2011 2:07 PM
294	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices and keeping costs low as possible -- both of these issues are crucial to keeping my newspaper viable.	Sep 12, 2011 2:06 PM
295	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. Weekly newspapers will have a tough time staying in business if their main source of postal sending is taken away from them.	Sep 12, 2011 2:06 PM
296	Our greatest concern is the loss of timely delivery of our newspaper.	Sep 12, 2011 2:06 PM
297	The postal service is crucial to the economy, the culture, the life of rural America. And rural America is crucial to the life of America; without it, we are consigned to the freeway, the mall, the office park, and thus to insignificance.	Sep 12, 2011 2:04 PM
298	Eliminating Saturday delivery would seriously affect delivery times in our area.	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM
299	None	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM
300	Because of the nature of my business making sure that newspapers have access to delivery post office. Making sure that the pricing does not push out businesses such as mine. We are small in nature and more expense may make it prohibitive. Thus more loss overall to the Postal system. Pay attention to the delivery. Right now delivery is much longer than it was 20 years ago. Not better	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM as it is supposed to be. When papers can lay for 48 hours in each post office the mail passes through, it is much too long. Technology has given us mailings sanctioned by the post office, but which do not get the job done, partially because no one understands distances between stops. Those making the rules have to understand the geography of an area or state or region, before setting up regulations or making closures.

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

301	Making sure the USPS stays in business - without them we will not survive.	Sep 12, 2011 2:02 PM
302	The last one... if USPS is gone, our distribution costs would likely soar and our subscriber list would be shorter... Post offices need to think outside the box, like maybe drive-up service like fast food places...	Sep 12, 2011 2:01 PM
303	rates	Sep 12, 2011 2:00 PM
304	The rates. They affect so much of our distribution strategy for various products. Please help with this issue.	Sep 12, 2011 2:00 PM
305	All of these things are important to us as a small newspaper (and the industry as a whole). We NEED the post office to operate more efficiently than they currently are, a reduction in progress/standards could be catastrophic. Keeping rates reasonable so readers/advertisers do not see an increase is also very important.	Sep 12, 2011 1:59 PM
306	Service problems outside the county.	Sep 12, 2011 1:57 PM
307	Maintain access and keeping the USPS in business is the greatest concern, because their financial problems are serious and immediate. I'd rather have them as an option than have no options at all as we transition to full electronic delivery. It is a little disgruntling however, to know that we've spent a bunch of $ with the USPS over the years and never got anything but non-delivery threats if our check didn't beat our papers to the post office, and I learned last week of a 3% discount program the USPS put together specifically for direct mailers. Pretty much a kick in the crotch to newspapers & shoppers in my opinion, to give discounts to our competitors when, as I said, we never got so much as a thank you for doing business with USPS.	Sep 12, 2011 1:57 PM
308	6 day mail delivery - we rely very heavily on postal delivery in our rural area. Adding Saturday carrier delivery will be very costly for us.	Sep 12, 2011 1:57 PM
309	Making sure USPS stays in business	Sep 12, 2011 1:56 PM
310	Subsidizing the USPS. The USPS will never become fiscally sound as long as it can depend on Congress to bail it out.	Sep 12, 2011 1:51 PM
311	Keeping rates as low as possible	Sep 12, 2011 1:49 PM
312	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. We struggle, financially, and don't need the added expense of having to truck newspapers to a more distant office. We need to fight, as best we can, to anything that increases our expenses.	Sep 12, 2011 1:46 PM
313	Without the USPS....we are "out of business".	Sep 12, 2011 1:44 PM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

314	Quality of delivery. We have lost many subscribers in the past few years because they get papers late (two to three weeks in some cases), or not at all.	Sep 12, 2011 1:43 PM
315	Beyond keeping them in business, it would be making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices, ensuring same day delivery within the market.	Sep 12, 2011 1:37 PM
316	All area marked are big concerns for our community as we have a large number of seniors who don't drive.	Sep 12, 2011 1:36 PM
317	6 day mail Delivery	Sep 12, 2011 1:35 PM
318	Keeping USPS in business.	Sep 12, 2011 1:35 PM
319	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices because if the delivery post office is not available, I'm not sure what actions we would have to take to get our paper to the subscribers in a timely manner. This actually does not apply to the above question but is a gripe of mine concerning the postal service. When they are in such dire straits concerning finances, why then do they spend the money to publish four color promotional materials. I realize that they are trying to keep the postal service in front of the public but I think there has to be cheaper ways in which the postal service can promote themselves without spending the kind of money that is needed for four color publications.	Sep 12, 2011 1:35 PM
320	Exceptional dispatch and access to delivery offices - without those, we would have a circulation and accounting nightmare.	Sep 12, 2011 1:34 PM
321	My biggest concern is that the postal service will start pushing direct mail harder and take advertisers and insert advertisers from newspapers.	Sep 12, 2011 1:33 PM
322	Making sure exceptional dispatch privilege survives for my local community.	Sep 12, 2011 1:32 PM
323	Our weekend paper goes into mailboxes on Saturday. Loss of 6-day would require a major restructuring.	Sep 12, 2011 1:32 PM
324	Saturday mail. The public does not understand or appreciate the problems this would create for the business community. There are newspapers with Saturday editions. Who speaks for them? The U.S. Chamber of Commerce ought to join us on this one!	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM
325	both are of equal interest	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM
326	Access to local delivery post office	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM
327	Rates.	Sep 12, 2011 1:30 PM
328	Access to delivery post offices	Sep 12, 2011 1:28 PM
329	Six-day delivery; if we lose Saturday, we will have to go to a total new six-day delivery force and not use the USPS at all. Saturday closure might as mean closing down the whole thing - shut down the USPS.	Sep 12, 2011 1:28 PM
330	The post office may be forced to deliver mail just three days a week, Monday-Wednesday-Friday.	Sep 12, 2011 1:23 PM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

331	Postage costs.	Sep 12, 2011 1:23 PM
332	Timely delivery	Sep 12, 2011 1:19 PM
333	With post office closing, we will have no means of distributing our newspaper on time. We would have to make our deadline earlier and change our press time if possible. We would also lose out on breaking news, particularly with governmental offices that frequently hold meetings on Mondays and Tuesdays or make important announcements on those days, which would then because our extreme deadline.	Sep 12, 2011 1:16 PM
334	Preserving 6-day mail. They have problems delivering to out-of-town customers now, can't imagine the USPS reducing work days, even one day.	Sep 12, 2011 1:16 PM
335	Saturday delivery.....	Sep 12, 2011 1:10 PM
336	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices	Sep 12, 2011 1:07 PM
337	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. Developing the newspaper's own delivery system would become far more expensive adding more burden to the newspaper in tough times.	Sep 12, 2011 12:59 PM
338	Cost, convenience, but most important attitude.	Sep 12, 2011 12:54 PM
339	Newspapers have access to delivery post offices	Sep 12, 2011 12:54 PM
340	Survival, followed by timely delivery.	Sep 12, 2011 12:47 PM
341	Preserving 6 day mail delivery, including Saturdays	Sep 12, 2011 12:39 PM
342	The rising cost and dwindling quality of service provide the postal service. The lack of understanding of their own rules and regulations. If they can't reduces their pension problems none of these short term fixes will make any difference anyway.	Sep 12, 2011 12:38 PM
343	Guarding against new competitive threats from direct mail.	Sep 12, 2011 12:36 PM
344	the current delivery of our newspapers to our out-of-state customers is totally unacceptable. I can't imagine what it will be like if they start closing post offices. It takes a week to get from Scotland, South Dakota to Fremont, Nebraska. It is approximately 200 miles between the two locations.	Sep 12, 2011 12:29 PM
345	Service outside of the county is horrible and has cost us business and readership, which will continue if the service issues are not fixed. This will lead to a huge loss of business for the post office as well.	Sep 12, 2011 12:27 PM
346	Making sure USPS stays in business - which will help us preserve, and improve, all the other items mentioned.	Sep 12, 2011 12:24 PM
347	ALL OF OUR SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE BY MAIL. WE DO NOT HAVE HOME DELIVERY. IF THE POST OFFICE CLOSES WE WILL NOT BE ABLE TO DELIVER BECAUSE WE ARE IN A MOUNTAINOUS, SNOWY REGION. ALSO, ONE-THIRD OF OUR SUBSCRIBERS LIVE OUT OF THE COUNTY AND STATE.	Sep 12, 2011 12:24 PM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

348	Definitely service problems as well as rates are a concern; we're a Wed. & Sat. publication so the Sat. closing is also a concern	Sep 12, 2011 12:23 PM
349	our paper currently takes 7+ days to get from ND to Az. The made 2 changes in the past 3 years, still no improvement	Sep 12, 2011 12:19 PM
350	ultimately, ends up being keeping USPS going because we would be hard-pressed to come up with any kind of alternative	Sep 12, 2011 12:18 PM
351	Making sure that 6 day mail delivery is kept. In the rural parts of South Dakota the loss of Saturday mail would be devastating to our next day delivery.	Sep 12, 2011 12:15 PM
352	The two I checked. That is the bottom line - preserving local service and keeping rates affordable.	Sep 12, 2011 12:10 PM
353	Preserving 6 day mail delivery. Without six day mail delivery, my business will stand to take a double hit. 1. Mailing papers 2. Cash flow being able to send and receive billings and payments. I am working as fast as I can towards an automated online bookkeeping service because we are little weekly papers without lots of extra cash. We need to keep the cash coming in and out and if that can't happen with the post office, I can	Sep 12, 2011 12:06 PM
354	We are prepared to leave the USPS entirely if they drop 6 day delivery -- one delivery day is as important as every other delivery day. If six day delivery is dropped, we will plan to remove all other customer bills from the mail stream, too, switching to electronic transactions. The consequence of our small mail delivery loss will be many thousands of dollars of postal revenue loss for the USPS.	Sep 12, 2011 12:05 PM
355	Service Problems . . . hardly a week goes by that subscribers do not receive their paper. What happens to them, the USPS says that they don't throw them away but what happens to them, there must be a very large pile of newspapers somewhere!	Sep 12, 2011 12:00 PM
356	Preserving Saturday delivery	Sep 12, 2011 11:52 AM
357	making sure we continue to have access to a delivery post office because we have no other way to get our papers to readers	Sep 12, 2011 11:51 AM
358	Greatest concern is if USPS goes away, what will happen to delivery costs? On the other hand, if USPS raises its rates in order to make up its deficit, will it make it impractical to use for delivery?	Sep 12, 2011 11:49 AM
359	Keeping rates low. We publish our weekly newspapers and have had to consolidate our operation in order to keep up with rising costs, particularly delivery costs.	Sep 12, 2011 11:47 AM
360	MAKING SURE NEWSPAPERS HAVE ACCESS TO DELIVERY POST OFFICES	Sep 12, 2011 11:47 AM
361	Service to readers outside county but within service area	Sep 12, 2011 11:45 AM
362	That the PO will go out of business and I will have to shut down.	Sep 12, 2011 11:44 AM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

363	Preserving 6-day delivery. This affects almost all the newspapers in our company.	Sep 12, 2011 11:42 AM
364	The Saturday delivery because right now we publish 3 days a week and Sat. issue is too late now.	Sep 12, 2011 11:37 AM
365	Exceptional dispatch privileges. I don't want the USPS to send papers to a giant FSS machine on the other side of the state,	Sep 12, 2011 11:37 AM
366	In-county rate stability is my greatest concern. With exceptional dispatch and walk sequencing, the postal service's cost of delivery of our newspaper has to be quite low. There is a gap now in what we pay the USPS and what it would cost us to implement our own carrier force, but if it narrows or goes away, we'll have to look elsewhere.	Sep 12, 2011 11:37 AM
367	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices	Sep 12, 2011 11:36 AM
368	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices is my greatest concern. Without this, we simply cannot survive. Mail delivery will be extremely slow if we cannot use our local offices. Our county is served by two sectional centers. We are the only community in one of them. If removing rural routes is done in other communities we will be forced to haul our papers to three much larger communities to get exceptional dispatch. I don't think we can do this and still make all three delivery schedules in a timely manner. The post office can immediately improve its revenue stream by forbidding the inclusion of inserts in mailed newspapers. These should pay the per piece rate and not piggy back on newspapers' rates. I realize most NNA members will disagree with this, but this practice is robbing the post office of significant dollars and threatening newspapers' existence. We need to decide if we are in the newspaper business or just providing a convenient "cover" for advertisers.	Sep 12, 2011 11:32 AM
369	Rising costs and lowering service. As I've said in the past, every solution the postal service comes up with only makes their problems worse. Every day mail is delayed or the cost is increased drives more people to online alternatives and hastens the demise of the postal service.	Sep 12, 2011 11:32 AM
370	Efficiency!	Sep 12, 2011 11:30 AM
371	Service is not sustainable in many portions of our subscription base and even though our subscription is only $28 annual several long time customers have dropped their subscription. It would seem all of the automation that has been implemented does not keep service good.	Sep 12, 2011 11:29 AM
372	Saturday delivery is a concern. Many of our readers prefer the Saturday morning newspaper because it is part of their routine. They work during the week and prefer to catch up on the week's news on the weekend in preparation for the coming week.	Sep 12, 2011 11:28 AM
373	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. If papers are sent to Des Moines to come back to our county, we will have erratic service for sure.	Sep 12, 2011 11:26 AM
374	Making sure USPS stays in business. It's the lifeblood of democracy.	Sep 12, 2011 11:25 AM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

375	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices.	Sep 12, 2011 11:24 AM
376	6 day delivery	Sep 12, 2011 11:23 AM
377	Having access to delivery post office, because we have no other way to delivery our newspaper.	Sep 12, 2011 11:21 AM
378	I pay more money to mail my newspapers out of state and it takes sometimes 10 days to get to the customer! Also I have no local place to mail my newspapers - I have to go out of county - costing more in fuel!	Sep 12, 2011 11:21 AM
379	Guarding against new competitive rates from direct mail. New competitors are killing our business. Old competitors under government monopoly might just drive the final nail in the coffin.	Sep 12, 2011 11:19 AM
380	see above	Sep 12, 2011 11:18 AM
381	The loss of exceptional dispatch post offices within our market.	Sep 12, 2011 11:17 AM
382	Keeping rates as low as possible is critical to our business, because as a small weekly newspaper we do not utilize carriers for distribution. We have store racks and mail subscribers. Keeping postage rates as low as possible helps us to keep subscriber rates lower, which maintains our circulation and enhances our advertising efforts. Conversely, higher postage rates eventually must be passed along to the subscriber, which adversely impacts our circulation and distribution.	Sep 12, 2011 11:17 AM
383	Fixing service problems and interface with PO	Sep 12, 2011 11:16 AM
384	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices.	Sep 12, 2011 11:15 AM
385	I am concerned that service in the area will suffer, because the 605 center is slow already.	Sep 12, 2011 11:14 AM
386	fixing service problems for distant as well as local deliveries	Sep 12, 2011 11:12 AM
387	Fixing service problems. Even implementing Max's delivery suggestions we have some delays in delivery within the state.	Sep 12, 2011 11:11 AM
388	Service problems. That is why people drop subscriptions. They are tired of waiting for old news. We live at the corner of three 3-digit zip code areas -- 504, 505, and 500. USPS does a bad job of getting mail between the 3-digit areas. We get overnight service in our own area, but up to 5 day service to go 18 miles into the neighboring 3-digit area.	Sep 12, 2011 11:09 AM
389	I'm most concerned with the exceptional dispatch issue and having access to the post office to drop papers. If I can't get my papers to my subscribers, my business can't survive.	Sep 12, 2011 11:09 AM
390	The cost of using the postal services verses the benefit to the newspaper of using the service is way out of whack. We are paying more for services and receiving less service. I am okay with paying less for less or paying more for more. I am not okay with paying substantially more for less. Lack of service with a high price tag is my primary concern.	Sep 12, 2011 11:05 AM

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

391	Preserving six day mail service. Under the plan to reduce service, a letter mailed in Oologah after 4:30 p.m. Friday would not even enter the mail stream until 6 or 7 p.m. Monday. Since our schedule forces us to bill at the end of the week, this would create a significant cash flow problem. Mail from Oologah, even that for local delivery, is trucked to Tulsa for processing. Since USPS is talking about allowing longer delivery time, even for first class, the results could be disastrous for any small business using mail for delivery.	Sep 12, 2011 11:03 AM
392	Delivery problems have plagued us. There is no consistency and we get the blame and lose money from customers not renewing subscriptions as well as loss of ad revenue.	Sep 12, 2011 11:01 AM
393	Making sure newspapers have access to delivery post offices. I think this is critical for the timely, accurate delivery of local papers. I have written an editorial on how the postal cuts would affect our rural county were 2 out of six post offices are slated for closure. If you would like a copy, please e-mail me.	Sep 12, 2011 11:00 AM
394	Delivery service. I used to send 200 papers to Florida in the winter, now it is less than ten. Many call to suspend their subscriptions until they return in the spring. Unfortunately many that suspend their subscriptions, often let them lapse and don't renew them.	Sep 12, 2011 10:59 AM
395	Keeping rates low and making sure we have access to delivery post offices. We are just now in a position to consider mailing our papers and the timing is not very good for our business.	Sep 12, 2011 10:59 AM
396	Not a week goes by that someone does not mention that their paper never arrives, or arrives weeks later. I have been told sometimes 2-3 papers arrive on the same day. I mail them the same time every week. I simply want my subscribers to actually get their paper. It galls me to pay more and more and more and still have to convince people that I am truly sending them a paper when they call. I even mail a separate paper 1st class in an envelope to two women who have such a hard problem. I'm losing money every week doing that for them, and I still can't guarantee their papers arrive.	Sep 12, 2011 10:57 AM
397	Fixing service problems reaching distant readers. The later the delivery, the less satisfied the reader. And, many have established readership patterns where they prefer the paper in hand vs. electronic editions.	Sep 12, 2011 10:57 AM
398	Exceptional dispatch and outside county is critical for us. Our community lies at the intersection of four counties with a fifth nearby.	Sep 12, 2011 10:55 AM
399	Keeping rates as low as possible. If rates continue to rise, we will be forced to hire our own people to do local delivery and we may be forced to make out-of-town readers get all their news from our website. We spend about $2,200 each week mailing our three papers and our shopper.	Sep 12, 2011 10:54 AM
400	The USPS continues to increase rates for newspapers, most of the time without actually implementing a rate change. The latest increase for our newspapers was the change of our post office designation from a DDU to a None on line A1 of our periodical report. This increased our postage $1000 per year. Before that it was the "droop test" which barred us from using automation rates on our papers. Other issues are post masters requiring that small newspapers use the	Sep 12, 2011 10:51 AM postal wizard rather than certified software reports.

Q9. Which of the above is your greatest concern and why?

401	Having access to a near location. Next one would be 45 miles away	Sep 12, 2011 10:50 AM
402	USPS stays in business	Sep 12, 2011 10:43 AM
403	Making sure we have access to delivery post offices. Of course, it would be detrimental to our business if we couldn't mail to our subscribers. In addition, I would say making sure the postal personnel are trained and CARE about their jobs, not just getting a paycheck and pension. Our rates continue to escalate but service declines.	Sep 12, 2011 10:41 AM
404	Making sure the Post Office stays in business b/c we are a weekly community newspaper and the Post Office not only delivers our newspapers, but is also a hub for business. Foot traffic in our business (office supplies and print shop is included) and others will deteriorate. What's left of our downtown will barely survive, if at all.	Sep 12, 2011 10:32 AM
405	Making sure service is of high quality. Without service, none of the rest of it will matter and USPS won't survive.	Sep 12, 2011 10:25 AM

Q10. Please provide your name.

1	Joe Moss	Oct 3, 2011 12:59 PM
2	Chris McCarthy	Oct 3, 2011 8:20 AM
3	carolyn ashford	Sep 26, 2011 12:12 PM
4	Treca Carter	Sep 22, 2011 2:55 PM
5	Scott Richardson	Sep 20, 2011 12:39 PM
6	Brinn Clayton	Sep 20, 2011 8:46 AM
7	Dan Thalmann	Sep 19, 2011 11:43 PM
8	Eddie Dodd	Sep 19, 2011 7:06 PM
9	Cindy Hanner	Sep 18, 2011 7:26 PM
10	Mary Huber	Sep 18, 2011 11:04 AM
11	Patty Newton	Sep 17, 2011 9:37 PM
12	Mary Helle, publisher	Sep 16, 2011 2:51 PM
13	Robin R. Handy	Sep 16, 2011 1:18 PM
14	Barbara Bobo	Sep 16, 2011 1:01 PM
15	Terrie W. Gonzalez	Sep 16, 2011 11:16 AM
16	Ted Almen	Sep 16, 2011 11:11 AM
17	Jim Smilie	Sep 16, 2011 10:57 AM
18	Louise Red Corn	Sep 16, 2011 8:17 AM
19	Pete Jones	Sep 16, 2011 6:41 AM
20	Janine Kock	Sep 15, 2011 4:56 PM
21	Deb Ruiz	Sep 15, 2011 4:43 PM
22	Greg Viergutz	Sep 15, 2011 3:41 PM
23	John Poirier	Sep 15, 2011 3:03 PM
24	Bill Walter	Sep 15, 2011 2:52 PM
25	Alesha Henley	Sep 15, 2011 2:26 PM
26	Carmin Ball Office Manager	Sep 15, 2011 1:09 PM
27	Jenay Tate	Sep 15, 2011 12:56 PM

Q10. Please provide your name.

28	Julia Smith	Sep 15, 2011 12:47 PM
29	Joy Monopoli	Sep 15, 2011 12:21 PM
30	Zonelle Cox Rainbolt	Sep 15, 2011 12:19 PM
31	Vicki Dorn	Sep 15, 2011 12:16 PM
32	Larry Willis	Sep 15, 2011 11:56 AM
33	Dawn Mathis	Sep 15, 2011 11:52 AM
34	Christine Williams	Sep 15, 2011 11:15 AM
35	Terry Carlisle	Sep 15, 2011 11:11 AM
36	Dan Branyon	Sep 15, 2011 10:27 AM
37	Judy Whitaker	Sep 15, 2011 9:11 AM
38	Jill Friesz	Sep 15, 2011 8:58 AM
39	Travis Theobald	Sep 15, 2011 8:25 AM
40	Kenneth Jones	Sep 15, 2011 8:18 AM
41	Teresa Hatfield-Barger	Sep 15, 2011 8:17 AM
42	Allison Orwig	Sep 15, 2011 8:01 AM
43	Stacia Thompson Circulation Manager	Sep 15, 2011 7:56 AM
44	Ginny Heth	Sep 15, 2011 7:53 AM
45	Barbara King	Sep 15, 2011 7:23 AM
46	Mimi Maddock	Sep 15, 2011 6:58 AM
47	Kathy Boswell Circulation Manager Tullahoma News A Division of Lakeway Publishers, Inc.	Sep 15, 2011 5:37 AM
48	Carolyn Jordan	Sep 14, 2011 7:07 PM
49	Mary Boma	Sep 14, 2011 4:05 PM
50	Joe Stagner	Sep 14, 2011 3:31 PM
51	Michael Williams	Sep 14, 2011 3:27 PM
52	Tom Stevens	Sep 14, 2011 2:53 PM
53	Gary Spurgeon	Sep 14, 2011 2:52 PM
54	Philip G. Conger, editor and publisher	Sep 14, 2011 2:47 PM

Q10. Please provide your name.

55	Tim Stratton	Sep 14, 2011 2:34 PM
56	Stan Stamper	Sep 14, 2011 2:22 PM
57	Brian Blackley	Sep 14, 2011 2:15 PM
58	Janet Reed	Sep 14, 2011 1:52 PM
59	William A. Napper	Sep 14, 2011 1:18 PM
60	Robin Wunderlich	Sep 14, 2011 12:33 PM
61	April Jackson	Sep 14, 2011 12:26 PM
62	Allan Burke, Publisher Emeritus	Sep 14, 2011 12:09 PM
63	Jessica Giard, editor	Sep 14, 2011 12:09 PM
64	Dave Wood	Sep 14, 2011 11:48 AM
65	Angela L. Damery	Sep 14, 2011 11:47 AM
66	Joe Pitt	Sep 14, 2011 11:40 AM
67	Gayle Van Genderen and J.P. Studeny Jr.	Sep 14, 2011 11:40 AM
68	Gerald Harris	Sep 14, 2011 11:34 AM
69	Marcia & Tom Johnson	Sep 14, 2011 11:30 AM
70	Jessee Middick	Sep 14, 2011 11:04 AM
71	Tom Latonis	Sep 14, 2011 10:45 AM
72	Sandy Dodson	Sep 14, 2011 10:10 AM
73	Jerry Clarke	Sep 14, 2011 10:00 AM
74	Michael Willard	Sep 14, 2011 9:45 AM
75	Bill Woodall	Sep 14, 2011 9:25 AM
76	Harold Gleason	Sep 14, 2011 9:25 AM
77	Rhonda Humble	Sep 14, 2011 9:21 AM
78	Dayva Spitzer Editor Sayre Record and Beckham County Democrat	Sep 14, 2011 9:19 AM
79	Robert W. Wilson	Sep 14, 2011 8:37 AM
80	Thomas Kocal, Publisher	Sep 14, 2011 8:35 AM
81	Harley Deutsch, Publisher	Sep 14, 2011 8:35 AM

Q10. Please provide your name.

82	Matt Adelman	Sep 14, 2011 8:31 AM
83	Brad Hicks	Sep 14, 2011 7:38 AM
84	mel rhodes	Sep 14, 2011 7:10 AM
85	Greg Zyla, Publisher, The Daily & Sunday review, Towanda, Pa. 18840.	Sep 14, 2011 7:09 AM
86	Frank Datta, Editor Wibaux Pioneer-Gazette Wibaux, Montana 59353	Sep 14, 2011 7:04 AM
87	John Cullen	Sep 14, 2011 6:58 AM
88	Deborah Cornely	Sep 14, 2011 6:50 AM
89	Grant Gibbons	Sep 14, 2011 6:46 AM
90	Steve Mores	Sep 14, 2011 6:38 AM
91	Mack Miller	Sep 14, 2011 6:35 AM
92	Renae Irmeter with Community Publications	Sep 14, 2011 6:34 AM
93	Darren Oliver	Sep 14, 2011 6:28 AM
94	Terry Christensen	Sep 14, 2011 6:12 AM
95	Rae Ann Holub	Sep 14, 2011 6:08 AM
96	Jeffrey D. Keeten	Sep 14, 2011 6:08 AM
97	Kurt Hower - Circulation Director	Sep 14, 2011 5:53 AM
98	Kim Torres	Sep 14, 2011 5:52 AM
99	Mendy McAdams	Sep 14, 2011 5:52 AM
100	Eric Bauer	Sep 14, 2011 5:44 AM
101	Nancy Grossman	Sep 14, 2011 5:29 AM
102	Ida Roberts	Sep 14, 2011 2:21 AM
103	Lynn Buth	Sep 13, 2011 7:37 PM
104	Loren Sawyer	Sep 13, 2011 7:14 PM
105	D. W. Manning	Sep 13, 2011 7:02 PM
106	Charles O'Neill, Harbor Light Newspaper, Harbor Springs, MI	Sep 13, 2011 6:38 PM
107	Loyd W. Ford	Sep 13, 2011 6:38 PM
108	charlie hust	Sep 13, 2011 6:25 PM

Q10. Please provide your name.

109	Tom Muchmore	Sep 13, 2011 6:03 PM
110	Ralph Rice	Sep 13, 2011 6:02 PM
111	Barb Walter	Sep 13, 2011 5:04 PM
112	Peter Ricker	Sep 13, 2011 4:52 PM
113	Scott Gove	Sep 13, 2011 4:08 PM
114	Jeff Mayo	Sep 13, 2011 4:00 PM
115	Mike Brown	Sep 13, 2011 3:44 PM
116	Jim Moritz	Sep 13, 2011 3:12 PM
117	Jowanna Bandy	Sep 13, 2011 3:10 PM
118	John Huckabee	Sep 13, 2011 3:09 PM
119	Danny Davis	Sep 13, 2011 3:07 PM
120	TRUMAN NESS	Sep 13, 2011 3:05 PM
121	Tommy McGraw Publisher 205-652-6100	Sep 13, 2011 2:56 PM
122	Joy Caldwell, publisher	Sep 13, 2011 2:56 PM
123	Lone' Beasley	Sep 13, 2011 2:47 PM
124	Criste Scarnati	Sep 13, 2011 2:46 PM
125	Dodie Hook	Sep 13, 2011 2:42 PM
126	Claudia Lovin	Sep 13, 2011 2:41 PM
127	anthony komlanc	Sep 13, 2011 2:38 PM
128	Heather M. Gray, managing editor	Sep 13, 2011 2:37 PM
129	Brian Blansett	Sep 13, 2011 2:37 PM
130	Charlotte Klutts	Sep 13, 2011 2:36 PM
131	Kathleen Darrach	Sep 13, 2011 2:25 PM
132	Vonnie Clark	Sep 13, 2011 2:22 PM
133	Lynda Henningsen	Sep 13, 2011 2:16 PM
134	Maureen Miller	Sep 13, 2011 2:12 PM
135	Titus Workman	Sep 13, 2011 2:11 PM

Q10. Please provide your name.

136	Mike Scogin	Sep 13, 2011 1:58 PM
137	Phil Summers, publisher Daily Republican Register Mt. Carmel, Illinois	Sep 13, 2011 1:56 PM
138	Sue Dieter	Sep 13, 2011 1:54 PM
139	Faith Wylie	Sep 13, 2011 1:49 PM
140	Brenda Feller	Sep 13, 2011 1:45 PM
141	Barbara Vice	Sep 13, 2011 1:44 PM
142	Belinda Ramsey	Sep 13, 2011 1:39 PM
143	Gary L. Milks	Sep 13, 2011 1:38 PM
144	C.F. David	Sep 13, 2011 1:36 PM
145	Kim Edward Adams	Sep 13, 2011 1:31 PM
146	Wathena Walton	Sep 13, 2011 1:24 PM
147	Sean Dyer	Sep 13, 2011 1:22 PM
148	Roger Pugh	Sep 13, 2011 1:20 PM
149	Steve Haynes	Sep 13, 2011 1:18 PM
150	Maureen R. Olsen	Sep 13, 2011 1:18 PM
151	Staci Molony-Klimek	Sep 13, 2011 1:13 PM
152	Rick Morain	Sep 13, 2011 1:12 PM
153	Chuck Friend	Sep 13, 2011 1:03 PM
154	James D. Brown	Sep 13, 2011 12:59 PM
155	Rich St John	Sep 13, 2011 12:56 PM
156	Tom Stangl	Sep 13, 2011 12:51 PM
157	Lynn Griffith	Sep 13, 2011 12:46 PM
158	Dale Wegner	Sep 13, 2011 12:43 PM
159	Mary L. Unga-Sogaard	Sep 13, 2011 12:41 PM
160	Jacques Rutten	Sep 13, 2011 12:40 PM
161	Amy Duncan	Sep 13, 2011 12:39 PM
162	Jo Martin Times-Citizen Communications, Inc. martin@iafalls.com	Sep 13, 2011 12:37 PM

Q10. Please provide your name.

163	Jane E. Podgorniak	Sep 13, 2011 12:36 PM
164	Gene Hall	Sep 13, 2011 12:30 PM
165	Luann Waldo	Sep 13, 2011 12:26 PM
166	Chuck Edwards	Sep 13, 2011 12:17 PM
167	Sherri Rahn, Circulation Manager	Sep 13, 2011 12:05 PM
168	Jeffrey Karlovec	Sep 13, 2011 12:01 PM
169	Al Gibson	Sep 13, 2011 11:54 AM
170	Patricia M. Edwards	Sep 13, 2011 11:52 AM
171	Kim Ross-Polito	Sep 13, 2011 11:52 AM
172	Chad Campbell, Circulation Manager. Please note this is my opinion alone and doesn't necessarily reflect the opinion of my employer.	Sep 13, 2011 11:49 AM
173	James B Campbell	Sep 13, 2011 11:44 AM
174	Susan Rowell	Sep 13, 2011 11:39 AM
175	Debbie Harshman	Sep 13, 2011 11:36 AM
176	Ryan Wells	Sep 13, 2011 11:19 AM
177	John Foreman	Sep 13, 2011 11:18 AM
178	Melinda Carpenter	Sep 13, 2011 11:14 AM
179	Frank Habusta	Sep 13, 2011 11:06 AM
180	Brandon Woodruff, Circulation Manager	Sep 13, 2011 11:01 AM
181	Cyndy Slovak-Barton	Sep 13, 2011 10:59 AM
182	Lane Moon	Sep 13, 2011 10:54 AM
183	Robert Titone, Circulation Manager	Sep 13, 2011 10:38 AM
184	Frank L. Martin III, publisher and editor	Sep 13, 2011 10:26 AM
185	Keith A. Rathbun	Sep 13, 2011 10:24 AM
186	William Sondag	Sep 13, 2011 10:14 AM
187	Greg Perrotto	Sep 13, 2011 9:55 AM
188	Marnie Eggen	Sep 13, 2011 9:45 AM
189	Melissa Perner	Sep 13, 2011 9:43 AM

Q10. Please provide your name.

190	Larry Glass	Sep 13, 2011 9:41 AM
191	Todd Nelson	Sep 13, 2011 9:26 AM
192	Teresa Mueller	Sep 13, 2011 9:21 AM
193	Bruce Rolfe	Sep 13, 2011 9:21 AM
194	Kathy Tobin	Sep 13, 2011 9:14 AM
195	Jim Stevenson Media Solutions Manager Michigan Press Association	Sep 13, 2011 9:13 AM
196	Nicola McIntosh	Sep 13, 2011 9:11 AM
197	Jerry L. Reppert	Sep 13, 2011 9:09 AM
198	David R. Bell	Sep 13, 2011 9:04 AM
199	Jim Dickerson	Sep 13, 2011 9:02 AM
200	Ron Hance	Sep 13, 2011 9:01 AM
201	Frank L. Beeson Group Publisher Greater Miami Valley Newspaper Group Ohio Community Media	Sep 13, 2011 8:57 AM
202	John M Galer	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
203	John Elliott	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
204	T.J. Hubbard	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
205	Rinda Maddox	Sep 13, 2011 8:46 AM
206	Beverly Puhalla	Sep 13, 2011 8:45 AM
207	Dan J. Killoy	Sep 13, 2011 8:44 AM
208	Linda Jorgensen Buhman	Sep 13, 2011 8:41 AM
209	Misty Douglas	Sep 13, 2011 8:40 AM
210	Randy Garrison	Sep 13, 2011 8:38 AM
211	Brian Tedrick	Sep 13, 2011 8:35 AM
212	Mike Clark	Sep 13, 2011 8:35 AM
213	H. Scott Seal, general manager	Sep 13, 2011 8:33 AM
214	P. Carter Newton	Sep 13, 2011 8:33 AM
215	Walt and Carol Haase	Sep 13, 2011 8:32 AM
216	William Creed	Sep 13, 2011 8:31 AM

Q10. Please provide your name.

217	Amy Ziegler	Sep 13, 2011 8:29 AM
218	Jody Woltman	Sep 13, 2011 8:28 AM
219	Dirk Milliman	Sep 13, 2011 8:27 AM
220	Barbara Horstman	Sep 13, 2011 8:27 AM
221	Amy Richards	Sep 13, 2011 8:26 AM
222	Cynthia Ervin	Sep 13, 2011 8:24 AM
223	Krafus Walker	Sep 13, 2011 8:23 AM
224	Robert Lyons	Sep 13, 2011 8:22 AM
225	Ken Stone	Sep 13, 2011 8:19 AM
226	Jeff Evans	Sep 13, 2011 8:13 AM
227	Kathleen Leinen	Sep 13, 2011 8:11 AM
228	Dave Caughman	Sep 13, 2011 8:06 AM
229	Carla McBride	Sep 13, 2011 8:06 AM
230	Alice Rouse, Publisher	Sep 13, 2011 8:03 AM
231	Willie Gray	Sep 13, 2011 7:59 AM
232	Denice Dater	Sep 13, 2011 7:58 AM
233	William Dixon	Sep 13, 2011 7:54 AM
234	John Norton, Group Publisher	Sep 13, 2011 7:51 AM
235	Rick Hohlt	Sep 13, 2011 7:48 AM
236	Jim Dunn	Sep 13, 2011 7:46 AM
237	JIM PERRY	Sep 13, 2011 7:43 AM
238	Michael Schuver	Sep 13, 2011 7:43 AM
239	Richard W. Lamb, Publisher	Sep 13, 2011 7:42 AM
240	Robert Martin	Sep 13, 2011 7:36 AM
241	H. Kenneth Douthit III	Sep 13, 2011 7:34 AM
242	Missy D. Rech, Circulation Director	Sep 13, 2011 7:34 AM
243	Janet Mendler	Sep 13, 2011 7:32 AM

Q10. Please provide your name.

244	Ken Crisp	Sep 13, 2011 7:29 AM
245	Bob Cunningham	Sep 13, 2011 7:28 AM
246	Henry H. Nyce	Sep 13, 2011 7:27 AM
247	Michael Drey	Sep 13, 2011 7:25 AM
248	Gary Connor	Sep 13, 2011 7:22 AM
249	April Simmermaker	Sep 13, 2011 7:22 AM
250	Amy Helsel	Sep 13, 2011 7:21 AM
251	Rayma Bekebrock Davis	Sep 13, 2011 7:20 AM
252	Chris Evans	Sep 13, 2011 7:20 AM
253	Barbara Battcher	Sep 13, 2011 7:15 AM
254	Tammy Walker	Sep 13, 2011 7:03 AM
255	Jonathan Willis	Sep 13, 2011 6:59 AM
256	Harry Jackson	Sep 13, 2011 6:58 AM
257	Judy Dingman	Sep 13, 2011 6:56 AM
258	Randall Shields	Sep 13, 2011 6:49 AM
259	Tim Hobbs	Sep 13, 2011 6:46 AM
260	Linda Gindlesperger	Sep 13, 2011 6:43 AM
261	Dane Vernon	Sep 13, 2011 6:43 AM
262	Jay Nolan, Nolan Group Media	Sep 13, 2011 6:41 AM
263	Bobby Greer	Sep 13, 2011 6:39 AM
264	Jamie Greathead	Sep 13, 2011 6:39 AM
265	David O. Heishman	Sep 13, 2011 6:38 AM
266	jeff vanderbeck	Sep 13, 2011 6:36 AM
267	Don Sincell	Sep 13, 2011 6:31 AM
268	Scott Dillingham	Sep 13, 2011 6:29 AM
269	Vern Brown	Sep 13, 2011 6:29 AM
270	Linda Gilmore	Sep 13, 2011 6:28 AM

Q10. Please provide your name.

271	Bill Ball, Circulation Director for American Farm Publications Inc.	Sep 13, 2011 6:27 AM
272	Adrienne Gieszl	Sep 13, 2011 6:26 AM
273	Fred Arnold	Sep 13, 2011 6:24 AM
274	Kim White	Sep 13, 2011 6:09 AM
275	Keith Ponder	Sep 13, 2011 6:08 AM
276	M.P. Swenson	Sep 13, 2011 6:07 AM
277	Stevie Lowery	Sep 13, 2011 5:59 AM
278	Rebecca Lawyer	Sep 13, 2011 5:37 AM
279	Tim Timmons	Sep 13, 2011 4:49 AM
280	Bill Burgess	Sep 13, 2011 4:06 AM
281	Kasie L Foster	Sep 13, 2011 3:31 AM
282	Joyce M. Searson	Sep 13, 2011 3:19 AM
283	Michelle R Hessling, Group Publisher	Sep 13, 2011 2:44 AM
284	Libby Berndt, publisher	Sep 12, 2011 8:19 PM
285	Frances M Deiterich	Sep 12, 2011 7:55 PM
286	Stephanie Grubert, Publisher Mountaintop Eagle Mountaintop PA	Sep 12, 2011 6:43 PM
287	Kimball Long	Sep 12, 2011 6:37 PM
288	Robert Foos	Sep 12, 2011 6:14 PM
289	Chris Yee, Circulation & Distribution Manager on behalf of Elliott Freireich, Publisher	Sep 12, 2011 6:12 PM
290	Sue Doty-Lloyd	Sep 12, 2011 6:10 PM
291	Willie J. Peterson, Publisher/Owner	Sep 12, 2011 5:53 PM
292	Paul Overlie	Sep 12, 2011 5:41 PM
293	Lynette Mason	Sep 12, 2011 5:17 PM
294	Kevin Hohnbaum	Sep 12, 2011 5:02 PM
295	Diane Clark	Sep 12, 2011 5:01 PM
296	Michael Lewis	Sep 12, 2011 4:36 PM
297	Bill Blauvelt	Sep 12, 2011 4:24 PM

Q10. Please provide your name.

298	Elizabeth Wilkinson	Sep 12, 2011 4:17 PM
299	Jennifer Harris	Sep 12, 2011 4:01 PM
300	Clark Thurmond	Sep 12, 2011 3:55 PM
301	Olga Hinds, Publisher	Sep 12, 2011 3:43 PM
302	Jerry Hooper	Sep 12, 2011 3:33 PM
303	Brad Franklin	Sep 12, 2011 3:30 PM
304	Kandi George	Sep 12, 2011 3:23 PM
305	Jane Pigg	Sep 12, 2011 3:19 PM
306	Larry Jackson	Sep 12, 2011 3:17 PM
307	Karen Courtney	Sep 12, 2011 3:12 PM
308	Michele Gerlach	Sep 12, 2011 3:12 PM
309	Sharon Guevel	Sep 12, 2011 3:11 PM
310	Randy Mitchell	Sep 12, 2011 3:10 PM
311	Steve Curd	Sep 12, 2011 3:10 PM
312	Kathy Cormier	Sep 12, 2011 3:09 PM
313	Andrew Johnson	Sep 12, 2011 3:07 PM
314	Patricia Lee is the Owner. I am Barb Endler, Production / Advertising Manager	Sep 12, 2011 3:06 PM
315	Catherine Wynn	Sep 12, 2011 3:03 PM
316	Christopher J. Bell	Sep 12, 2011 3:02 PM
317	John Edgecombe	Sep 12, 2011 3:02 PM
318	Connie Musil	Sep 12, 2011 2:57 PM
319	Mark Rhoades Blair, NE	Sep 12, 2011 2:56 PM
320	Ben Marshall	Sep 12, 2011 2:53 PM
321	Connie Thompson, Editor	Sep 12, 2011 2:53 PM
322	Carol Brooke	Sep 12, 2011 2:51 PM
323	Debbie Irwin	Sep 12, 2011 2:49 PM
324	Vickey Boyd	Sep 12, 2011 2:45 PM

Q10. Please provide your name.

325	David Brown	Sep 12, 2011 2:42 PM
326	Allan Von Werder	Sep 12, 2011 2:40 PM
327	Rebecca Robison	Sep 12, 2011 2:38 PM
328	Tom Betz	Sep 12, 2011 2:37 PM
329	Joe Harder	Sep 12, 2011 2:36 PM
330	Rudy Taylor, publisher Taylor Newspapers of Southeast Kansas Caney, KS	Sep 12, 2011 2:35 PM
331	Sharon S. Trammell	Sep 12, 2011 2:34 PM
332	Tonya Evans	Sep 12, 2011 2:34 PM
333	Nancy Stephens	Sep 12, 2011 2:33 PM
334	Tom Arviso Jr. CEO/Publisher Navajo Times Publishing Company, Inc. Window Rock, AZ 86515	Sep 12, 2011 2:30 PM
335	Marcia Hora	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
336	William Light Kinney, Jr.	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
337	Jeff Aydelette, Publisher	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
338	Jim Orr	Sep 12, 2011 2:28 PM
339	Chris Huckle	Sep 12, 2011 2:26 PM
340	Dale Gentry	Sep 12, 2011 2:25 PM
341	Chad Ferguson The Banner Press Newspaper Columbus, TX	Sep 12, 2011 2:24 PM
342	Jonathan Key	Sep 12, 2011 2:23 PM
343	Charlotte Hodge	Sep 12, 2011 2:23 PM
344	Stephanie A. Berry	Sep 12, 2011 2:19 PM
345	Ann Mullen	Sep 12, 2011 2:19 PM
346	Chuck Rathbun	Sep 12, 2011 2:19 PM
347	Michael A. Wendorff	Sep 12, 2011 2:17 PM
348	Nancy Bittner	Sep 12, 2011 2:17 PM
349	Dennis Warden	Sep 12, 2011 2:17 PM
350	Roger Jones	Sep 12, 2011 2:16 PM
351	Peter Cook	Sep 12, 2011 2:15 PM

Q10. Please provide your name.

352	Robert G. Bozeman III	Sep 12, 2011 2:14 PM
353	Hugh Braddock	Sep 12, 2011 2:14 PM
354	Tina Sanderson Conde News/Doland Times Record	Sep 12, 2011 2:13 PM
355	John Heuring	Sep 12, 2011 2:10 PM
356	Mike Overmann	Sep 12, 2011 2:07 PM
357	Lucy Williams	Sep 12, 2011 2:06 PM
358	Lawrence Johnson	Sep 12, 2011 2:06 PM
359	Dick Crockford	Sep 12, 2011 2:06 PM
360	John Marshall	Sep 12, 2011 2:04 PM
361	Darla Shumway	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM
362	John Sullivan	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM
363	Ronald a Vodenichar	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM
364	Janet F. Guptill Box 322 Jordan, Montana 59337	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM
365	Paulette Hynek	Sep 12, 2011 2:02 PM
366	Willis Mahannah	Sep 12, 2011 2:01 PM
367	Linda Bryant	Sep 12, 2011 2:00 PM
368	Charles Broadwell	Sep 12, 2011 2:00 PM
369	Alice Wanamaker	Sep 12, 2011 1:59 PM
370	Walton Dunn, Associate Editor	Sep 12, 2011 1:58 PM
371	Joel Washburn	Sep 12, 2011 1:57 PM
372	Dane Hicks	Sep 12, 2011 1:57 PM
373	Art Segers	Sep 12, 2011 1:56 PM
374	Mike Qualls	Sep 12, 2011 1:51 PM
375	Denese Dameron	Sep 12, 2011 1:50 PM
376	Shirley Cave	Sep 12, 2011 1:49 PM
377	Sara Jane Locke	Sep 12, 2011 1:48 PM
378	Deuce Niven	Sep 12, 2011 1:46 PM

Q10. Please provide your name.

379	Don Bona	Sep 12, 2011 1:44 PM
380	Tommy Campbell	Sep 12, 2011 1:43 PM
381	Jeanne Loewen The Montezuma Press, Montezuma, KS 67867	Sep 12, 2011 1:41 PM
382	Dave Berry	Sep 12, 2011 1:37 PM
383	Lonnie Peppler-Moyer	Sep 12, 2011 1:36 PM
384	Ron Storey	Sep 12, 2011 1:35 PM
385	Cy Wood	Sep 12, 2011 1:35 PM
386	Stephanie A. Dawson	Sep 12, 2011 1:35 PM
387	Shanna Guiot	Sep 12, 2011 1:34 PM
388	Joe Skrivan	Sep 12, 2011 1:33 PM
389	Melinda Goertz-Office Manager	Sep 12, 2011 1:33 PM
390	Kendall R. Neiman	Sep 12, 2011 1:32 PM
391	Phil Major	Sep 12, 2011 1:32 PM
392	William (Bill) Tubbs	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM
393	Alex Coulter	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM
394	Sue Shinneman	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM
395	John Carr	Sep 12, 2011 1:30 PM
396	Mary Ann Morford	Sep 12, 2011 1:28 PM
397	Mark Roby	Sep 12, 2011 1:28 PM
398	Charley Najacht	Sep 12, 2011 1:23 PM
399	Elaine Rider	Sep 12, 2011 1:23 PM
400	Pat Desmond	Sep 12, 2011 1:19 PM
401	Lisa Betz	Sep 12, 2011 1:16 PM
402	Jamie Gardner	Sep 12, 2011 1:16 PM
403	Allen Beermann Nebraska Press Association	Sep 12, 2011 1:10 PM
404	Merle Baranczyk	Sep 12, 2011 1:07 PM
405	Natha McAllister	Sep 12, 2011 1:03 PM

Q10. Please provide your name.

406	Bill Ferguson	Sep 12, 2011 12:59 PM
407	Deb McCaslin	Sep 12, 2011 12:54 PM
408	Kathy Kauffold, Editor	Sep 12, 2011 12:54 PM
409	Sean McClellan	Sep 12, 2011 12:47 PM
410	Mike Schlesinger	Sep 12, 2011 12:39 PM
411	Jeff Fishman	Sep 12, 2011 12:38 PM
412	Rick Peterson	Sep 12, 2011 12:38 PM
413	Vickie Foraker	Sep 12, 2011 12:36 PM
414	don rush	Sep 12, 2011 12:31 PM
415	Peggy Schelske	Sep 12, 2011 12:29 PM
416	Gina Ward	Sep 12, 2011 12:27 PM
417	Bruce Wallace	Sep 12, 2011 12:24 PM
418	BEECHER THREATT	Sep 12, 2011 12:24 PM
419	The Advertiser-Gleam	Sep 12, 2011 12:23 PM
420	Ronda Walton	Sep 12, 2011 12:22 PM
421	Paul Erdelt	Sep 12, 2011 12:19 PM
422	Dale Kovar	Sep 12, 2011 12:18 PM
423	Cory Bollinger	Sep 12, 2011 12:15 PM
424	Deborah Steele Hazen	Sep 12, 2011 12:10 PM
425	Amy Frederick	Sep 12, 2011 12:06 PM
426	Stephen B. Waters	Sep 12, 2011 12:05 PM
427	C.J. Fahrenbacher	Sep 12, 2011 12:00 PM
428	Roy G. Robinson	Sep 12, 2011 11:52 AM
429	Doug Card	Sep 12, 2011 11:51 AM
430	Dave Baumeister	Sep 12, 2011 11:51 AM
431	William Gray	Sep 12, 2011 11:49 AM
432	Kim Wehmer	Sep 12, 2011 11:49 AM

Q10. Please provide your name.

433	LeAnne Kavanagh Editor and Publisher	Sep 12, 2011 11:47 AM
434	Marileen Tilberg, Editor	Sep 12, 2011 11:47 AM
435	Patsy Speights	Sep 12, 2011 11:45 AM
436	Otis O. Tucker iii	Sep 12, 2011 11:44 AM
437	Mark Kneer, Rust Communications	Sep 12, 2011 11:42 AM
438	Mark Henry	Sep 12, 2011 11:37 AM
439	Cheryl Kaechele	Sep 12, 2011 11:37 AM
440	Matt Paxton	Sep 12, 2011 11:37 AM
441	Andy Wilcox	Sep 12, 2011 11:36 AM
442	kathy Conger	Sep 12, 2011 11:33 AM
443	Jon Whitney	Sep 12, 2011 11:32 AM
444	Roger Estlack	Sep 12, 2011 11:32 AM
445	Elaine Kolodziej	Sep 12, 2011 11:30 AM
446	Kay Wilson	Sep 12, 2011 11:29 AM
447	Amber Weems	Sep 12, 2011 11:28 AM
448	H . Alan Smith	Sep 12, 2011 11:26 AM
449	J. Stephen McLaughlin	Sep 12, 2011 11:25 AM
450	Joel Summer	Sep 12, 2011 11:24 AM
451	Julie Simpson, Publisher	Sep 12, 2011 11:23 AM
452	Dala Whittaker	Sep 12, 2011 11:21 AM
453	Cindy Merckx	Sep 12, 2011 11:21 AM
454	John Fisher	Sep 12, 2011 11:18 AM
455	James R. Fraser	Sep 12, 2011 11:17 AM
456	Clay McFerrin	Sep 12, 2011 11:17 AM
457	Stu Neilson Managing Editor Town Crier Tewksbury / Wilmington, MA	Sep 12, 2011 11:16 AM
458	Brooks Taylor	Sep 12, 2011 11:15 AM
459	JEFF FARREN	Sep 12, 2011 11:14 AM

Q10. Please provide your name.

460	Ann Marie Gonsalves	Sep 12, 2011 11:12 AM
461	Wendy Isbell	Sep 12, 2011 11:11 AM
462	Dirk Vanderlinden	Sep 12, 2011 11:09 AM
463	Jennifer Cone Chciuk	Sep 12, 2011 11:09 AM
464	Sarah Hale, managing editor	Sep 12, 2011 11:05 AM
465	John M. Wylie II	Sep 12, 2011 11:03 AM
466	Cynthia Shroyer	Sep 12, 2011 11:01 AM
467	Melody Martinsen, editor	Sep 12, 2011 11:00 AM
468	Kurt Van Koevering	Sep 12, 2011 10:59 AM
469	Jessica L. Lloyd-Rogers	Sep 12, 2011 10:59 AM
470	Cheryl Maxwell	Sep 12, 2011 10:57 AM
471	Kevin Olson	Sep 12, 2011 10:57 AM
472	Scott Hunter	Sep 12, 2011 10:55 AM
473	Rob Viehman, Publisher	Sep 12, 2011 10:54 AM
474	Amy Durst	Sep 12, 2011 10:51 AM
475	J. Patrick Reilly	Sep 12, 2011 10:50 AM
476	Rod Worrell	Sep 12, 2011 10:45 AM
477	Banks Dishmon	Sep 12, 2011 10:43 AM
478	Shari Pierce	Sep 12, 2011 10:41 AM
479	Chris Dickey	Sep 12, 2011 10:32 AM
480	Joe B. Coates	Sep 12, 2011 10:32 AM
481	Jerry Tidwell	Sep 12, 2011 10:31 AM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

1	Carroll County Comet Delphi, IN 46929	Oct 3, 2011 12:59 PM
2	The Messenger (Gadsden, AL)	Oct 3, 2011 8:20 AM
3	Bristow News, Record Citizen (creek county oklahoma), Oklahoma News Weekly (covering Glenpool, Beggs, Kiefer and Mounds Oklahoma)	Sep 26, 2011 12:12 PM
4	Hominy News-Progress	Sep 22, 2011 2:55 PM
5	The Tuskegee News	Sep 20, 2011 12:39 PM
6	The Courier-Times, Roxboro NC	Sep 20, 2011 8:46 AM
7	Washington County News	Sep 19, 2011 11:43 PM
8	The Abbeville Herald P. O. Box 609 Abbeville, AL 36310	Sep 19, 2011 7:06 PM
9	Aurelia Star	Sep 18, 2011 7:26 PM
10	Archbold Buckeye	Sep 18, 2011 11:04 AM
11	The Diagonal Progress	Sep 17, 2011 9:37 PM
12	Delaware County Leader, Hopkinton IA 52237	Sep 16, 2011 2:51 PM
13	I am a Managing Editor for the Sigourney News-Review, a division of Mid America Publishing Corp.	Sep 16, 2011 1:18 PM
14	West Alabama Gazette and The Northport Gazette I would like info on joining NNA	Sep 16, 2011 1:01 PM
15	Cherokeean Herald	Sep 16, 2011 11:16 AM
16	Kerkhoven Banner	Sep 16, 2011 11:11 AM
17	The Town Talk in Alexandria, LA	Sep 16, 2011 10:57 AM
18	The Bigheart Times	Sep 16, 2011 8:17 AM
19	The New-Gazette	Sep 16, 2011 6:41 AM
20	The Observer, Westside, Iowa	Sep 15, 2011 4:56 PM
21	Central Dakota Times of Chamberlain, SD	Sep 15, 2011 4:43 PM
22	Gothenburg Times, Gothenburg, NE	Sep 15, 2011 3:41 PM
23	The Daily Iberian	Sep 15, 2011 3:03 PM
24	The Henessey Clipper (Oklahoma)	Sep 15, 2011 2:52 PM
25	The Davis News	Sep 15, 2011 2:26 PM
26	Sullivan Independent News, Sullivan Missouri	Sep 15, 2011 1:09 PM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

27	The Coalfield Progress, Norton, Va. The Post, Big Stone Gap, Va. The Dickenson Star, Clintwood, Va.	Sep 15, 2011 12:56 PM
28	Hardin County Independent 25-27 West First Street P.O.Box 328 Elizabethtown, Illinois 62931	Sep 15, 2011 12:47 PM
29	The Mechanicsville Local - Mechanicsville, VA The Goochland Gazette - Goochland, VA The Midlothian Exchange - Midlothian, VA Powhatan Today - Powhatan, VA Cumberland Today - Cumberland, VA	Sep 15, 2011 12:21 PM
30	The Cordell Beacon	Sep 15, 2011 12:19 PM
31	McCormick Messenger McCormick, SC	Sep 15, 2011 12:16 PM
32	County Joournal--Percy, IL Sparta Journal--Sparta, IL	Sep 15, 2011 11:56 AM
33	The Lincoln County News	Sep 15, 2011 11:52 AM
34	Des Moines Register	Sep 15, 2011 11:15 AM
35	The Ellsworth American and Mount Desert Islander	Sep 15, 2011 11:11 AM
36	Ware Shoals Observer	Sep 15, 2011 10:27 AM
37	Linda A. Geist The Lake Gazette 304 S. Main St., Monroe City, Mo. 63456	Sep 15, 2011 9:33 AM
38	Banner Democrat	Sep 15, 2011 9:11 AM
39	Grant County News Carson Press	Sep 15, 2011 8:58 AM
40	Blazin' Trails Tribune (a newly established weekly newspaper in July, 2011)	Sep 15, 2011 8:25 AM
41	The Times, Pryor, OK	Sep 15, 2011 8:18 AM
42	Citizen Voice & Times Clay City Times Money Mailer/Red River Trader	Sep 15, 2011 8:17 AM
43	Sullivan Daily Times	Sep 15, 2011 8:01 AM
44	Leelanau Enterprise Lake Leelanau, MI 49653	Sep 15, 2011 7:56 AM
45	The Standard, Westhope, North Dakota	Sep 15, 2011 7:53 AM
46	North Vernon Plain Dealer The North Vernon Sun	Sep 15, 2011 7:23 AM
47	The Columbia Star	Sep 15, 2011 6:58 AM
48	The Tullahoma News The Sunday News High Mach The Elk Valley Times The Herald Chronicle The Manchester Times The Grundy County Herald The Moore County News	Sep 15, 2011 5:37 AM
49	Tompkinsville News	Sep 14, 2011 7:07 PM
50	The Paper, Dwight, IL	Sep 14, 2011 4:05 PM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

51	YOUR COMMUNITY SHOPPER - MEMBER OF THE TENNESSEE PRESS ASSOCIATION	Sep 14, 2011 3:31 PM
52	The Paris (TN) Post-Intelligencer	Sep 14, 2011 3:27 PM
53	Astoria South Fulton Argus	Sep 14, 2011 2:53 PM
54	Bloomfield Democrat	Sep 14, 2011 2:52 PM
55	Bethany Republican-Clipper, Bethany, MO.	Sep 14, 2011 2:47 PM
56	Chester County Independent--Henderson, TN	Sep 14, 2011 2:34 PM
57	Hugo Daily News Choctaw County Times (Both in Oklahoma)	Sep 14, 2011 2:22 PM
58	The Brownsville States-Graphic (Brownsville, TN) The Leader (Covington, TN)	Sep 14, 2011 2:15 PM
59	Griswold American LLC	Sep 14, 2011 1:52 PM
60	The Kwik Konnection (a member of the Illinois Press Assn.)	Sep 14, 2011 1:18 PM
61	The Eureka Herald	Sep 14, 2011 12:33 PM
62	The Tri-City Reporter, Dyer, Tennessee 38330 The Humboldt Chronicle, Humboldt, Tennessee 38343	Sep 14, 2011 12:26 PM
63	Emmons County Record, Linton, N.D. Prairie Pioneer, Pollock, S.D.	Sep 14, 2011 12:09 PM
64	Chamberlain/Oacoma (SD) Sun	Sep 14, 2011 12:09 PM
65	The Times (Ottawa IL.)	Sep 14, 2011 11:48 AM
66	Golden Prairie News	Sep 14, 2011 11:47 AM
67	Vineyard Gazette Martha's Vineyard, MA	Sep 14, 2011 11:40 AM
68	The South Dakota Mail Newspaper	Sep 14, 2011 11:40 AM
69	LaMoure Chronicle, Kulm Messenger, Litchville Bulletin, Enderlin Independent	Sep 14, 2011 11:34 AM
70	The Pinconning Journal	Sep 14, 2011 11:30 AM
71	Kiowa County Democrat Snyder, Oklahoma	Sep 14, 2011 11:04 AM
72	Pana News-Palladium, Nokomis Free Press-Progress, Morrisonville Times, Assumption Golden Prairie News (all Illinois)	Sep 14, 2011 10:45 AM
73	The Bledsonian-Banner The Dunlap Tribune Sequatchie Valley Shopper - TMC type product sent through mail	Sep 14, 2011 10:10 AM
74	Ness County News	Sep 14, 2011 10:00 AM
75	The Observer News Enterprise of Newton, N.C.	Sep 14, 2011 9:45 AM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

76	Kilgore (TX) News Herald, TriCounty Leader (Whitehouse, TX), Chandler-Brownsboro (TX) Statesman, Bullard( TX) Banner News	Sep 14, 2011 9:25 AM
77	The Thomas Tribune	Sep 14, 2011 9:25 AM
78	Gardner News ---- 66030	Sep 14, 2011 9:21 AM
79	Sayre Record and Beckham County Democrat (primarily covering Sayre, Erick and Sweetwater)	Sep 14, 2011 9:19 AM
80	The Milan Standard, Milan, MO 63556	Sep 14, 2011 8:37 AM
81	The Prairie Advocate News Acres of Sky Communications, Inc. www.pacc-news.com	Sep 14, 2011 8:35 AM
82	Sisseton Courier	Sep 14, 2011 8:35 AM
83	Douglas Budget, Glenrock Independent	Sep 14, 2011 8:31 AM
84	Hampton, Sheffield, Rockwell, Dows, Clarion, Eagle Grove, Lake City-Rockwell City, Buffalo Center, Garner, Allison, Clarksville, Grundy Center, Fremont, What Cheer, Sigourney, New Sharon, Keota, Conservative Chronicle, Liberal Opinion Week.	Sep 14, 2011 7:38 AM
85	mineral wells index	Sep 14, 2011 7:10 AM
86	We publish as part of Times-Shamrock Communication, with weeklies, dailies and alternatives heavy in the Northeast Pennsylvania corridor. Closing Saturday would affect not only the questionable/slow delivery we all now receive with our second class postage permits, and also slow even more any thrid class mailings as these mailbags can sit for days before processing at EACH postoffice along the way. Also, our Towanda Printing Company prints 45 other newspapers each week and we mail several of them.	Sep 14, 2011 7:09 AM
87	The Wibaux Pioneer-Gazette	Sep 14, 2011 7:04 AM
88	The Storm Lake Times, Storm Lake, Iowa	Sep 14, 2011 6:58 AM
89	The Dundalk Eagle	Sep 14, 2011 6:50 AM
90	The Messenger, The Daily Freeman-Journal; Fort Dodge, IA and Webster City, IA	Sep 14, 2011 6:46 AM
91	Harlan (IA) News-Advertiser Harlan (IA) Tribune two shoppers as well.....	Sep 14, 2011 6:38 AM
92	The Okeene Record The Dewey County Record The Canton Times	Sep 14, 2011 6:35 AM
93	Armstrong Journal, Ringsted Dispatch, Bancroft Register, Swea City Herald Press, Sac Sun, Lake View Resort, Pocahontas Record Democrat, Buena Vista County Journal, Laurens Sun, Sioux Valley News, Lake Mills Graphic, Odebolt Chronicle	Sep 14, 2011 6:34 AM
94	Overton County News	Sep 14, 2011 6:28 AM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

95	Daily Freeman Journal - Commercial printer also.	Sep 14, 2011 6:12 AM
96	Linn News-Letter, Linn County Shopper	Sep 14, 2011 6:08 AM
97	High Plains Journal	Sep 14, 2011 6:08 AM
98	The Patriot-News	Sep 14, 2011 5:53 AM
99	The Nashville News	Sep 14, 2011 5:52 AM
100	What Cheer Paper Village Vine of Fremont New Sharon Sun	Sep 14, 2011 5:52 AM
101	The Orange Leader	Sep 14, 2011 5:44 AM
102	The Salem Leader The Salem Democrat Your AD-Vantage (mailed shopper)	Sep 14, 2011 5:29 AM
103	The Fairfax Chief	Sep 14, 2011 2:21 AM
104	The Danbury Review, Danbury, IA	Sep 13, 2011 7:37 PM
105	Onawa Sentinel	Sep 13, 2011 7:14 PM
106	The Daily Elk Citian Elk City, OK	Sep 13, 2011 7:02 PM
107	Harbor Light Newspaper	Sep 13, 2011 6:38 PM
108	The Lake News Calvert City, KY 42029	Sep 13, 2011 6:38 PM
109	The journal-enterprise	Sep 13, 2011 6:25 PM
110	The Ponca City News The Tonkawa News	Sep 13, 2011 6:03 PM
111	County Press	Sep 13, 2011 6:02 PM
112	The Hennessey Clipper	Sep 13, 2011 5:04 PM
113	Rockford Register Star, Free port Journal Standard, Weeklies	Sep 13, 2011 4:52 PM
114	Shelby Daily Globe Willard Times-Junction New London Record Firelands Farmer	Sep 13, 2011 4:08 PM
115	Sequoyah County Times Vian Tenkiller News Eastern Times-Register Eufaula Indian-Journal McIntosh County Democrat	Sep 13, 2011 4:00 PM
116	Stroud American	Sep 13, 2011 3:44 PM
117	Faulk County Record, Faulkton, SD	Sep 13, 2011 3:12 PM
118	Leader News - Muhlenberg County Kentucky and Times News - Ohio County Kentucky	Sep 13, 2011 3:10 PM
119	Muskogee Phoenix, Ft. Gibson Times, Pryor Times, McAlester Democrat, Stilwell Democrat Journal, Westville Reporter	Sep 13, 2011 3:09 PM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

120	Mediapolis News	Sep 13, 2011 3:07 PM
121	Tri-County Sun, Fordville, ND; Adams Standard, Adams ND; Edmore Herald, Edmore, ND; Aneta Star, Aneta, ND; Hatton Free Press, Hatton, ND; Larimore Leader-Tribune, Larimore, ND; The Messenger, McVille, ND; Nelson County Arena, Michigan, ND; Pembina New Era, Pembina, ND	Sep 13, 2011 3:05 PM
122	Sumter County Record Journal, Livingston, AL 35470 A weekly publication in rural west Alabama's black belt.	Sep 13, 2011 2:56 PM
123	Grundy County Herald Lakeway Publishers, Inc.	Sep 13, 2011 2:56 PM
124	The Ada News	Sep 13, 2011 2:47 PM
125	Prairie City News	Sep 13, 2011 2:46 PM
126	The Akron Hometown	Sep 13, 2011 2:42 PM
127	Boone News Republican Boone Co. Shopping News	Sep 13, 2011 2:41 PM
128	whiteside news sentinel , fulton journal ,the review ,the echo ,times indicator	Sep 13, 2011 2:38 PM
129	Spring Grove Herald- Spring Grove, Minn. P.S. We have a WONDERFUL post master here in Spring Grove and she deserves a raise! :)	Sep 13, 2011 2:37 PM
130	Shawnee, Ok, News-Star	Sep 13, 2011 2:37 PM
131	Tahlequah Daily Press	Sep 13, 2011 2:36 PM
132	Monroe Legacy	Sep 13, 2011 2:25 PM
133	The Express Star The Tuttle Times	Sep 13, 2011 2:22 PM
134	The Daily Record, Omaha, Nebraska	Sep 13, 2011 2:16 PM
135	Knoxville Journal Express, Pella Chronicle	Sep 13, 2011 2:12 PM
136	The Daily Herald, Roanoke Rapids, NC	Sep 13, 2011 2:11 PM
137	Georgetown News-Graphic, KY	Sep 13, 2011 1:58 PM
138	Daily Republican Register and the Wabash & Edwards Today	Sep 13, 2011 1:56 PM
139	Morris Sun Tribune, Morris MN Hancock Record, Hancock MN	Sep 13, 2011 1:54 PM
140	Oologah Lake Leader	Sep 13, 2011 1:49 PM
141	St. Elmo Devonian News	Sep 13, 2011 1:45 PM
142	Drumright Gusher (Drumright, OK)	Sep 13, 2011 1:44 PM
143	Guthrie News Leader Blackwell Journal-Tribune	Sep 13, 2011 1:39 PM
144	Fort Madison Daily Democrat	Sep 13, 2011 1:38 PM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

145	The Boise City News	Sep 13, 2011 1:36 PM
146	Jesup Citizen Herald, Jesup, IA Denver Forum, Denver, IA	Sep 13, 2011 1:31 PM
147	The Vici Vision	Sep 13, 2011 1:24 PM
148	El Reno Tribune, El Reno Oklahoma, 73036 Mustang News, Mustang Oklahoma, 73064	Sep 13, 2011 1:22 PM
149	Piedmont-Surrey Gazette (Oklahoma) Okarche Chieftain (Oklahoma)	Sep 13, 2011 1:20 PM
150	Nor'West Newspapers, The Oberlin Herald, Colby Free Press, Goodland Star-News, Bird City Times, Saint Francis Herald, Norton Telegram, Country Advocate, Norton Monday Extra.	Sep 13, 2011 1:18 PM
151	Gazette, Neola, IA (Main communities: McClelland, Minden, Neola, Persia, Shelby, Treynor and Underwood, IA)	Sep 13, 2011 1:18 PM
152	The Quad-City Times: The Muscatine Journal: Business Journal Thrify Nickel/Post Bettendorf News Classic Images/Films of the Golden Ages	Sep 13, 2011 1:13 PM
153	Jefferson, Iowa, Heald	Sep 13, 2011 1:12 PM
154	The Record Conrad, Iowa	Sep 13, 2011 1:03 PM
155	Yale Expositor	Sep 13, 2011 12:59 PM
156	Stark County News Chillicothe Independent	Sep 13, 2011 12:56 PM
157	Le Mars Daily Sentinel, Remsen Bell-Enterprise, Cherokee Chronicle-Times, Kingsley News-Times, Sioux Valley News - all in NW IA	Sep 13, 2011 12:51 PM
158	The Ord Quiz Ord, NE	Sep 13, 2011 12:46 PM
159	The Sac Sun, Lake View Resort	Sep 13, 2011 12:43 PM
160	Dyersville Commercial and Cascade Pioneer	Sep 13, 2011 12:41 PM
161	Lewistown News-Argus	Sep 13, 2011 12:40 PM
162	Altoona Herald Indianola Record Herald	Sep 13, 2011 12:39 PM
163	Iowa Falls Times Citizen-bi weekly Ackley World Journal Iowa Farm Bureau Spokesman Nebraska Farm Bureau Minnesota Farm Bureau	Sep 13, 2011 12:37 PM
164	Northwood Anchor, Nora Springs Rockford Register, Manly Signal	Sep 13, 2011 12:36 PM
165	Charles City Press, Algona Upper Des Moines	Sep 13, 2011 12:30 PM
166	The News Gazette The Scranton Journal	Sep 13, 2011 12:26 PM
167	The Daily Advance, Perquimans Weekly, Chowan Herald	Sep 13, 2011 12:17 PM
168	The Randolph County Herald Tribune, Chester, Illinois Steeleville Ledger,	Sep 13, 2011 12:05 PM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

	Chester, Illinois
169	Daily Legal News, Cleveland, OH Geauga County Maple Leaf, Chardon, OH	Sep 13, 2011 12:01 PM
170	Clinton County News, Albany, KY 42602	Sep 13, 2011 11:54 AM
171	The Randolph Guide in Asheboro, NC	Sep 13, 2011 11:52 AM
172	The Crestline Advocate	Sep 13, 2011 11:52 AM
173	The Daily Journal Kankakee, IL	Sep 13, 2011 11:49 AM
174	Campbell Publications	Sep 13, 2011 11:44 AM
175	The Lancaster News Carolina Gateway Pageland Progressive Journal	Sep 13, 2011 11:39 AM
176	The Paper	Sep 13, 2011 11:36 AM
177	The Leader Vindicator	Sep 13, 2011 11:19 AM
178	The News-Gazette (Champaign-Urbana, IL) Mahomet Citizen (Mahomet, IL) Journal Republican (Monticello, IL) Independent News (Georgetown, IL) The Leader (St. Joseph-Ogden, IL) The LeRoy Press (LeRoy, IL) The Rantoul Press (Rantoul, IL) The County Star (Savoy, IL) Paxton Record (Paxton, IL)	Sep 13, 2011 11:18 AM
179	Rantoul Press, County Star, The Leader, Paxton Record, LeRoy/Farmer City Press, Independent News, Piatt County Journal Republican, Mahomet Citizen and The News-Gazette.	Sep 13, 2011 11:14 AM
180	Cleveland Plain Dealer and Cleveland Sun Newspapers	Sep 13, 2011 11:06 AM
181	Valley City Times-Record	Sep 13, 2011 11:01 AM
182	Hays Free Press All Around Hays	Sep 13, 2011 10:59 AM
183	Urbana Daily Citizen, Mechanicsburg Telegram, The River Current, The Indian Lake Current	Sep 13, 2011 10:54 AM
184	The State Journal-Register, Springfield, Illinois The Courier, Lincoln, Illinois	Sep 13, 2011 10:38 AM
185	West Plains (Mo.) Daily Quill	Sep 13, 2011 10:26 AM
186	The Budget, serving Amish / Mennonite communities across the United States.	Sep 13, 2011 10:24 AM
187	Lacon Home Journal Toluca Star Herald	Sep 13, 2011 10:14 AM
188	Times-Republic (Watseka, IL) Hoopeston Chronicle (Hoopeston, IL)	Sep 13, 2011 9:55 AM
189	Cambridge Chronicle, Orion Gazette, Galva News, Geneseo Republic	Sep 13, 2011 9:45 AM
190	The Ozona Stockman	Sep 13, 2011 9:43 AM
191	North Jackson Progress	Sep 13, 2011 9:41 AM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

192	Herald & Review	Sep 13, 2011 9:26 AM
193	Newman Grove Reporter	Sep 13, 2011 9:21 AM
194	The Climax Crescent Newspaper	Sep 13, 2011 9:21 AM
195	Tomahawk Leader, Tomahawk, WI	Sep 13, 2011 9:14 AM
196	Representative / Association of the Michigan Newspaper Industry	Sep 13, 2011 9:13 AM
197	Kuna Melba News, Kuna, Idaho	Sep 13, 2011 9:11 AM
198	The Gazette-Democrat, Anna, IL	Sep 13, 2011 9:09 AM
199	The Leader-Union Vandalia, Ill.	Sep 13, 2011 9:04 AM
200	Albion News Petersburg Press both in Nebraska	Sep 13, 2011 9:02 AM
201	Journal-Courier Jacksonville, IL	Sep 13, 2011 9:01 AM
202	Sidney Daily News, Piqua Daily Call, Troy Daily News, Xenia Daily Gazette, Fairborn Daily Herald, Tipp City/West Milton Record Herald, Englewood Independent, Vandalia Drummer News, Huber Heights Courier, Beavercreek News Current, Kettering-Oakwood Times, Centerville-Washington Township Times, Springboro Sun, Sugarcreek-Bellbrook Times, Miami County Advocate, Shelby County Community Merchant.	Sep 13, 2011 8:57 AM
203	The Journal-News, Hillsboro, IL The Raymond News The Sorento News	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
204	The Gilman Star See below-was a member for several years but no longer	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
205	Bellefontaine Examiner	Sep 13, 2011 8:56 AM
206	Sidell Reporter,IL	Sep 13, 2011 8:46 AM
207	Pawnee Republican Tecumseh Chieftain	Sep 13, 2011 8:45 AM
208	Miles City Star, The Independent Press, The Terry Tribune	Sep 13, 2011 8:44 AM
209	Editor, The Courier, Carterville, IL 62918	Sep 13, 2011 8:41 AM
210	The Tuscola Journal Tri-County Journal	Sep 13, 2011 8:40 AM
211	Hartselle Enquirer	Sep 13, 2011 8:38 AM
212	The Herald-Mail	Sep 13, 2011 8:35 AM
213	The Mayfield Messenger	Sep 13, 2011 8:35 AM
214	Portageville Missourian-News	Sep 13, 2011 8:33 AM
215	Galena Gazette	Sep 13, 2011 8:33 AM
216	Staunton Star-Times in Staunton, IL	Sep 13, 2011 8:32 AM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

217	Gazette Newspaper Group The Gazette, Jefferson The Ashtabula/Geneva Gazette, Ashtabula and Geneva The News, Andover and Orwell The Shores News, Roaming Shores The Tribune, Madison/Perry/Painesville/Mentor The Albion News, Albion,PA The Edinboro News, Edinboro, PA	Sep 13, 2011 8:31 AM
218	Henry News Republican Wenona Index	Sep 13, 2011 8:29 AM
219	The Cass County Star-Gazette. the Star-Gazette Extra	Sep 13, 2011 8:28 AM
220	Commercial-News, Three Rivers, MI. Crawford County Avalanche, Grayling, MI	Sep 13, 2011 8:27 AM
221	The Telegraph - Alton, IL	Sep 13, 2011 8:27 AM
222	The Regional News and The Reporter Newspaper	Sep 13, 2011 8:26 AM
223	Blue Mound Leader	Sep 13, 2011 8:24 AM
224	Michigan Chronicle; Michigan FrontPage	Sep 13, 2011 8:23 AM
225	Jersey County Journal, Greene Prairie Press, Calhoun News-Herald	Sep 13, 2011 8:22 AM
226	The Grant County News (Kentucky) and the Grant County Express	Sep 13, 2011 8:19 AM
227	Ludington Daily News; Oceana's Herald-Journal; White Lake Beacon	Sep 13, 2011 8:13 AM
228	Daily News, Wahpeton, N.D., News-Monitor, Hankinson, N.D.	Sep 13, 2011 8:11 AM
229	The Cherokee Ledger-News	Sep 13, 2011 8:06 AM
230	The Anadarko Daily News	Sep 13, 2011 8:06 AM
231	Murray Ledger & Times Murray, KY 42071	Sep 13, 2011 8:03 AM
232	Call News of Citronelle, AL. 36522 and the Washington County News of Chatom AL. 36518	Sep 13, 2011 7:59 AM
233	The Monitor Journal Little River, KS	Sep 13, 2011 7:58 AM
234	Sandusky Tribune & Deckerville Recorder	Sep 13, 2011 7:54 AM
235	The Pioneer, Big Rapids, Michigan The News Advocate, Manistee, Michigan Lake County Star, Benzie County Record Patriot, Osceola Edition of Pioneer (3 weeklies)	Sep 13, 2011 7:51 AM
236	Ruston Daily Leader, Farmerville Gazette	Sep 13, 2011 7:48 AM
237	Oscoda Press & Iosco County News-Herald	Sep 13, 2011 7:46 AM
238	Gainesville Daily Register, Gainesville, TX	Sep 13, 2011 7:43 AM
239	Branson Tri-Lakes News, Branson, MO	Sep 13, 2011 7:43 AM
240	Presque Isle County Advance, Onaway Outlook in Rogers City and Onaway, Michigan	Sep 13, 2011 7:42 AM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

241	Review Magazine	Sep 13, 2011 7:36 AM
242	West Life, The Press (Avon Lake, Ohio), The North Ridgeville Press, The Vermilion Photojournal, The Chagrin Valley Times, The Solon Times, The Geauga Times Courier, The Suburban Press and The Metro Press.	Sep 13, 2011 7:34 AM
243	Norfolk Daily News, Norfolk, NE	Sep 13, 2011 7:34 AM
244	Again, while we don't publish, this is a list of the papers to which we subscribe for mail delivery: Antrim County News, Charlevoix Courier, Iron Country Reporter, Manistique Pioneer-Tribune, St. Ignace News (and I'm missing one). While subscription costs are not extraordinarily high, some post office closures in northern lower Michigan and the Upper Peninsula will force newspapers to raise costs and those will have to be passed on to subscribers.	Sep 13, 2011 7:32 AM
245	Pike County News Watchman	Sep 13, 2011 7:29 AM
246	Moberly Monitor-Index	Sep 13, 2011 7:28 AM
247	The Republican-Herald, Pottsville, Pa The News-Item, Shamokin, Pa	Sep 13, 2011 7:27 AM
248	GLADWIN COUNTY RECORD, Gladwin, Michigan	Sep 13, 2011 7:25 AM
249	Palestine Herald Press Palestine, Texas	Sep 13, 2011 7:22 AM
250	Pulaski County Journal and The Independent	Sep 13, 2011 7:22 AM
251	The Missaukee Sentinel	Sep 13, 2011 7:21 AM
252	The Lamar Democrat, Lamar, Missouri 64759	Sep 13, 2011 7:20 AM
253	The Crittenden Press The Early Bird	Sep 13, 2011 7:20 AM
254	The Lebanon Enterprise	Sep 13, 2011 7:15 AM
255	Times-Journal, The EXTRA (TMC) and The Sand Mountain Shopper's Guide (TMC)	Sep 13, 2011 7:03 AM
256	Franklin County Times Russellville, Alabama	Sep 13, 2011 6:59 AM
257	The Baltimore Sun, SunPlus, b, The Arbutus Times, Baltimore Messenger, Carroll Eagle, Catonsville Times, ColumbiaFlier, Howard County Times, Jeffersonian, Laurel LEader, North COuntY News, Northeast BoosterReporter, Owings Mills Times, Soundoff!, Towson Times, The Aegis, APG News, The Record, Weekeders.	Sep 13, 2011 6:58 AM
258	The Aurora Advertiser, The Big AA Shopper	Sep 13, 2011 6:56 AM
259	Greenfield Daily Reporter, Pendleton Times-Post	Sep 13, 2011 6:49 AM
260	The Daily Union (Junction City), The Wamego Smoke Signal	Sep 13, 2011 6:46 AM
261	The New Republic	Sep 13, 2011 6:43 AM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

262	Eldon Advertiser Versailles Leader-Statesman Morgan County Press Miller County Autogram-Sentinel Tipton Times	Sep 13, 2011 6:43 AM
263	Mountain Advocate, Barbourville, KY , Manchester Enterprise, Jackson Co. Sun, Berea Citizen, Booneville Sentinel, Pineville Sun, Beattyville Enterprise, Jackson Times in Breathitt Co.,	Sep 13, 2011 6:41 AM
264	Daily Statesman, North Stoddard Countian	Sep 13, 2011 6:39 AM
265	Fulton County News	Sep 13, 2011 6:39 AM
266	The Moorefield Examiner The Weekender, Hardy Pendleton Edition	Sep 13, 2011 6:38 AM
267	pikeville ky	Sep 13, 2011 6:36 AM
268	The Republican (Oakland, MD)	Sep 13, 2011 6:31 AM
269	The Dawson Springs Progress	Sep 13, 2011 6:29 AM
270	Anderson County Advocate Garnett, KS	Sep 13, 2011 6:29 AM
271	Picayune Item-Picayune, MS Poplarville Democrat-Poplarville, MS	Sep 13, 2011 6:28 AM
272	The Delmarva Farmer The New Jersey Farmer Mid-Atlantic Grower	Sep 13, 2011 6:27 AM
273	Baltimore Jewish Times	Sep 13, 2011 6:26 AM
274	The Belleville (KS) Telescope The Fairbury (Ne) Journal-News	Sep 13, 2011 6:24 AM
275	Parke County Sentinel	Sep 13, 2011 6:09 AM
276	Glasgow(KY) Daily Times	Sep 13, 2011 6:08 AM
277	Coastal Observer	Sep 13, 2011 6:07 AM
278	The Lebanon Enterprise	Sep 13, 2011 5:59 AM
279	The Citizen-Advertiser and The Bourbon County Citizen	Sep 13, 2011 5:37 AM
280	The Times (daily), Noblesville, Ind. The Paper of Montgomery County (daily), Crawfordsville, Ind. The Weekly of West-Central Indiana (free weekly), Crawfordsville, Ind.	Sep 13, 2011 4:49 AM
281	Lancaster Farming, Ephrata Pa. 17522. 1-717-721-4417	Sep 13, 2011 4:06 AM
282	Franklin Township Informer	Sep 13, 2011 3:31 AM
283	The Advertizer Herald, The Santee Striper, The North Trade Journal and The holly Hill Observer.	Sep 13, 2011 3:19 AM
284	The Wayne Independent, Honesdale, PA The Carbondale News, Carbondale, PA The Villager, Moscow, PA The News Eagle, Hawley, PA	Sep 13, 2011 2:44 AM
285	Sidney Herald, Sidney, Montana	Sep 12, 2011 8:19 PM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

286	Wharton Journal-Spectator East Bernard Express	Sep 12, 2011 7:55 PM
287	Mountaintop Eagle	Sep 12, 2011 6:43 PM
288	El Dorado Springs Sun	Sep 12, 2011 6:37 PM
289	Webb City Sentinel	Sep 12, 2011 6:14 PM
290	West Valley View	Sep 12, 2011 6:12 PM
291	Pike County Dispatch ,	Sep 12, 2011 6:10 PM
292	The Munising News The Alger County Shopper	Sep 12, 2011 5:53 PM
293	Liberty County Times	Sep 12, 2011 5:41 PM
294	The Spencer Magnet, Taylorsville, KY 40071	Sep 12, 2011 5:17 PM
295	Beaverton Valley Times Tigard & Tualatin Times Lake Oswego Review West Linn Tidings Clackamas Review Oregon City News Gresham Outlook Estacada News Sandy Post Forest Grove News-Times South County Spotlight Portland Tribune Selwood Bee Southwest Community Connection Boom! Regal Courier	Sep 12, 2011 5:02 PM
296	Crawford Clipper/Harrison Sun	Sep 12, 2011 5:01 PM
297	Lynden Tribune and Ferndale Record	Sep 12, 2011 4:36 PM
298	The Superior Express, Jewell County Record, Nuckolls County Locomotive-Gazette	Sep 12, 2011 4:24 PM
299	Gallatin North Missourian	Sep 12, 2011 4:17 PM
300	The Warren Record	Sep 12, 2011 4:01 PM
301	Williamson County Sun, Georgetown, Texas	Sep 12, 2011 3:55 PM
302	The Mercedes Enterprise, Mercedes, TX 78570	Sep 12, 2011 3:43 PM
303	Natchitoches Times Newspapers	Sep 12, 2011 3:33 PM
304	The Lexington Progress, Inc. Lexington, TN	Sep 12, 2011 3:30 PM
305	The Daily Home (daily) St Clair Times (weekly)	Sep 12, 2011 3:23 PM
306	The Link, Cheraw, SC	Sep 12, 2011 3:19 PM
307	Fayette County Record, La Grange, TX	Sep 12, 2011 3:17 PM
308	St. Tammany Farmer, Covington LA	Sep 12, 2011 3:12 PM
309	Andalusia, AL	Sep 12, 2011 3:12 PM
310	The Odessan Focus on Oak Grove	Sep 12, 2011 3:11 PM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

311	The McPherson Sentinel, McPherson, KS The Newton Kansan, Newton, KS The Pratt Tribune, Pratt, KS The Wellington Daily News, Wellington, KS	Sep 12, 2011 3:10 PM
312	Independence/Blue Springs Examiner Leavenworth Times	Sep 12, 2011 3:10 PM
313	Abbeville Meridional and The Kaplan Herald	Sep 12, 2011 3:09 PM
314	Dodge County Pionier and the Campbellsport News	Sep 12, 2011 3:07 PM
315	The Independent-Observer, Conrad 59425	Sep 12, 2011 3:06 PM
316	The Salem News, The Licking News, The Extra (shopper)	Sep 12, 2011 3:03 PM
317	Lawrence Journal-World Baldwin City Signal Bonner Springs Chieftain Basehor Sentinel Tonganoxie Mirror	Sep 12, 2011 3:02 PM
318	The Nebraska Signal, Geneva, NE	Sep 12, 2011 3:02 PM
319	Frankfort Area News	Sep 12, 2011 2:57 PM
320	Washington County Enterprise and Pilot-Tribune, Arlington Citizen, Oakland Independent, Lyons Mirror-Sun, Dakota County Star, Mapleton Press, Missouri Valley Times-News, Seward County Independent, Milford Times, Friend Sentinel, Wilber Republican	Sep 12, 2011 2:56 PM
321	Sterling (Kansas) Bulletin	Sep 12, 2011 2:53 PM
322	St. Paul, Nebraska Phonograph-Herald Wolbach, Nebraska Messenger	Sep 12, 2011 2:53 PM
323	Amite Tangi Digest Kentwood News Ledger St. Helena Echo	Sep 12, 2011 2:51 PM
324	The Hutchinson News Hutchinson, KS	Sep 12, 2011 2:49 PM
325	The Moultrie News The Charleston Mercury MUSC Catalyst	Sep 12, 2011 2:45 PM
326	Cherokee Scout/Andrews Journal	Sep 12, 2011 2:42 PM
327	The Daily Review, Franklin Banner-Tribune (St. Mary Parish)	Sep 12, 2011 2:40 PM
328	Yellowstone County News	Sep 12, 2011 2:38 PM
329	The Goodland Star-News	Sep 12, 2011 2:37 PM
330	The Onaga Herald	Sep 12, 2011 2:36 PM
331	Montgomery County Chronicle (Caney, KS) The Prairie Star (Sedan, KS) Labette Avenue (Oswego KS)	Sep 12, 2011 2:35 PM
332	Greene County Independent, Inc	Sep 12, 2011 2:34 PM
333	Colfax County Press and Leigh World	Sep 12, 2011 2:34 PM
334	The Fairview Observer	Sep 12, 2011 2:33 PM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

335	Navajo Times (newspaper)	Sep 12, 2011 2:30 PM
336	The Arnold Sentinel Thomas County Herald - Thedford The Stapleton Enterprise/McPherson County NewsE	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
337	Marlboro Herald-Advocate, Benneettsville, South Carolina 29512	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
338	The County Compass -- we are a free, and rapidly growing weekly newspaper. There is a bias in our industry against free, hard news publications.	Sep 12, 2011 2:29 PM
339	The Glasgow Courier	Sep 12, 2011 2:28 PM
340	Cadillac News	Sep 12, 2011 2:26 PM
341	The Standard Banner Jefferson City, Tennessee	Sep 12, 2011 2:25 PM
342	See above	Sep 12, 2011 2:24 PM
343	The Mountaineer - Waynesville, NC Biltmore Beacon - Asheville, NC	Sep 12, 2011 2:23 PM
344	Conway County Petit Jean Country Headlight Perry County Petit Jean Country Headlight	Sep 12, 2011 2:23 PM
345	The Herington Times, Herington, Kan.	Sep 12, 2011 2:19 PM
346	Philipsburg Mail	Sep 12, 2011 2:19 PM
347	Mohave Daily News Needles Desert Star Laughlin Nevada Times Clippin' the River (Direct Mail Shopper) Booster Advertiser (Rack and Stack Shopper)	Sep 12, 2011 2:19 PM
348	The Callaway Courier	Sep 12, 2011 2:17 PM
349	Glen Ullin Times	Sep 12, 2011 2:17 PM
350	Gasconade County Republican	Sep 12, 2011 2:17 PM
351	Hometown News in Hewitt, Texas Riesel Rustler Waco Farm & Labor Journal	Sep 12, 2011 2:16 PM
352	Parsons Sun	Sep 12, 2011 2:15 PM
353	The Evergreen Courant, Evergreen, Alabama	Sep 12, 2011 2:14 PM
354	Robertson County Times Springfield, TN	Sep 12, 2011 2:14 PM
355	Conde News Doland Times Record	Sep 12, 2011 2:13 PM
356	The Press-Dispatch, Petersburg, IN South Gibson Star-Times, Fort Branch, IN	Sep 12, 2011 2:10 PM
357	Douglas County Post - Gazette Elkhorn, NE Gretna Guide & News Gretna, NE	Sep 12, 2011 2:07 PM
358	The Elk Valley Times	Sep 12, 2011 2:06 PM
359	The Burwell Tribune and The Sargent Leader	Sep 12, 2011 2:06 PM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

360	Dillon Tribune	Sep 12, 2011 2:06 PM
361	The Lindsborg News-Record	Sep 12, 2011 2:04 PM
362	The Herald-News - Wolf Point, MT The Searchlight - Culbertson, MT	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM
363	Livingston, MT Enterprise	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM
364	Butler Eagle, Butler, Pa	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM
365	Jordan Tribune - Jordan, Montana 2nd Class mailing Tradewind - Jordan, Montana 3rd class mailing	Sep 12, 2011 2:03 PM
366	The Deshler Rustler	Sep 12, 2011 2:02 PM
367	West Point News Wisner News-Chronicle (publisher won't be back until Friday... I'm the editor...)	Sep 12, 2011 2:01 PM
368	VOICE NEWS, Hickman, NE	Sep 12, 2011 2:00 PM
369	The Fayetteville Observer, The Sandspur, Fort Bragg Life, Observer Marketplace, Acento Latino	Sep 12, 2011 2:00 PM
370	The Home News - Bath, PA	Sep 12, 2011 1:59 PM
371	Lewis County Herald	Sep 12, 2011 1:58 PM
372	The McKenzie Banner and Dresden Enterprise, McKenzie Tennessee 38201 Dresden Tennessee 38225	Sep 12, 2011 1:57 PM
373	The Anderson County Review- Garnett, Ks The Trading Post (Shopper)- Lawrence, Ks.	Sep 12, 2011 1:57 PM
374	The Clarion (Ashville, Alabama) The Banner Herald (Oneonta, Alabama)	Sep 12, 2011 1:56 PM
375	The Monroe Journal, Wayne County News and Tri-City Ledger	Sep 12, 2011 1:51 PM
376	The News Leader - Landrum,S.C. The Polk County News Journal - Columbus, N.C. The Keowee Courier - Walhalla, S.C. The Westminster News - Westminster, S.C.	Sep 12, 2011 1:50 PM
377	The Allendale Sun	Sep 12, 2011 1:49 PM
378	The Herald-News, Dayton, TN 37321	Sep 12, 2011 1:48 PM
379	Tabor-Loris Tribune	Sep 12, 2011 1:46 PM
380	The Daily Record in Little Rock, AR The Hamilton County Herald in Chattanooga, TN	Sep 12, 2011 1:44 PM
381	The Choctaw Sun-Advocate, Gilbertown, AL 36908	Sep 12, 2011 1:43 PM
382	This is the only one. (I see the next question, how do we become a member?)	Sep 12, 2011 1:41 PM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

383	Bolivar Herald-Free Press, Buffalo Reflex, Cedar County Republican, The Marshfield Mail, South County Mail, Christian County Headliner News, Nixa Xpress, and The Republic Monitor.	Sep 12, 2011 1:37 PM
384	Monroe Evening News Bedford NOW	Sep 12, 2011 1:36 PM
385	Decatur Daily Democrat, Monroeville News	Sep 12, 2011 1:35 PM
386	The Valley Times-News, Lanett, Ala.	Sep 12, 2011 1:35 PM
387	The St. Edward Advance at St. Edward, Nebraska	Sep 12, 2011 1:35 PM
388	The Chanute Tribune/The Parsons Sun	Sep 12, 2011 1:34 PM
389	Bloomfield Monitor	Sep 12, 2011 1:33 PM
390	The Anthony Republican	Sep 12, 2011 1:33 PM
391	Nemaha County Herald, Auburn Nebraska Nebraska ELks STate Association Newspaper	Sep 12, 2011 1:32 PM
392	Wise County Messenger	Sep 12, 2011 1:32 PM
393	Eldridge (IA) North Scott Press Wilton-Durant (IA) Advocate News	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM
394	Times, Germantown News	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM
395	Lake Powell Chronicle - Page, AZ	Sep 12, 2011 1:31 PM
396	Georgetown Times, Waccamaw Times	Sep 12, 2011 1:30 PM
397	Highmore Herald	Sep 12, 2011 1:28 PM
398	Watertown Public Opinion	Sep 12, 2011 1:28 PM
399	Custer County Chronicle Hill City Prevailer-News Winner Advocate	Sep 12, 2011 1:23 PM
400	Belton-Honea Path News-Chronicle	Sep 12, 2011 1:23 PM
401	Milton Times	Sep 12, 2011 1:19 PM
402	Gering Citizen	Sep 12, 2011 1:16 PM
403	The Baxley (Georgia) News-Banner	Sep 12, 2011 1:16 PM
404	State Press Assn.	Sep 12, 2011 1:10 PM
405	The Mountain Mail, Salida, CO; The Chaffee County Times, Buena Vista, CO; The Herald Democrat, Leadville, CO; The Park County Republican & Fairplay Flume, Bailey, CO	Sep 12, 2011 1:07 PM
406	Tri-County Weekly, Jamesport, Mo. 64648	Sep 12, 2011 1:03 PM
407	Estes Park Trail Gazette	Sep 12, 2011 12:59 PM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

408	Custer County Chief	Sep 12, 2011 12:54 PM
409	Dodge Criterion 68633-0068	Sep 12, 2011 12:54 PM
410	The Independent, Dundee, MI 48131	Sep 12, 2011 12:47 PM
411	All papers in Iowa -- Traer Star Clipper; Tama News-Herald, Toledo Chronicle, Dysart Reporter, Reinbeck Courier, Gladbrook Northern Sun-Print, Marshalltown Times-republican.	Sep 12, 2011 12:39 PM
412	The Tullahoma News Manchester Times Elk Valley Times Grundy County Herald The Herald/Chronicle The Moore County News all in Tennessee	Sep 12, 2011 12:38 PM
413	Rock County Star Hrrald Luverne MN	Sep 12, 2011 12:38 PM
414	The Purcell Register	Sep 12, 2011 12:36 PM
415	Sherman Publications, Inc	Sep 12, 2011 12:31 PM
416	Scotland Journal We are part of B&H Publishing which publishes the Scotland Journal, Tyndall Tribune and Springfield Times.	Sep 12, 2011 12:29 PM
417	The Door County Advocate	Sep 12, 2011 12:27 PM
418	Boone County Journal Ashland, Missouri 65010	Sep 12, 2011 12:24 PM
419	OURAY COUNTY PLAINDEALER	Sep 12, 2011 12:24 PM
420	The Advertiser-Gleam	Sep 12, 2011 12:23 PM
421	Steele Ozone & Kidder County Press	Sep 12, 2011 12:19 PM
422	Herald Journal (Winsted MN) Dassel-Cokato Enterprise Dispatch (Cokato MN) Delano Herald Journal (Delano MN)	Sep 12, 2011 12:18 PM
423	American-News, Aberdeen SD	Sep 12, 2011 12:15 PM
424	The Clatskanie Chief	Sep 12, 2011 12:10 PM
425	Benkelman Post Hitchcock County News Hayes Center Times Republican	Sep 12, 2011 12:06 PM
426	Rome (NY) Daily Sentinel	Sep 12, 2011 12:05 PM
427	The Burke Gazette	Sep 12, 2011 12:00 PM
428	The Graham Leader, Breckenridge American, Jacksboro Gazette-News, The Jack County Herald, Lake Country Sun, The Olney Enterprise, Burleson Star, Alvarado Star, Crowley Star, Joshua Star, Keene Starr (all in Texas)	Sep 12, 2011 11:52 AM
429	The Britton Journal The Langford Bugle	Sep 12, 2011 11:51 AM
430	Yankton county Observer	Sep 12, 2011 11:51 AM
431	Mt. Pleasant (IA) News and Mt. Pleasant Shopper	Sep 12, 2011 11:49 AM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

432	Howell County News	Sep 12, 2011 11:49 AM
433	Cut Bank Pioneer Press, The Valerian, Shelby Promoter and Browning Glacier Reporter.	Sep 12, 2011 11:47 AM
434	The Onida Watchman, Inc.	Sep 12, 2011 11:47 AM
435	The Prentiss Headlight, Prentiss, MS 39474	Sep 12, 2011 11:45 AM
436	The Charlotte Gazette and The Kenbridge Victoria Dispatch	Sep 12, 2011 11:44 AM
437	There are 50 newspapers in our group.	Sep 12, 2011 11:42 AM
438	The Mexia News	Sep 12, 2011 11:37 AM
439	The Allegan County News, The Commercial Record, The Union Enterprise	Sep 12, 2011 11:37 AM
440	The News-Gazette, Lexington, VA	Sep 12, 2011 11:37 AM
441	Sioux Valley News, Sioux Valley Advertiser	Sep 12, 2011 11:36 AM
442	Bethany Republican-Clipper	Sep 12, 2011 11:33 AM
443	Carroll County Review Thomson, IL 61285	Sep 12, 2011 11:32 AM
444	The Clarendon Enterprise	Sep 12, 2011 11:32 AM
445	Wilson County News La Vernia News	Sep 12, 2011 11:30 AM
446	Nodaway News Leader	Sep 12, 2011 11:29 AM
447	The Picayune, River Cities Daily Tribune, and Highland Lakes Business Journal.	Sep 12, 2011 11:28 AM
448	Mount Ayr Record-News	Sep 12, 2011 11:26 AM
449	Independent Coast Observer, Gualala, CA 95445	Sep 12, 2011 11:25 AM
450	Curry County Reporter, Gold Beach, Oregon	Sep 12, 2011 11:24 AM
451	Nevada Daily Mail, Nevada, MO The Fort Scott Tribune, Fort Scott, KS The Herald-Tribune, Nevada, MO and Fort Scott, KS (combined Saturday product)	Sep 12, 2011 11:23 AM
452	The Cabool Enterprise, Cabool, Missouri	Sep 12, 2011 11:21 AM
453	The Sentinel of Gloucester County (weekly)	Sep 12, 2011 11:21 AM
454	Montgomery Standard - Mo.	Sep 12, 2011 11:18 AM
455	Stone County Leader Mountain View Arkansas, 72560	Sep 12, 2011 11:17 AM
456	The Charleston Sun-Sentinel, Charleston, Mississippi	Sep 12, 2011 11:17 AM
457	Town Crier Tewksbury / Wilmington, MA	Sep 12, 2011 11:16 AM

Q11. Please tell us which newspaper or newspapers you publish

458	The Tunica Times, Tunica, MS	Sep 12, 2011 11:15 AM
459	Kendall County Record Yorkville IL 60560; Plano Record 60545; Oswego Ledger-Sentinel 60543 and 60538; Sandwich Record 60548	Sep 12, 2011 11:14 AM
460	The Valley Voice	Sep 12, 2011 11:12 AM
461	Kings Mountain Herald Cherryville Eagle Belmont/Mt. Holly Banner News North Carolina	Sep 12, 2011 11:11 AM
462	Belmond (Iowa) Independent	Sep 12, 2011 11:09 AM
463	West Essex Tribune, Livingston, NJ	Sep 12, 2011 11:09 AM
464	Star Valley Independent	Sep 12, 2011 11:05 AM
465	Oologah Lake Leader, Oologah, OK 74053	Sep 12, 2011 11:03 AM
466	Pine Bluffs Post	Sep 12, 2011 11:01 AM
467	Choteau Acantha weekly newspaper PO Box 320, Choteau, MT 59422	Sep 12, 2011 11:00 AM
468	Zeeland Record	Sep 12, 2011 10:59 AM
469	Coast Lake News	Sep 12, 2011 10:59 AM
470	Polk County News	Sep 12, 2011 10:57 AM
471	Jackson Hole News&Guide	Sep 12, 2011 10:57 AM
472	The Star and The Star Buyers' Guide, out of Grand Coulee, WA.	Sep 12, 2011 10:55 AM
473	Missouri — Cuba Free Press, Saint James Press, Steelville Star-Crawford Mirror and The Extra Plan (TMC)	Sep 12, 2011 10:54 AM
474	Lakefield Standard Jackson County Pilot	Sep 12, 2011 10:51 AM
475	Dodgeville Chronicle Democrat-Tribune Pecatonica Valley Leader	Sep 12, 2011 10:50 AM
476	Valentine Midland News, Valentine, NE Ainsworth Star-Journal, Ainsworth, NE Gregory Times-Advocate, Gregory, SD	Sep 12, 2011 10:45 AM
477	Pauls Valley Democrat	Sep 12, 2011 10:43 AM
478	The Pagosa Springs SUN	Sep 12, 2011 10:41 AM
479	The Meade County Messenger	Sep 12, 2011 10:32 AM
480	Gunnison Country Times.	Sep 12, 2011 10:32 AM
481	Copiah County Courier, Hazlehurst, MS	Sep 12, 2011 10:32 AM
482	Hood County News, Granbury, TX 76048	Sep 12, 2011 10:31 AM